

Giants, Dodgers Win Playoff Titles; Braves, Cubs Play

The Giants defeated the regular-season champion Indians Tuesday, 9-3, to win the Pee Wee League playoff title and the Dodgers downed the Red Sox, 6-3, to add the Midget League playoff crown to their season title.

The Cubs and Braves play today in the deciding game of the Wee Wee League playoff. Playoffs in the three leagues were double-elimination. The Braves, with their backs to the wall, downed the Orioles, 13-1, Monday and the Cubs, 10-5,

Tuesday to stretch the Wee Wee League playdown to the limit.

In the Pee Wee League, the Indians had stayed alive in their bid for a fourth straight playoff crown by defeating the White Sox, 13-9, Monday. The Giants finished in a tie for third in the regular season in the four-team league.

The Midget League Red Sox defeated the regular-season runner-up Yankees, 8-3, Monday to carry their bid to a showdown with the Dodgers. The Red Sox finished third in the regular season.

Ridiculous Day—Still Well-Named!

The Journal feels pretty Ridiculous about this story.

(1st) No mention was made to its representatives that there would be judging of the costumes in the Ridiculous Day parade held a few weeks ago in Plattsmouth.

(2nd) The Judges forgot that they were to judge.

(3rd) The committee forgot who the judges were. The net result, no judging at the time of the parade.

However, the committee went over the parade in memory and announced the following winners to the Journal Tuesday of this week:

1st, DeWayne Freeburg; 2nd, Mollie Gobelman; 3rd, Mrs. Zulemma Dye.
