Quality Evident in County 4-H Work the Past Year

By MRS. KAY LEIDING
Extension Home Agent

Quality is generally more important than quantity. This year our 4-H enrollment, dropped some, but after looking at our record books I'm sure we have stepped up the quality of 4-H club work.

We had a few more than 300 girls (and boys) in home economics projects in Cass County this year. These young people enrolled in 732 projects and completed 721 or 98% of them. Some of these incompletes are due to families moving from the county.

There are many things we hope boys and girls will learn from being a 4-H club member. One of these is seeing a task to completion. This lesson is one even adults find hard to learn.

We agents certainly do appreciate the "stick-to-it-iveness" the leaders and parents have shown this year.

WOOL SKIRT

Couldn't you use a new wool skirt in your winter wardrobe? Again this year the University of Nebraska Clothing Department will be bringing you sewing lessons via television. Seven lessons on "Making a Wool Skirt" will be shown on KOLN TV (Channel 10) Mondays 9:30-10:00 a.m. from November 5 through December 17th.

Mark your calendar now. HOME AGENTS TEA The Annual Extension Agents Conference will be held in Lincoln the week of Nov. 12.

Each year during the conference the Home Agents sponsor a tea for the girls enrolled in home economics at the University. The tea will be held Tuesday, Nov. 13 this year.

This annual event gives the home agents an opportunity to visit the girls about the Extension Service as a possible career. Many of the counties do not have home agents, therefore some of our college girls aren't acquainted with this area of employment.

Eggs Don't Like 'Hard-Boiling'

LINCOLN — It's true. Eggs aren't hard-boiled and don't like to be called hard-boiled, either!

University of Nebraska home economists suggests hard-cooking eggs for salads and entrees, not boiling them.

High temperatures and over cooking toughen eggs. If the temperature is too high or the product has been over cooked, egg-rich cakes, souffles and other dishes leavened with eggs will fall, the crust will be thick and tough and the inside will be heavy and soggy.

In dishes thickened with eggs, such as custards and sauces, high temperature and over cooking cause curdling or watering.

Greenwood

A bridal shower was held in the Christian church basement honoring Mrs. Gene Wright. For entertainment a game was played and couple readings by Mrs. Rev. Trauernicht. The brides table was decorated in lavender and white and the serving table in fall colors. Afterward, Mrs. Wright opened her gifts. The hostesses served refreshments.

Mrs. Nettie McDonald was released from the hospital Sunday. Her daughter took her home with them to Grays Lake, Ill.

Mrs. Norma McNurlin returned home Friday after spending 10 days with her daughter, Mrs. George Brandes and Mr. Brandes of Wichita, Kan.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Comstock of Mitchell spent several days at the Mrs. Mildred Comstock home.

Ashland

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Minardi of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. George Kraft of Manley were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kupke.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Nelson accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harold Richards on a drive Sunday to see the autumn colors.

They visited Riverview Park at Plattsmouth, drove on Goose-neck Road north of Nebraska City and to Steinhart Lodge for dinner. John Browns cave was visited in Nebraska City. The drive was continued to Peru to see the Campus of a Thousand Oaks and the stadium in a natural bowl east of the campus. From there they went to Rockport, Mo., then home. The oak covered hills are beautiful at this time of year.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Keller, Mr. and Mrs. Gil Keller and Mr. and Mrs. George Bortman went to Fremont Sunday and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Phillips.

Mrs. W. P. Bailey and Ralph Dean had Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schonewise of Lincoln were evening guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Jameson Ray and Rory of Elsie came Thursday and stayed until Sunday with Mrs. Jameson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bower. While they were here Carlis Bowers, little daughter of Mrs. Everett Bower, celebrated her sixth birthday Saturday. Others there for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Grebe and Russell of Lincoln, and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Pollard and family.

Mrs. Pollard baked and decorated the cake for Carlis. It was served with ice cream. Carlis received some nice gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stickney were evening guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mansfield went to Holton, Kansas for the weekend with their son, Mr. and Mrs. George Mansfield. They returned by way of Lincoln Sunday and called on Mrs. Willa Weldon and Mrs. Samuel Met-heny.

POULTRY "VOID"

LINCOLN—The big "void" in poultry production in Nebraska seems to be that of raising capons and roasting chickens, according to John L. Skinner, Extension poultryman at the University of Nebraska. In commenting on the poultry price picture in general, Skinner said present price levels can be expected to continue without major change for the next three or four months. Price levels above last year being paid to turkey producers for live birds are encouraging for those who weathered the storm of excessive production in 1961, Skinner noted. Chicken egg prices are on the bright side, although numbers of egg-type chicks in other areas may contribute to somewhat lower price levels in the spring, he concluded.

Nehawka Woman's Club Observes

NEHAWKA (Special) — The Nehawka Woman's Club observed its 35th anniversary Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Sheldon.

Mrs. Harvey Barkhurst, program chairman presented the guests, who showed articles, which were heirlooms in their families.

Charter members were recognized.

Mrs. Barkhurst presented the guests and members and introduced each one with an appropriate poem. Guests were Mrs. Carl Meisinger of Louisville; Mrs. Hall Pollard, Mrs. Hildur Lundberg, Mrs. Merritt Pollard.

Others, who described their heirlooms were Mmes. Oren Pollard, Amelia Balfour, Emma Nutzman, Martin Ross, Will Ost and Miss Evelyn Wolph. Many very interesting articles were on display.

Mrs. Sheldon presided. Mrs. Floyd Jeager gave the devotions.

Mrs. Oren Pollard, the first president of the club, will present the club with a 50 star flag. The club was organized in the fall of 1927.

Mrs. Oren Pollard presided at the table, which was centered with an arrangement of pink and white flowers the club colors. The napkins marked the 35th anniversary.

Co-hostesses were Mmes. Martin Ross and Sybil Nixon.

Mrs. Wildon Switzer is a new member.

The December meeting is with Mrs. Elmer Stoll. Mrs. Ellis Lucy is program chairman.

Miss Muffets

GREENWOOD (Special) — The Little Miss Muffets 4-H Club held its meeting Oct. 30 at the home of Mrs. Kenneth McDonald for a Halloween party and mask making.

The eight members present gave accounts of their baking accomplishments at their homes. Margaret King and Nancy McDonald demonstrated how to bake muffins.

The group made Halloween masks from paper bags.

Mrs. Robert Wall of Murdock was a guest. Leaders are Mrs. Clebert Stiedley and Mrs. Kenneth McDonald. Francis Wall has applied for membership, although she was unable to attend the meeting.

Linda Stiedley, Cheryl Schierman and Retha Hansen acted as hostesses.

Rose Anne Velder and Sandra Wright will serve as hostesses at next meeting, Nov. 17 at 2 p.m. —Margaret King, reporter.

'Buckskin Pioneers' November Theme For Cub Scouts

Most of the 8500 Cub Scouts, their adult leaders, and their Den Mothers of the Covered Wagon Council, Boy Scouts of America, will become acquainted this month with the rugged heroes of the nation's early wilderness trails and the old West.

The theme for the Cub Scouts for November is the Buckskin Pioneers. During four weekly den meetings Cub Scouts will learn about such pioneers as Daniel Boone, Lewis and Clark, Davy Crockett, Zebulon Pike, Kit Carson, and "Buffalo Bill" Cody.

It will require reading books about these pioneers and the making of models of early homes in the West and models of their clothing, furniture, tools, and weapons.

An old buckskin suit can be readily made by the Cub Scout with an assist from his mother. They can use old brown slacks and an old shirt dyed and with fringe added. The hat is made from old fur pieces. Brown moccasins are worn.

Log cabins are made from corrugated cardboard with a door and window cut out. "Logs and shingles" are outlined with paint. Two ice cream containers and a broomstick are used to make a butter churn. A split log and some pegs make a log bench.

A cardboard barrel becomes a well. Oatmeal boxes pasted together to form "logs" are used in a logrolling contest.

Models of the early homes of the buckskin pioneers are made at home by the Cub Scouts. These may include caves, dug-outs, animal-hide tents, sod houses and log cabins. As the pioneers traveled overland by foot, oxcart, horseback, and covered wagon, and on rivers by canoe, flatboat, and raft, models of these objects are also made for display at the monthly pack meeting, when all the dens meet together with their parents.

The new Cub Scout fitness program has its part in the activities. Pioneer games include wrestling, throwing, shooting, jumping, and running. Other activities include husking bees, taffy pulls, barbecues, singing, jiggling, square dancing, hog calling contests and logrolling.

The Junior Class Play will be held at the school auditorium November 16 at 8 p.m. The title is "Shy Guy".

Seat Belt Use Can Double Pay From Insurance

Convinced of the life-saving potential of auto seat belts, MFA Mutual Insurance Company will now pay double the coverage for accidental death benefits if the insured victim is wearing the seat belt properly installed in the car at the time of the accident, according to Clem Woster, MFA Insurance agent.

For several years, MFA Mutual has had available accidental death benefits as an optional auto insurance coverage. Policy-holders may select limits of $2,500, $5,000, or $10,000. The new seat-belt provision means MFA Mutual will pay double the limit selected.

For example, if a policyholder has selected the $10,000 limit and he and his wife are both killed in an accident and it is established that both were wearing seat belts properly installed, the total payment would be $40,000 or $10,000 each and double for the seat belts.

According to Clem Woster, MFA Mutual is one of the first companies in their area to adopt this provision. This tangible endorsement of the safety value of seat belts should encourage their use, he said.—Adv.

Breezeway window goes down—Mercury sales go up...up!

WHY DOES THIS BREEZEWAY REAR WINDOW help sell so many Mercury Montereys? This is styling that works! The recessed rear window stays clearer in rain or snow. It opens for controlled Flo-Thru ventilation. More wind, traffic noise and weather are shut out because the side windows can stay closed. The rear-window angle cuts glare, aids rear visibility. The extended Breezeway roof adds rear-seat headroom, shades passengers from the sun. See how practical elegance can be!
