"Please Don't Hurt My Kids"

Dear Driver:

TODAY, MY DAUGHTER, who is six years old, started school for the first time. Her brother was with her, but he's only nine himself, and looks pretty little to me. The cocker spaniel, whose name is "Scott," sat on the front porch and whined his canine belief in the folly of education as they waved "goodbye" and started off to the halls.

LAST NIGHT WE TALKED ABOUT SCHOOL—my daughter and I. She wondered what the teacher would be like... she hoped she could sit by Mary (the little girl next door). She said her "letters" for me—just to be sure she knew them. Oh, we talked about a lot of things... tremendously vital, important things. Then she tried on her plaid pinafore to show me... and then to bed.

SHE LOOKED SO HELPLESS—sound asleep, with "Princess," (that's her doll, cuddled in her right arm). You see, I'm her daddy. When her doll is broken, or her finger cut, or her hand gets banged, I can fix it—but when she and brother start to school, when they walk across the street, then they're in your hands.

THEY'RE NICE KIDS, both of them. They like to ride horses, and swim and hike with me on Sunday afternoon. But I can't be with them all the time. I have to work to pay for their clothes and education. So please help me look out for them. Please drive slowly past the schools and intersections—please remember that children do run from behind parked cars.

PLEASE DON'T HURT MY KIDS!
