

This 'n That In Agriculture

By CLARENCE SCHMADEKE
County Extension Agent

A special short course on farm welding will be held at the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture January 21-25. U. E. Weedorf, member of the Department of Agricultural Engineering at the University, says the course is designed to acquaint participants with these subjects:

- problems in welding beyond the fundamentals of arc and oxy-acetylene welding;
- Hot-arc welding;
- Recognizing a weldable job and process involved for repair;
- Alloy filler rods and electrodes and their uses.

Those interested in attending should write: Department of Conferences, Nebraska Center for Continuing Education, 33rd and Holdrege Streets, Lincoln 3, Nebraska.

Happy Hearts 4-H

Happy Hearts 4-H Club met at Clinola Westlake's home. She gave a demonstration on No Knead Cinnamon Rolls.

Brian Nelson in Advanced AFROTC

MANHATTAN, KAN. — Cadet Brian Nelson, junior in business administration from Plattsburgh, has entered the advanced Air Force ROTC program at Kansas State University, Manhattan. This program leads to a commission as a second lieutenant and active duty in the U.S. Air Force.

Cadet Nelson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson, 324 N. Sixth, Plattsburgh. Before attending Kansas State University, Nelson attended Omaha University.

He is a member of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity. He is also a member of Young Republicans and Newman Club.

To be eligible for the advanced AFROTC program, a student must be in good standing at Kansas State University, have a grade average of "C" or better and have completed four semesters of basic ROTC.

To be accepted into advanced AFROTC, the cadet must also achieve a passing score on the Air Force Officer Qualifying

Examination, and pass a physical examination.

Regular commissions and post graduate training through the Air Force Institute of Technology are available to selected distinguished graduates of the program. The USAF encourages graduate work by commissioned officers.
