Mr. and Mrs. Gary Wiles

Carolyn Thoms-Gary Wiles Married In Church Ceremony

Yellow mums and bronze pom-poms amid flickering candlelight adorned the Immanuel Lutheran Church, Louisville, Tuesday, Oct. 23 for the evening wedding of Carolyn Thoms, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Thoms of Weeping Water, and Gary Wiles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth C. Wiles of Weeping Water. Rev. T. J. Vogel of Louisville officiated.

The candlelights, Duane and Jimmy Thoms of Weeping Water, brothers of the bride, began the impressive ceremony. Miss Sussan Wood of Lincoln was organist. Clyde Wiles of Lincoln, brother of the bridegroom sang the "Lord's Prayer" and "My Wedding Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a chantilly-type lace floor length gown in traditional white. A scalloped cameo necklace traced in opalescent paillettes and seed pearls contoured the taut, long sleeved bodice. A fully gathered skirt was circled with a continuous diamond shaped tulle insertion centered with small lace medallion applique. She carried a bouquet of yellow mums and a bronze pom-pom.

The maid of honor, Beverly Lee of Weeping Water was dressed in a street length bronze taffeta gown and carried a yellow and bronze fall bouquet. The bridesmaid, Janice Domingo, Weeping Water, wore a light green taffeta street length gown and carried a yellow and bronze fall bouquet and bridesmatron, Mrs. Linda Lewis of Plattsmouth, cousin of the bride wore a cocoa taffeta street length gown and carried a yellow and bronze fall bouquet.

Flower girls were Mary Jo Rathe, Weeping Water, and Mary Domico, Lincoln, niece of the bridegroom. They wore identical frocks of yellow taffeta.

Joe Ward of Weeping Water was best man. Groomsmen were John Scott, Sidney, Iowa, and Wayne L. Lewis of Plattsmouth, cousin of the bride. The ring-bearer was Steve Wiles of Lincoln, nephew of the bridegroom and Max Groerman of Adams served as ushers.

Miss Linda Lane was in charge of the guest book. Approximately 375 people attended the wedding.

A reception was held in the church parlors following the 7:30 p.m. wedding ceremony. The wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. Pauline Domico of Lincoln, sister of the bridegroom. Miss Linda Rehmeier of Weeping Water poured coffee and Miss Janice Holt of Weeping Water served the punch. Miss Donna Lange of Lincoln, cousin of the bride, served the ice cream. Servers were Lois Livingston, Barbara Lee and Lana Wendt.

In charge of the gift table were the Misses Sharon Gansamer, Lorine Pointer, Alice Lauritzen and Janice Kassube.

After a short trip to Colorado, the couple will make their home in the Joe Bender apartment at Weeping Water.

Glendale Club

LOUISVILLE (Special)—The Glendale Club met at the Odd Fellows Hall, Lena Vervaecke as hostess and Mollie Wegener as co-hostess.

The club president, Ruth Albert, called the meeting to order. Sixteen members answered roll call by naming their "favorite childhood song their Mother sang". Mrs. Jean Group led in singing, "The Paw Paw Patch." The business meeting was closed by all repeating the Lord's Prayer.

The meeting was turned over to the hostesses and "7-Up" was played. Marilyn Kouma won high, Jo Wheeler, low, and Jean Group won the door prize. Ruth Albert won the club gift.

Mrs. Cyril Vervaecke and Randy Group, Mary Jo Wheeler, Sherry Group and Mary Lee Kouma were guests. A lunch was served by the hostesses. The next meeting will be Thursday, Nov. 15 with Eda Knutson.
