

Blue Devil Cagers Friday At Ryan, Saturday Here

Plattsmouth High's basketball teams face two dates this weekend, one at home after an absence of three weeks. They play at Bishop Ryan in Omaha (56th and L) Friday with the Reserve game going on at 6:15 p.m. and here against Beatrice Saturday with the Reserves beginning at 6:30.

Coach Lowell Johnson this morning said his starting lineup is uncertain, depending on performances of players in practice. He said he's using a "revolving starting plan" with assignments based on "how the kids look in workouts."

He said there is a "lively fight for starting berths." A casualty of this week's preparations is Bill Nettelmann who sprained an ankle Monday. Johnson said it was badly swollen and Nettelmann was a "doubtful" player for Friday.

Plattsmouth enters its weekend tests with a varsity record of 4 wins and 5 losses. Bishop Ryan is 4-6 with wins over Council Bluffs Thomas Jefferson, Omaha Cathedral twice and Nebraska City and losses to Omaha Holy Name, Lincoln Plus, Boys Town, Bellevue, South Sioux City and Creighton Prep. BR's leader is Chuck Smirdia, 6-3 center. Beatrice has a 3-5 record, having defeated Lincoln Southeast, Nebraska City and Seward and lost to Grand Island, Fremont, Falls City, Westside and Plus. The team leader is John Hall, 6-3 junior center, a transfer student in his first year at Beatrice.
