

School Notes from Nehawka

NEHAWKA (Special) — Irene Christwiser, Roberta Custer and Mary Ellen Hargrave presented the program at the recent meeting of the Future Homemakers of America. Wanda Hostetter read the inspiration. Roll call was answered by each member telling what she enjoyed doing at Christmas time.

There was a question and answer period, entertainment hits and singing carols.

There was a gift exchange and refreshments were served by the mothers from a decorated table.

Mrs. Lawrence Gregg, chairman, announced the Spring Carnival date, Feb. 16 for the PTA spring entertainment. The theme is "County Fair." She appointed her committees.

The Nehawka annual FFA oyster and chili supper will be held Thursday, Jan. 3 at the high school auditorium. Serving will begin at 6:30.

The first grade is operating a grocery store as an activity relating to number values. The question is What will 5 cents buy?

The second graders have been painting in water colors. Their sunsets are colorful.

The third grade decorated their room in the gay fashion of Santas and the Nativity theme. They learned the true meaning of Christmas and that it is more blessed to give than to receive.

The newest process in numbers learned by the third grade is borrowing or regrouping numbers.

The fourth grade made a booklet in social studies on Reglions Near and Far. They have been writing stories and letters for English assignments. Both 7th and 8th grades classes have finished their science books and are looking forward to new texts.

A number of Junior High students have contributed to the Junior Red Cross drive and received pins.

Both sections of the 9th grade are studying about poetry and figurative speech in English and in science are starting the unit, The Structure of the Atom.

The Sophomore girls are completing their wool skirts in home-making. The Sophomore biology class has been studying animals with backbones. The Sophomore B students have studied creative writing and talked to the pioneers of the community about historical sights and local history. This was written into a story.

The Junior class is studying the Civil War in American history. The Chemistry class study has been about weights and learning of atomic structure containing electrons, protons and neutrons.

The senior class in English will study the Shakespeare play Hamlet after the holidays. They will make reports on books written by English authors.

HYDRANT OK'D
The City Council Thursday night approved a request of the Board of Public Works for installation of a fire hydrant in Winterset Addition to the city. The addition is in West Plattsmouth alongside the By-Pass of Highways 73-75 where a restaurant is being constructed.

Riverview Club

The December meeting of the Riverview Club was held at the home of Mrs. Muri Wheeler with Mrs. Betty Patterson as co-hostess. The meeting was opened by repeating the Lord's Prayer. Fourteen members were present.

After the business was taken care of presents were distributed from under the Christmas tree, a grab bag was passed around and each member drew a present.

The afternoon was enjoyed by singing Christmas carols with Mrs. Lee Cundall at the piano. Lunch was served.

It was decided to have an all day meeting in January at Aunt Georgia Creamer's, each one taking a covered dish as they are going to quilt.—Veilma Kuhns, reporter.

Bluebird Extension

LOUISVILLE (Special) — The Bluebird Extension Club of Elmwood met at the home of Mrs. Ray Parsell in Elmwood.

Mrs. Raymond Eveland, president, opened the short business meeting in which names of the members for the coming year were presented. She also asked for hostesses and leaders for the coming year.

The meeting was turned over to Mrs. Ervin Albert of Louisville who gave a demonstration on Christmas Centerpieces, such as: Angels made with pom pom skirts of plastic bags and wings of feathers; Candle holders made of Styrofoam balls and circles with bead and sequin trimmings; Yule Log Centerpieces; one woodland scene with evergreen, deer, birds, etc.; Nylon net tree with an angel on top made of feathers; bird cage made of coat hangers decorated with red ribbons and tinsel.

Mrs. Earl Horton reviewed the book, "The Travel With Charlie." The Bluebird club of Elmwood invited the Garden Club of Elmwood as their guests. They also invited the officers of the Extension Council and the group chairmen. Of the officers, Mrs. Kay Leiding of Murdock was present. Mrs. Ervin Albert of Louisville was present as group chairman of Center Precinct.

Lunch of Christmas cookies, ice cream, coffee and mints were served by the hostesses. The mints were the size of a silver dollar and were decorated as such.
