

CHAMP PEN OF 3—The championship pen of three market hogs was exhibited at the Cass County Fair by Ronnie Warden of Nehawka. He is a member of the Nehawka Swine Club and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warden.

Mrs. Mary Bose, 82, Avoca, Dies; Funeral Friday

Mrs. Mary Bose, 82, of Avoca died at Hilltop Nursing Home in Weeping Water Tuesday. She had been in poor health after a stroke May 1953.

She was born Aug. 5, 1880 at Hanover, Germany, daughter of Fred Rottmann and Sophia Muelenfeldt Rottmann.

She was married Nov. 29, 1906 to Henry H. Bose at the North Branch Lutheran Church. He preceded her in death August, 1938.

Surviving are sons Fred Bose, Temple City, Calif., Elmer Bose, Papillion and Mrs. Lela Huntman of Avoca; brother William Rottmann, Wadsworth, Kansas, seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

She was a member of the First Lutheran Church of Avoca, where she lived her entire lifetime while in this country.

Funeral services will be Friday, Aug. 31 at 2 p.m. in the First Lutheran Church, Avoca. Rev. Luther Scherer will officiate.

Fallbearers will be Elmer Hallstrom, John Rippi, Henry Roth, Herman Kamman, Otto Ludwig and Maynard Geschke.

Burial will be in North Branch Cemetery, west of Avoca.

Caldwell Funeral Home of Plattsmouth is in charge of arrangements.

Youth Center Open Friday 7:30 to 10:30

"The Plattsmouth Youth Center will be open Friday evening 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. in the Lion's Building for all youth," Harold Edwards, president of the Board of Directors of the Center, said today.

There will be dancing, ping pong and other games, snack bar and TV room.

Eighty-four youth were in attendance Saturday night at the Youth Center. Sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Les Hutchinson, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Koubek.

"A permanent director has not been selected by the board," Edwards said.

'Holding Action Is Scheduled'

Mrs. Louis Koutsky of Elmwood reported 20,000 attended the NFO Convention at Des Moines this week.

"An all-out holding action on livestock and all grain going to market for processing purposes has been set for Friday at midnight," Mrs. Koutsky of the Cass County NFO said.

THE BARGAIN TRAIL LEADS Classified

Meet the Teachers

(One of a series of photos and sketches introducing new Plattsmouth school teachers):

Mrs. Patricia McCormick is returning to Plattsmouth after a year of teaching in the Fremont public schools.

Mrs. McCormick taught sixth grade at Central Grade School during the 1960-61 school year and her experience last year in the Fremont Schools was in a sixth grade. Her assignment this year will be a fourth grade at Columbian School.

Mrs. McCormick is a native of Elkhorn. She received her high school training at Elkhorn and her college education at Wayne State Teachers College.

Her marriage to Bill McCormick of Plattsmouth prompted her return to Plattsmouth.

Mrs. Eldonna Forrest

Mrs. Eldonna Forrest is returning as a full time teacher after a year's leave and a year of serving as a substitute teacher.

Mrs. Forrest previously taught at First Ward from 1954 until 1959 and at Columbian School during the 1959-1960 school term. Her assignment this year will be a first grade at Columbian.

Mrs. Forrest is a graduate of Elk Creek High School, Elk Creek, Nebraska and has earned her college hours at Peru State Teachers College.

Record Enrollment Expected When School Opens Tuesday

Plattsmouth City Schools will begin the 1962-1963 school term Tuesday, Sept. 4.

School will be in session for only a half day on Tuesday.

Grades kindergarten through six, should report for school at 8:50 a.m., grades 7 & 8 at 8:20 a.m. and grades 9-12 at 8:30 a.m. The teaching staff is complete. This year the Plattsmouth Schools will have a faculty of 70 which is an increase of five staff members over the '61-'62 faculty.

Increasing enrollment and improving service prompted the need for the additional teachers, Supt. O. F. Mussman said. Two teachers will be added in the elementary area and three in the secondary area.

The maintenance and repair program is nearly complete so all is in readiness for the expected record enrollment.

High School begins with a general session in the Auditorium at 8:30. Grades 9-12 go directly to the Auditorium.

Grades 7 and 8 will go to their assigned rooms first. After meeting in their room teachers will go to the Auditorium.

To facilitate an 8:30 beginning for the general session, grades 7 and 8 should come to school so that they can have found their room by 8:20.

Classroom rolls will be posted on the doors of the Junior High room enabling each pupil to determine his assigned room.

Room assignments are as follows:

7A — Unit A — Mr. Hesselink.
7B — Unit B — Mrs. Mehrens.
7C — BIE — Mr. Mercer.
7D — 111 — Mr. York.
8A — 103 — Mr. Miller.
8B — 108 — Mr. Detwiler.
8C — BIW — Mr. Medina.
8D — 101 — Mrs. Seward.

Pupils who have not as yet registered should do so prior to Tuesday morning if possible.

Classes will begin Tuesday, for all students in the Plattsmouth Elementary Schools, including afternoon Kindergarten students. This will not be a full half-day session.

Beginning Sept. 5, the time schedule for the elementary schools is as follows:

8:45 Warning Bell.
8:50 Classes Begin.
11:30 Kindergarten and 1st Grade dismissed.
11:45 Grades 2-6 dismissed.
12:40 Warning Bell.
12:45 Classes Begin.
3:25 Kindergarten and 1st Grade dismissed.
3:30 Grades 2-6 dismissed.

The school lunch program will begin on Wednesday, Sept. 5. The school milk program will begin Monday, Sept. 10.

Kangaroo Court Planned Here

The Veterans of Foreign Wars here are planning to conduct Kangaroo Court here Saturday nights to generate interest in the King Korn Carnival Parades next month.

The plan is "to arrest every merchant and farmer in this area to get them to participate in Carnival Parades," Leonard Lutz told the City Council Monday night.

Lutz was present to ask use of a portion of the intersection of 5th and Main for the two hours before store closing time Saturday nights.

Permission was granted.

Adult Class in 'Sewing' Begins Here Sept. 11

The Vocational Homemaking Department of Plattsmouth High School will present an adult education course in elementary clothing construction beginning Sept. 11, at 7 p.m.

The series of six two-hour adult classes will meet in the homemaking department.

The material presented will be directed to those with little or no previous sewing experience. Only a limited number of persons will be permitted to enroll in order that more individual help can be given.

There will be no charge for the lessons.

Those wishing to enroll should call 3174 as soon as possible.

Gene's Bootery Has Grand Opening

A store that almost left town, but at the last minute was sold to the local manager will have its Grand Opening here Friday and Saturday.

It's Gene's Bootery, for the past years known as B & H Shoes. Owned by men from Blair, it was under the management of Gene Fees for the past 4½ years.

Last July when the Blair ownership decided to close the local store, Fees bought out the former owners and sold out most of the old stock and ordered new merchandise.

Friday, Gene will hold the Grand Opening of the now entirely local-owned store which is completely stocked with men's, women's and children's shoes from the better known shoe factories.

His opening ad appears on another page in this newspaper.

Gene's Bootery Has Grand Opening

A store that almost left town, but at the last minute was sold to the local manager will have its Grand Opening here Friday and Saturday.

It's Gene's Bootery, for the past years known as B & H Shoes. Owned by men from Blair, it was under the management of Gene Fees for the past 4½ years.

Last July when the Blair ownership decided to close the local store, Fees bought out the former owners and sold out most of the old stock and ordered new merchandise.

Friday, Gene will hold the Grand Opening of the now entirely local-owned store which is completely stocked with men's, women's and children's shoes from the better known shoe factories.

His opening ad appears on another page in this newspaper.

Wanted: Talent For KKK Show

Talent is needed for the Cass County King Korn Carnival Talent show which will be Saturday afternoon at 2:30, Sept. 22.

"A good variety of local talent is desired, as well as from the county," Mrs. Janice Freeburg, chairman of the talent show, said.

For more information write or phone the Plattsmouth Chamber of Commerce, 7190, or Mrs. Freeburg, 2496.

FAIR RESULTS

Cass County Fair results have not been published in the Plattsmouth Journal in its entirety.

Further results are pending publication as space permits.

—The Editor.

Cass County Fair Results

Dairy
Dairy Showmanship Junior Division: Purple, Lyle Pollard; Blue, Roger Bond, Larry Vogler; Red, Lynn Vinduska, Susan Glasshoff, Tom m y Hohman; White, Bill Saxton, Marvin Vogler, Roger Hammons.

Senior Division: Purple, Margaret Lorenzen, Richard Hohman, Cheryl Pollard, Richard Lorenzen; Blue, Steve Hohman, Clayton Streich, Larry Bond, John Rosenow, Terrell Dreamer, Ralph Dreamer, Marilyn Vinduska, Phyllis Hohman; Red, Deanna Bond, Linda Schliefer, Raymond Jacobs, Russell Glasshoff, Larry Hammons; White, Marilyn Vogler, Bill Hauschild, Betty Hauschild, Marilyn Hammons.

Showmanship Finals: 1st, Margaret Lorenzen, 2nd, Richard Hohman, 3rd, Cheryl Pollard, 4th, Richard Lorenzen, 5th, Lyle Pollard.

Holstein Jr. Calf: Purple, Phyllis Hohman; Blue, Roger Bond; Red, Susan Glasshoff;

White, Bill Saxton, Deanna Bond.
Holstein Sr. Calf: Purple, Cheryl Pollard; Blue, Lyle Pollard, Steve Hohman, Deanna Bond, Phyllis Hohman; Red, Richard Hohman, John Rosenow, Russell Glasshoff, Tom Hohman; White, Lynn Vinduska, Larry Bond.
Jr. Yearling Holstein: Blue, Marilyn Vinduska, Raymond Jacobs.

Posters
Clothing: Blue, Elaine Sharp; White, Joy Miller.
Foods: Purple, Joyce Steiner; Blue, Ann Kendall, Cheryl Hollenbeck, Joan Leaver, Cindy Hansen, Laurie Hansen; Red, Colleen Bridenstine, Judy Stohlmann, Jennifer Joehim, Patricia Copple, Audrey Pester, Jane Fleischman; White, Karen McCoy, Trudy McCoy, Cathy Buechler, Colleen Baier, Eileen Bornemeier, Irene Pester, Kathy Brandes.
Home Living: Purple, Elaine Sharp; Red Linda Dasher, Peggy Aspedon.

Ordinance Asked For Improvement Of Cemetery Road

The City Council Monday night passed a motion directing Henningsen, Durham and Richardson, Omaha engineering consulting firm, to prepare an ordinance creating a street improvement district for the Cemetery Road (Avenue B).

That proposed project, long urged by many here, would involve the city, adjacent property owners and the federal government through the Urban Matching program.

The ordinance will be presented for Council consideration.

Parking Courtesy

The City Council Monday night granted the American Legion Post of Plattsmouth permission to place "Visitor" tags on cars of persons attending the Legion District Convention here Sept. 29. The courtesy was asked to prevent convention-goers from being unnecessarily ticketed for overtime parking.

Donald Wurga, adjutant of the local Legion Post, made the request of the Council.

170 Pupils St. John's Record

St. John's School will open the 1962-1963 scholastic year with High Mass at 8 a.m. in honor of the Holy Spirit Tuesday, Sept. 4.

A record number of 170 children have been enrolled.

The faculty consists of: Msgr. Joseph Pruzdzik, Superintendent, instructor in religion, Grades 1, 7 and 8, and Latin, Grades 6, 7 and 8; Father Myron Pleskac, instructor in religion, Grades 3, 4, 5 and 6, American History, Grades 7 and 8, and boys physical education, Grades 3, 8.

Sister Mary Lewis, Principal and home room teacher, Grades 7 and 8; Sister Mary Cabrini, home room teacher, Grades 5 and 6; Mrs. Janice Kozlowski, home room teacher, Grades 3 and 4, and girls physical education, Grades 1, 8; Sister Jean Richard, home room teacher, Grades 1 and 2.

Schools, Too, Want Some of Property

A request that the city consider sale of part of the 27-acre site is in the process of purchasing for city park use Monday night was received by the City Council.

Supt. O. F. Mussman made the request on behalf of the Board of Education. His letter said the Board has had a difficult search for suitable school sites and asked if the city would consider sale of 8 to 10 acres as an elementary school site.

The Council discussed the matter briefly and deferred action because plans for utilization of the Lapidus property are still to be developed.

Equalization Hearing Sept. 10 On St. Districts

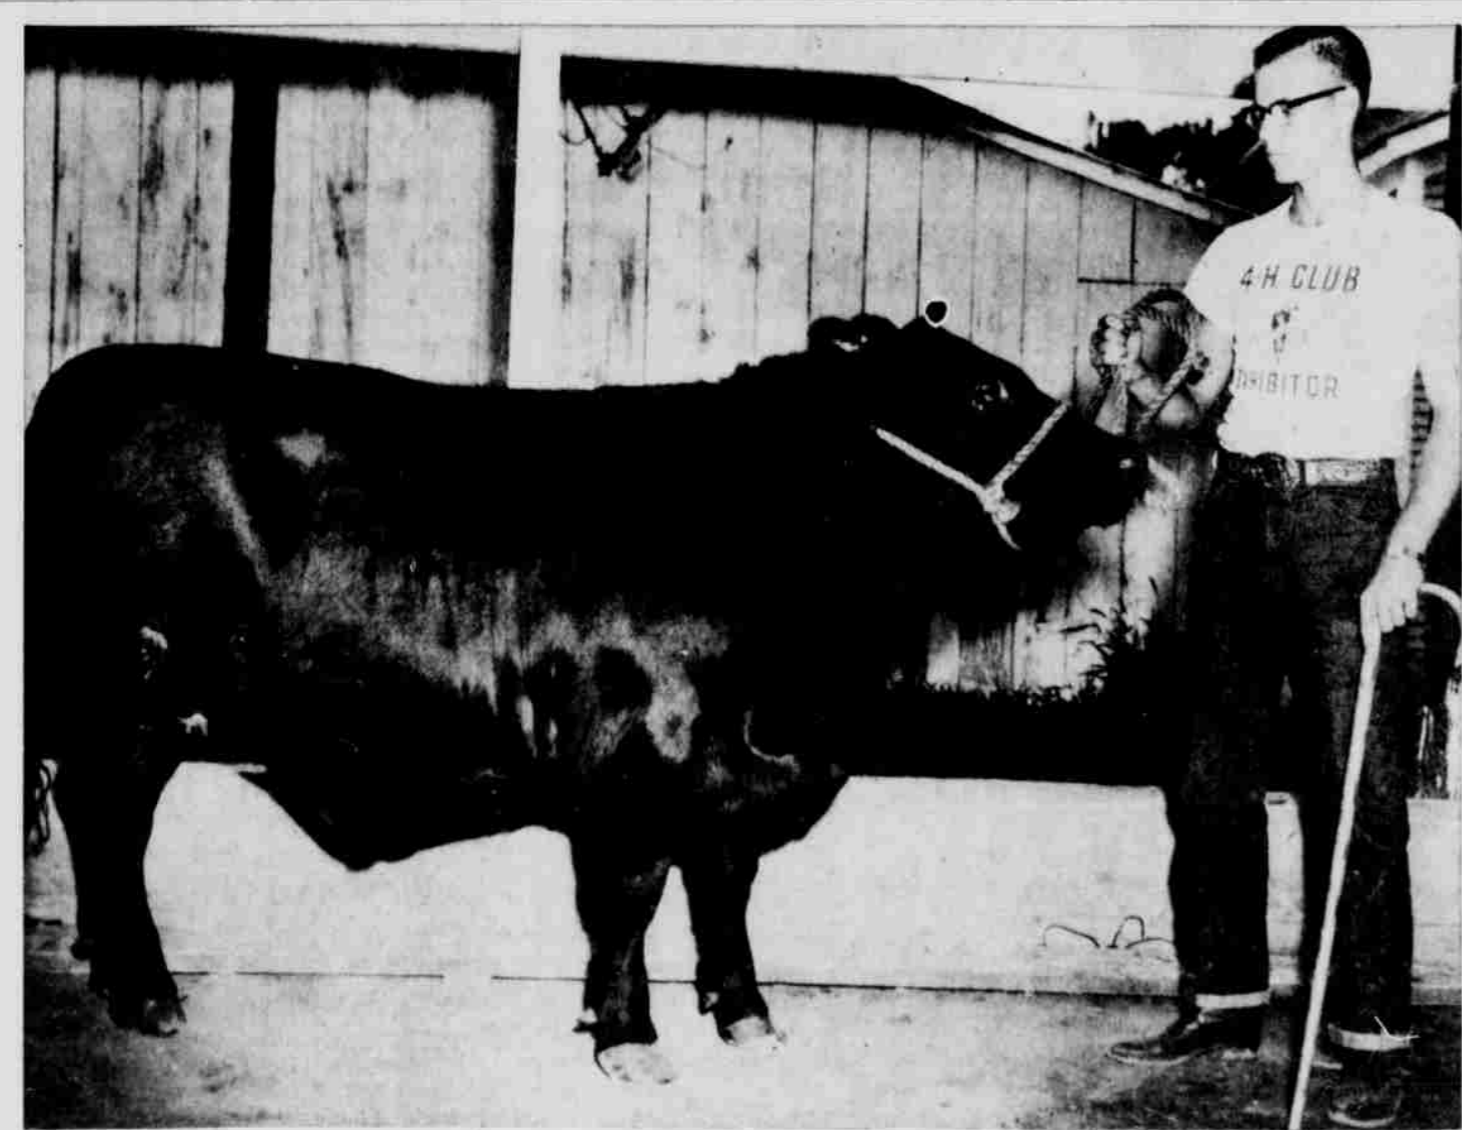

The City Council will sit as a Board of Equalization Sept. 10 at 7:30 to hear objections to proposed assessments for work in Street Improvement Districts 160 (4th from 6th to Lincoln Avenue) and 162 (11th Street from 2nd to 4th Avenue) and the Patricia Heights District.

Property owners will be notified of the equalization hearing. Assessment schedules are on file with the City Clerk-Treasurer.

KKK Granted Street Use

The Cass County King Korn Carnival Monday night was granted use of city streets for the annual Carnival next month.

Use of 5th Street for a carnival midway was granted as requested by King Korn Klub President Wayne Schneider.

BEST GAINER—This entry by David Kraeger of Plattsmouth won the 4-H Beef Rate-of-Gain title, results tabulated in connection with the County Fair showed. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Kraeger, he is a member of the Mynard Jolly Feeders 4-H Club.

Miss Rachel Block

Miss Rachel Block is returning to teach in the Plattsmouth Elementary School after spending a year at the University of Nebraska working toward her degree. She plans to complete the requirements for her degree next summer.

Miss Block taught a second grade in the Columbian School during the 1960-1961 school term. This year she will teach third grade in the same school.

Miss Block is a native of Unadilla. She attended Unadilla High School for three years but finished her high school education at Syracuse.

Mrs. Donna Gerbeling graduated from Nebraska Wesleyan University this summer and now holds her Bachelor of Arts Degree in Education.