'Challenging Teenagers' Leader Theme

LINCOLN—Three hundred Nebraska 4-H leaders will discuss "Our Challenging Teenagers" at the State 4-H Leaders Conference January 23-25 at the University of Nebraska Center for Continuing Education. The Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben at Omaha will provide financial support for leaders attending.

"Special attention will be focused on the older 4-H club members between 14 and 20 years of age," reports Elaine Skucius, associate state 4-H club leader at the University. "Nearly one-fourth of our 35,000 4-H club members are in this age bracket. Members in the older age brackets include: 14 years—3,278; 15 years—2,186; 16 years—1,448; and 17 to 20 years—1,140.

"Presentations and discussions will center around understanding the teenager, programs and activities geared to meet the needs of this age group and understanding leadership needs to best serve this group," Miss Skucius said.

Edward Pope, Federal Extension specialist in human relations at Washington, D. C., will serve as guest speaker and resource person during the conference.

The 900 delegates to the State 4-H Leader Training Conference will represent over 7,000 adult leaders who serve Nebraska 4-H youth. Every county in the State is eligible to send delegates to the conference. All expenses for the conference including meals, lodging and travel for the delegates will be paid for the 18th consecutive year by Ak-Sar-Ben.

Dr. Sosa is Speaker at Plattsmouth Woman's Club

Thirty members of the Plattsmouth Woman's Club met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. W. Egenberger. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Fred Lugsch, Mrs. Fred Feldhausen, Mrs. W. A. Swatek, Mrs. Ward Schade and Mrs. R. B. Hayes.

Mrs. J. G. McMaken, club president, opened the meeting and presided. Mrs. Dale Philpot led in pledge of allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, followed by Club Collect repeated in unison.

Mrs. Glen Valley had devotions bringing Thoughts for the New Year and scriptures from Romans 4-6 and also from the Sixth Chapter of Second Corinthians, Verses 1-5. She closed with a prayer of faith for peace and brotherhood and an expression of gratitude for our great American heritage.

Topic for the afternoon program was International Relations—and Mrs. W. L. Heinrich, program chairman introduced Dr. Rafael Sosa, instructor of Spanish in the Plattsmouth High School, who spoke on conditions in his native Cuba. He painted a vivid word picture of life of the Cuban families under the Castro regime, telling of the strict rationing of food and the penalties inflicted for having just a little more than permitted by ration rule, as well as the regulation of Cuban family life—as regards religion, entertaining of guests in the homes; and the necessity of complete adherence to all Castro orders as set down by militia enforcing of such orders.

Dr. Sosa said about seven million Cubans are controlled by about 500,000 of Castros men, among whom are many Russian communists.

He gave some reasons for the condition the Cubans find themselves in today—and why and how they become exiles. Dr. Sosa left Cuba in 1959 and like others who preferred to become exiles, sacrificed many things to gain freedom. He brought his listeners into a keener awareness of the privilege of being an American citizen and impressed upon each the importance of guarding against infiltration of communistic doctrine with its false promises.

Following his talk, Dr. Sosa conducted a question and answer period in which members participated.

Reports of club activities were heard and members voted a contribution to District One NFWC project of tourism in Nebraska.

Following a social hour, hostesses served refreshments assisted by Miss Laura Meisinger.

The February 4th meeting will be with Mrs. M. M. Muncie, with the program of music in charge of the Music Committee, Mrs. E. C. Giles chairman.

A silent auction will be held at this meeting.
