supreme worth of the individual, and . . .
"The moral and financial support of all citizens is necessary in the great task of educating young people for their roles as responsible Americans."
The Plattsmouth Elementary Schools will observe American Education Week of Nov. 12-16, with a period set aside for parent visitation.
The visitation in Central, Columbian, and First Ward schools will be on Wednesday, Nov. 14. Morning Kindergarten will be 10:30-11:30. Afternoon Kindergarten and First Grade will be 2:25-3:25, and Second through the Sixth Grades will be 2:30-3:30.
Wintersteen School will also hold its visitation on Wednesday, Nov. 14, from 9:30-10:30 a.m.
All parents are cordially invited to visit school during these times." Elementary Principal Paul Toms said.

Herweg New Instrumental Instructor at High School

Mr. Jack Herweg has been hired to serve as instrumental music director of the Plattsmouth City Schools.

Jack Herweg

He is a native of Council Bluffs, Iowa, graduating from Thomas Jefferson High School. He received a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Parsons College, Fairfield, Iowa, and is presently working on an advanced degree at the University of Omaha.

Mr. Herweg has four years previous teaching experience at Waver, where his band and vocal groups gained recognition for their excellent showings in local and regional performances.

Mr. and Mrs. Herweg have a two year old son. They plan to move from Omaha to Plattsmouth in the near future.

In response to the question of why he desired the Plattsmouth position, Herweg replied, "Plattsmouth is noted for its fine band and I feel that with the continued interest and support of the Community that an even better instrumental music program can be developed."

The Senior Group of the Christian Women's Fellowship met at the home of Mrs. Eanos Plunkett Thursday afternoon with nine members present. Mrs. Henry Knaup opened the meeting with a thought for the day, "Housewife's Prayer". The CWF prayer was given in unison. Mrs. Grace Freeman read 1 Corinthians for the Scripture reading. This was followed by sacred music played on a record player.

The lesson topic was about "India". Four ladies from the Senior Group attended the World Outreach program at the Northside Christian Church in Omaha Oct. 31. They were Mrs. Eanos Plunkett, Mrs. Henry Knaup, Mrs. Victor Plunkett, Jr. and Mrs. Charles Freeman. Each one told some interesting things about "India". They heard a retired missionary, Mrs. Gamble, speak about her 33 years of missionary work in India. Others on the program were Miss Marilyn Hill, National Director of Adult work in the department of World Outreach Education of the United Christian Missionary Society and other State Officers.

Mrs. Knaup presented the lesson, "What Needs are Served through the program of the National Benevolence Association". Roll call was answered with Bible verses. A card was written to Mrs. Lena Renner, who has been in the hospital. A quilt has been completed and will be sent to the Child Saving Institute in Omaha. The next meeting will be December 6th at the home of Mrs. Victor Plunkett. This will be the Christmas luncheon.

The Junior Circle of the Christian Women's Fellowship met on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Maurice Hammons. Mrs. Harold Cummings, opened the meeting with prayer. Mrs. David Baxter led the worship service. Mrs. Cummings presented the lesson "Ministry to Special Needs through the National Benevolence Association". The group sang "Count Your Blessings" accompanied by Mrs. Hammons at the piano. The members made posters for the Chicken pie supper Nov. 8. New trays have been purchased for the church by the General Circle of the CWF. Mr. and Mrs. Cummings re-decorated the old trays of the church. The December meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Ralph Hyde.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Henson of Louisville, were honored at a miscellaneous shower Sunday evening in the Christian Church parlors with 60 attending. This is a family shower that is held in the church for members newly married, or brides-to-be. Rev. Victor Schwarz, pastor of the church, led in group singing with Carol Nickels at the piano. A song was dedicated to the couple, "God Will Take Care of You". The fellowship singing was closed with "Blest Be The Tie". Marlin Rothe read a poem, "First Love". Shirley Up'on was in charge of games. Following the program Mr. and Mrs. Henson opened their gifts from a decorated table. A cooperative lunch of jello, cake, cocoa and coffee were served. The evening was closed with prayer.

The Friendly Neighbor Club met on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Lee. The afternoon was spent socially. The Christmas meeting will be held at Domingo Inn Dec. 6.

The Sunny Hill Aid Society met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Norris with nine members present, spending the afternoon tying a quilt. The Christmas meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Ray Norris with a gift exchange.

The UNICEF Halloween celebration was held Wednesday night. The Pre-school children and kindergarten, first and second grades met at the Christian Church; the third, fourth and fifth grades met at the Methodist church and the sixth, seventh and eighth grades met at the Congregational Church. A good number of the high school students helped with the UNICEF program this year. Pop was furnished by the Chamber of Commerce.

Obituary

Daisy Lilly Partridge
WEeping WATER (Special)
—Funeral services were held Nov. 2, 1962 at the Hobson-Dorr Funeral Home for Daisy Lilly Partridge, 82, who died Oct. 25 at her home in Canon City, Colo. She was born February 12, 1880, the daughter of George Mark and Jane Wood Mark.

Her husband William Partridge died in 1961. Two children survive, Mark Partridge of Louisville and Mrs. Harry Stubbendick of Unadilla.

Rev. Victor Schwarz officiated at the services.

Mrs. Lynn Rothe and Mrs. Maurice Hammons sang "Rock of Ages", and "In the Garden" accompanied at the piano by Miss Carol Nickels.

Palbearers were Harley Rector, Harry Stubbendick, Jr., Stanley Miller, James Kivett, William Partridge and Victor Teten.

Burial was in St. John's Cemetery in Nehawka.

Four Fined for Part in 'Brawl'

Four youths pleaded "guilty" to charges of "disturbing the peace" and were fined in County Court here Wednesday. Charges grew out of an Oct. 20 "brawl" on Main Street.

Fined Wednesday were: Offutt Field Airmen Wayne Hamm, 19, $50 and costs; John Gartman, 21, $50 and costs; and Donald Willis, 20, $75 and costs; and Earl Curtis, 20, Plattsmouth, $50 and costs.

Willis had admitted to Police Chief Fred Tesch that he had brought a pocket knife to Plattsmouth and had it at the fight scene that night.

A Classified Ad in The Journal cost as little as 50 cents.
