Senior Circle

WEeping WATER (Special)—The Senior Circle of the Christian Women's Fellowship journeyed to the farm home of Mrs. Victor Plunkett, Jr. for their Christmas luncheon. Mrs. Plunkett had the table and her home beautifully decorated in keeping with the Christmas season.

Following dinner, the group assembled for the meeting. Mrs. Ed Freeman read a poem, "Hang Up the Christmas stocking." Christmas carols were sung, followed by prayer. Mrs. S. H. Harmon presented the worship. Mrs. LeO Christensen read the Scripture.

Mrs. Harmon chose as her topic, "Celebration of Christmas." She read an article "Like a Paper Image" for meditation. A story was read, "How Shall We Think of Christ." Two poems were read, "In the Eyes of a Child" by Mrs. Plunkett, Jr. and "Always a Christmas Night" by Mrs. Eanos Plunkett.

Mrs. Cyrus Livingston presented the missionary lesson on "Good News of Great Joy." She told where the missions began and the gift we give to God. Mrs. Christensen read the Christmas story from Luke 2: 1-29.

The lesson was closed with the reading of a poem by Mrs. Charles Freeman, "And There Were in the Same Congregation."

The circle had sent a quilt to the Child Saving Institute in Omaha and a thank you letter was read. There were 10 members present and a guest.

The members were reminded to bring cookies or candy so that boxes may be prepared for the shut-ins of the church and others. The meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. Livingston. A silent auction was held. The January meeting will be with Mrs. Henry Knaup on January 3rd.
