Connie Meisinger, Richard Wozy Wed in Omaha

LOUISVILLE (Special)—Connie Meisinger of Omaha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Meisinger of Louisville, and Richard Wozy of Fullerton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Wozy of Fullerton, were married Oct. 6 at the St. Peter's Church in Omaha. The Rev. Joseph A. Oertli officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of de-lustrated satin styled with a fitted bodice and a scooped neckline trimmed in seed pearls. The gown featured the traditional long tapered sleeves. The skirt featured a box-pleat flowing into a chapel train. The bride wore a four-tiered veil with a crown of seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Dwight Headley of Kennard and the bridesmaid was Mrs. Errol Meisinger of Cedar Creek. They wore identical frocks of Royal Blue Brocade with matching hat and shoes. They carried colonial bouquets of Royal Blue Carnations and Pink Rosebuds.

The bride and bridegroom's mother's wore Navy Blue dresses with matching accessories and each wore a Pink Carnation Corsage.

David Wozy, of Fullerton, brother of the groom, was best man and Terry Meisinger, of Louisville, brother of the bride, was groomsmen. Ushers were Robert Wozy of Omaha, brother of the groom and Jerome Murphy of Weeping Water.

A reception was held at the bride's home in Omaha following the 11 a.m. ceremony. The wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. Ken McArdie of Lexington. Mary Mansfield poured the coffee and Mrs. Larry Boardman served the punch.

Mrs. Wozy's uncle and aunt, Capt. and Mrs. Kenneth Meisinger of Salina, Kansas were among the out-of-town guests at the wedding.

Christmas Gift Shops Planned by Auxiliary

Plans are being completed for the Christmas gift shops to be operated by the American Legion Auxiliary in practically all veterans hospitals in the country. Mrs. Clarence Akeson Rehabilitation Chairman of Hugh J. Kearns Unit of the Auxiliary, has announced.

"These shops offer hospitalized veterans a selection of gift items for their families at home," said Mrs. Akeson. "They bring the joy of Christmas giving to all of these veterans because in these shops everything is free, and the Auxiliary women wrap and mail the gifts without charge. Gift articles are now being gathered and purchased to stock the shelves in these shops which operate in the hospitals a few days in early December.

"Last year the Auxiliary expended nearly $300,000 in its gift shop program."

The assignment prepared by Mrs. Akeson for the local Unit will be: 4 gifts for men, 8 gifts for women, 5 gifts for boys age 5 to 18 years, aprons, one doll with extra clothing made and donated by Auxiliary members.

The gift shop assignment must be sent to Lincoln by Nov. 1.
