

TOUR BEGINS—New York International Airport—Fourteen Nebraska farmers and cooperative leaders, led by Mr. E. D. "Dick" Wilson, front row, left, vocational agriculture instructor, Minden High School, Minden, Neb., are shown boarding a SABENA Boeing 707 to Brussels, on a 20 day "People to People Journey" which will take them to England, Poland, Hungary, France and the Soviet Union. The purpose of their trip is to learn, in person, methods, working conditions and, in general, attempt to improve understanding and relations between Americans and people behind the Iron Curtain. Phillip Shafer of Nehawka is at left, bottom-most on the loading ramp.
