

Carolyn Vincent of Alvo Weds Gary E. Trunkenbolz

ALVO (Special)—Carolyn Kay Vincent became the bride of Gary E. Trunkenbolz of Eagle in an 8 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 19, ceremony in the Alvo Methodist Church with Rev. Keith Shepherd of the Warren Methodist Church in Lincoln officiating.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Walter Vincent.

Her floor-length, lace over satin gown with short train featured a scoop neckline and full over skirt with a center bow.

A small hat with pearls and sequins held her veil and she carried a cascade of pink roses on a white Bible.

The bride's attendants wore identical Deep Purple Satin Gowns with lace overskirts of the same color and white hats; their bouquets were a moderate cascade of Carnations.

Miss Wingate of Tilden was maid of Honor and Bridesmaids were the Misses Hope Taylor of Wahoo, Arlene Adams of Eagle and Jean Rieckman of Alvo.

Robert Trunkenbolz of Eagle was best man and ushers were Darryl Hinman of Scottsbluff, James Cooper of Eagle and James Vincent.

Susan Schroeder and Terri Copley of Panama were Candelighters, and were attired in white Satin pleated skirts and over blouses.

Mrs. Carl Sutton was Organist and accompanied Mrs. Ralph Snively while she sang "Because" and a "Prayer."

The reception followed the ceremony in the Church Basement, Mrs. Ruth Taylor of Plattsmouth, Aunt of the Bride, cut and served the Wedding cake.

Mrs. Don Copley of Panama served the Ice Cream, Coffee was poured by Mrs. Willard Leming of Alvo and Mrs. Dean Taylor of Wahoo served at the punch bowl.

The Alvo Woman's Society of Christian Service assisted with the serving.

The couple are both graduates of the Alvo-Eagle High School.

The bride graduated from a Lincoln beauticians school in November.

After a wedding trip to Colorado the couple's address will be Route 7, Lincoln.

St. Luke's Church Receives $20,000 Endowment Bequest

St. Luke's Episcopal Church held its Annual Parish Meeting Jan. 14 in the church undercroft. The business meeting was preceded by a covered dish supper.

It was announced during the course of the business meeting that the late Miss Barbara Gering, a long-time communicant of St. Luke's Church, had left to the parish the sum of $20,000 to be used for endowment purposes.

Special prayers were offered for the repose of Miss Gering's soul as well as for other members of the parish who had died during 1962. "By her generous act, Miss Gering demonstrated her love for St. Luke's Church and proved that just as she was a faithful steward of God's gifts while alive, so in death she remained God's faithful steward and keeper of the worldly goods with which she was blessed," Rector John D. Allen said.

All organizations of the parish presented their reports during the business session. In all, some 14 reports were read and approved. These reports reflected the work of all the parish organizations.

Following the annual reports, elections for the year 1963 were made.

James F. Begley was elected Senior Warden and Carl Ofe was elected Junior Warden.

New members elected to the vestry were Messrs. Dean Heebner and Ronald Schneider.

Ed Egenberger was re-elected Treasurer for 1963 and Mrs. Helen Ledgway was re-elected Treasurer of the Herold Memorial Building Fund.

The final elections were those of delegates to the Council of the Diocese of Nebraska to be held in the early part of May at Holy Trinity Church in Lincoln. The following were elected as delegates: Dean Heebner, Ed Egenberger and James Begley. The following were elected as alternates: Mrs. Dean Heebner, Mrs. Ed Egenberger and Mrs. James Begley.

Obituary

Robert Corr

EAGLE (Special) — Robert Corr, 84, a retired mail carrier formerly of Eagle, died Jan. 15 at Lincoln.

He was born at Staplehurst, Neb., became a rural mail carrier at Palmyra in 1914, transferred to Eagle in 1929 and retired in 1945. He suffered failing health several years and was hospitalized at Veterans Hospital at Lincoln.

He was a veteran of the Spanish-American War and a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Survivors are sons Robert S. of Lancaster, Calif., and Leonard F. of Eagle; three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral was at Umberger's Chapel Thursday morning with the Rev. Ira Hesselink officiating.

Palbearers were Orris Lansing, Don Schmidt, Dwight Earl, Harry Fischer, Seelye Stulwell and Valjean Stall. Burial was in Wyuka Cemetery, Lincoln.

Origin of the famed American frigate Constitution's nickname, "Old Ironsides," is explained in the National Geographic Society's new book, Men, Ships, and the Sea. The name came from a gunner who saw solid shot bouncing off her oak sides in the battle with the British Guerriere during the War of 1812.
