Miss Grooms of Iowa Is Wed To Larry Wendall Johnson

Miss Sandra Kaye Grooms, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Grooms, Ottumwa, Iowa, was married to Mr. Larry Wendall Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wendall Johnson, Plattsmouth.

The eight p.m. ceremony took place at the Wildwood Evangelical Free Church in Ottumwa June 9th. Rev. Walter Berggren, pastor of the church, officiated in the presence of 250 guests.

The church altar was decorated in a garden affect with an arch covered with white roses and baskets of lavender and white chrysanthemums and candelabra, at either side.

Donald Grooms, the bride's cousin, sang as did the maid of honor.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a white floor length parchment taffeta gown for her wedding. The Sabrina neckline was set off with sequins. A row of lace encircled the bottom of the gown and the chapel train. She wore a fingertip veil held in place by a Swedish crown of pearls. She carried a lavender orchid on a white Bible.

Karen Faith Johnson, Ottumwa, was maid of honor; Judy Linette Schneider, Oskaloosa, Iowa and Mrs. Sharon Iene Shoafstall of Des Moines also were the bride's attendants. They were groomed in alike lavender Taffeta dresses, full skirt and short sleeves. A lavender chiffon cummerbund extended to the hemline. Their headpieces were lavender veils adorned with pearls. Each carried a colonial bouquet of white and lavender carnations.

Lizabeth Ward was flower girl and ringbearer was Terry Schneider.

Best man was Roger Johnson, brother of the bridegroom. Ushering were Larry Grooms and George Pilcher III.

After the wedding ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors, where Mrs. Warren Grooms was hostess. Friends of the bride helped with the reception.

For her going-away trip to the Black Hills of South Dakota the bride wore a white eyelet sheath dress with white accessories.

She is a graduate of Ottumwa Iowa High School. Mr. Johnson is a graduate of Plattsmouth High School and attended Vennard College of Oskaloosa, Iowa. He is in the painting and decoration business with his father. The couple lives at 211 South Fifth Street, Plattsmouth.
