DOLLAR BILL NOT HERS
Knoxville, Tenn. — There's one little girl in Knoxville who will not claim a dollar unless it's really hers.
Margaret Martin, 11, lost a $1 bill at the fair. Fair officials showed her one that had been turned in at the office.
"Sorry, that isn't mine," said Margaret. "I fold my dollar bills differently."
