

MURDOCK

Dorothy Mills
 Phone 2956

Mrs. O. W. Maska entered Bryan Memorial Hospital in Lincoln on Saturday for observation and treatment.

The Jr. High Youth Fellowship of the EUB Church sold candy on Saturday afternoon, they realized $19.20. They also decorated the tree in the sanctuary.

Harvey Mills celebrated his ninth birthday on Sunday. Those enjoying a birthday dinner were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Altie of Omaha and Mrs. Gary Chapman of Papillion. Harvey received many nice gifts.

Kathy Rikli was a Sunday dinner guest of Barbara Stock and enjoyed the afternoon with her friend.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Rikli spent the weekend at Ord, visiting at the Lloyd Geweke home there.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Leutchen are the parents of a baby daughter born Dec. 12th at Key West, Fla., where Reuben is stationed with the U. S. Army. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Leutchen.

The Ladies Aid of the Murdock church met in the church parlors Dec. 13th for their annual Christmas meeting and party. A dinner at 12:30 was followed by a business meeting and a program. Della Earl and Verna Wilkin had charge of the program. A gift exchange with our secret friends was enjoyed by all. Chairman of the serving committee, was Pearl Trutna assisted by Myrtle Panska and Bernice Jones.

The funeral service for Martha Thimgan was Saturday afternoon at Plattsmouth. She formerly lived at Murdock and was the mother of Mrs. Bryan McDonald. Coming from away were her son Larry Thimgan and wife from Carlisle, Pa., and Lester Thimgan and family from West Des Moines, Iowa. They were lunch guests at the McDonald home after the funeral. Mrs. McDonald (Florence) was unable to attend. Mrs. Thimgan was a former member of the EUB church here as well as a charter member of the Royal Neighbor lodge.

On Friday there was a fire at the Robert Wall home which did considerable damage, from reports it was caused from a short in the wiring. August Reike is the owner.

METHODIST MEN

LOUISVILLE (Special) — The Methodist Men met Thursday evening at the Methodist church. They enjoyed the scenic color slides of Mike Colerick which were taken on their trip to California. The program preceded the business meeting at which plans were formed for a soup supper and the matter of becoming a chartered Methodist Men's Group was considered.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY CLUB

LOUISVILLE (Special) — The Happy Birthday Club met at the home of Mrs. Elsie Tennant Dec. 12. No birthday was celebrated.

The afternoon was spent playing pinochle. High prize was won by Mrs. Julie Garrison, second high by Mrs. Hulda Gerdes and low and traveling by Mrs. Hanna Twiss. An exchange of gifts was held.

Next meeting will be Jan. 9 at the home of Mrs. Georgie Gess.

Golden Circle Club

LOUISVILLE (Special) — The Golden Circle Club met Tuesday evening, Dec. 11 at the home of Miss Laura Schoeman with Mrs. Daisy McNeely as co-hostess.

The president, Goldie Graham, called the meeting to order. The flag salute was given. After a short business meeting the evening was given over to the program committee. Gladys Hennings and Wilma Schoeman. Several Christmas games were played and prizes given. Mrs. Ann Hell and Mrs. Helen Tesch were guests. A delicious lunch was served at the close of the evening.

Next meeting will be Jan. 8 at the home of Dorothy Nessen with Alice Pankonin as co-hostess.

ALVO NEWS

Mrs. Wilson Howe

Evan Root of Eagle was moving a house for Guy Clements of Elmwood to a vacation spot near Wabash Friday. He was guiding light wires over the roof and received third degree burns on his back from the electricity, he fell to the ground dislocating a shoulder and received cuts and bruises. He was taken by ambulance to the hospital at Lincoln.

Mike Lundy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Lundy is still at the Bryan Hospital, at Lincoln. He hopes to be home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKinney are the parents of a daughter, born Saturday, December 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vandebek of Adams visited Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nickel and Keith, Sunday, December 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rademacher and family of Loup City visited Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Mickle and daughters, Sunday, December 16.

Lori Odell and Connie Elliott were candle lighters at church Sunday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Haas were "Greeters." Sunday School is at 10:00 and church services at 11:00. The Christmas Eve Services will start at 7:30, Monday evening, December 24.

STRIPS VACATED

The City Council Monday night passed ordinances vacating portions of unused city street right-of-way.

One vacated the west five feet of 11th Street along Block 42 in Young and Hays Addition. The vacation had been requested by James McMillan to provide him with sufficient side yard to construct a garage at his home.

The other ordinance ratified a long-standing vacation of 12 feet along 3rd Avenue adjacent to Lots 5-8 in Block 42 of the same addition. The ordinance was necessary because the previous vacating the portion of street had not been recorded and is not in the official record. Publication of the ordinances is in today's Journal.

COLLISION IN LOUISVILLE

LOUISVILLE (Special) — A car driven by Mrs. Gordon Kerkow and a beer delivery truck collided at the corner of Fifth and Maple early Tuesday morning. Mrs. Kerkow and children, Michael, 6, and Karen Kay, six months sustained minor bruises.

Damage to the car was estimated at $300. Damage to the delivery truck was minor. The accident was blamed on ice.

LAST-MINUTE CHRISTMAS GIFTS

the gift every woman loves...

LUXURIOUS LINGERIE

She'll love the luxury of our lace-lavished lingerie for Christmas. Choose figure-flattering slips and matching panties to underline her newest fashions... exquisite gowns for her sweetest dreams. Shop now for the most luxurious gift.

$2.98 UP

BADGE OF HONOR

Our license to practice Pharmacy is our "Badge of Honor." It represents the culmination of years of study and training climaxed by the passing of rigid examinations. We are proud of our profession—and our pride is reflected in our prescription service.

Fred J. Feldhausen, Ph. G. R. P.
 Peter J. Gepson, B.S. R. P. Pharmacists In Charge

FELDHUSEN DRUGS

Your Friendly Drug Store
 BRING US YOUR PRESCRIPTIONS - PHONE 6117

Handsome Handbags

Glamour and Glitter

$1.00 up $2.98 up

OPEN 'TIL 9 P.M.
 THURS. - FRI. & SAT.
 NIGHTS

on the first day of Christmas, send her

beautiful blouses

Not many people we know would really want a partridge in a pear tree... but every woman we know would certainly welcome new blouses. Our varied collection is right in tune with her Christmas wishes. In styles by Bobby Brooks and Ship 'N Shore.

$2.98 up

WE GIVE NATIONAL RED STAMPS
 "WHERE QUALITY COSTS LESS"

Soennichsen's DEPARTMENT STORE

MONDAY EVENING,
 WE CLOSE AT 5 P.M.