Student Teachers At High School

With the opening of school, two University of Nebraska seniors, Miss Karen Nelson and Miss Jan L. Heureux will begin their student teaching experience at Plattsmouth High School.

Miss Nelson, the daughter of Carl A. H. Nelson, is from Albion. She graduated from Newman Grove High School in 1959. Her college activities included Vocational Homemaking Education Association.

Miss L. Heureux was graduated from Marian High School in Omaha in 1959 and attended Duchesne College before enrolling in the University last year. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Phil L. Heureux.

This past week the girls have been visiting incoming freshman homemaking students with their supervising teacher, Mrs. Barbara Heffelfinger.

In addition to their high school teaching, Miss Nelson and Miss L. Heureux will teach an adult class in elementary clothing construction at the high school beginning Sept. 11.

Murdock Girls Graduate from Nursing School

Mrs. Edward (Sondra Kay) Stickney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Smith of Murdock, was a member of the graduating class of Lincoln General Hospital School of Nursing.

Graduation was August 24 at 8 p.m. at St. Paul Methodist Church with a reception following at Cornhusker Hotel. There were 28 graduates.

Mrs. Forrest (Sharon) Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Panska of Murdock, was graduated from Lincoln General School of Nursing Aug. 24.

Commencement exercises were held at St. Paul's Methodist Church with Mayor Bartlett Boyles as guest speaker.

Street Grading Has Opposition

An objection to proposed grading of 7th Street on Wintersteen Hill was heard by the City Council Monday night.

Rudy Skalak, property owner there, and Paul Fauquet, his attorney, appeared at the Council meeting.

They said Skalak does not feel there have been adequate measures taken to prevent diversion of runoff water damaging his property. Fauquet said either a tube should be placed at 2nd Avenue to divert water or damages should be determined.

He asked that the project be held up for further investigation and study of the legal implications.

The Council's Streets and Alleys Committee were to visit the site with Skalak, Fauquet, the City Attorney and Street Commissioner.
