

Woman's Civic Club Discusses Service Projects

Projects for the coming months were discussed at a meeting of the Plattsmouth Woman's Civic Club, Jan. 29 at the home of Harriet Goos. Mrs. Hugh Stander Jr., president, presided.

The club voted to contribute $5 to the Cass County Historical Society.

Discussion was held on the United Nations Children's Fund, and the district projects concerning "Brownville Historical Landmarks" and "Rest Stops" on highways in district I. The group voted to support Plattsmouth's historical projects instead.

"Action-On-Arthritis" a national project of the General Federation of Women's Clubs for 1963-64 is under consideration with action to be taken on a later date.

Contribution of $1 to be given to the Bloodmobile unit toward purchasing of food during their stay in Plattsmouth.

Dues must be paid for 1963 and members were urged to remit to the local treasurer.

Report was given of the personal contributions given for the School of the Blind at Nebraska City, during the holidays. Members may leave their contribution with Naomi Day.

The "Community Welcome" project discussed at the previous meeting is in the planning stage with committee to announce final plans at the next meeting.

Announcement was made of the Book Review to be held in March, and to be given by Mrs. Stewart, school librarian.

Due to bad weather conditions several programs were cancelled, and will be re-assigned for a later date.

Meeting adjourned and Hostesses Harriet Goos, assisted by her mother, served dessert, mints and coffee.

Preceding the business session, Mrs. Stander Jr., Mrs. Lowell McQuin and Helen Lessman, presented a "Hat Style" Show. More than 100 hats were displayed and modeled. The collection consisted of large hats, tiny hats, flower baskets, sailors, natural straws, multi colors, chiffons, all colors and styles, designed and made by the three ladies presenting the program.

Guests attending were Mrs. McQuin, Miss Lessman, Mrs. Joe Lang, Mrs. Ambrose Claus and Mrs. Kenneth Clark.

Holy Trinity Guild

NEHAWKA (Special) — Mrs. Merle Meyer presided at the meeting of the Holy Trinity Guild, Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Allen Burr. Religious articles were read. A contribution was made to the Red Cross in Cass and Otoe counties.

The organization planned to assist with a benefit for the fire department at Avoca on March 16. Gifts were presented to the new babies of the parish, Charles Burr, Mary Beth Meyer, Kevin Meyer and Vickie Duncan.

Mrs. Lewis Royall received the hostess gift.

The rosary was recited.

Book Given to Public Library As Memorial

New books at the Public Library.

The World of Sport, edited by Al Silverman. Presented in memory of Faye Spidell, by former baseball and softball teammates.

The DAR has given The Cat in the Hat Comes Back and Dr. Seuss's Sleep Book, both favorites with children.

Other new titles: Nibbie, Nibbie Mousekin, a tale of Hansel and Gretel, by Joan Walsh Anglund.

United Europe, Challenge and Opportunity, by Walter Hallstein. Throws some light on the European Common Market.

Let's Go for Broke by Mary Lasswell. A funny tale to cheer everyone up.

The Moon-Spinners by Mary Stewart. Another tale of suspense and romance by a favorite author.

The Ugly American by William Lederer and Eugene Burdick.

From the Earth to the Moon and Round the Moon by Jules Verne. A Great Illustrated Classics edition.

Baboushka and the Three Kings by Ruth Robbins. Illustrated by Nicholas Sidjakov. Awarded the Caldecott medal in 1960 for distinguished illustrations.

And it is that time of year again, so maybe the Public Library can help you with the following booklets:

Tax guide for small business. Your federal income tax—1963. For individuals. Your income tax, 1963 edition. By J. K. Lasser.

Woman's Club Has Musical Program

Twenty-six members responded to roll call at the Monday afternoon meeting of the Plattsmouth Woman's Club at the home of Mrs. M. M. Munick. Mrs. J. G. McMaken, president, opened the meeting with pledge of allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, led by Mrs. Dale Philpot, chairman of legislative and patriotic education committee. All joined in recitation of the Club Collect.

For the devotional period the Twenty-Third Psalm was repeated in unison. Mrs. W. L. Heinrich used the topic "Doors," telling the important part they play in our every-day-living, and the privilege we have of choosing the doors we will open and shut.

The afternoon program of Music was under leadership of Mrs. E. C. Giles Music Chairman, who as an introduction said, "Some form of music is found in every part of the world, from the islands of the South Pacific round to the Americas; from the equatorial zone to the poles." Longfellow tells us "Music is the universal language of mankind." And Carlyle calls music "the speech of angels."

Mrs. Jeanette Miller, Plattsmouth High School Vocal instructor, presented Vicky Fitzpatrick in a piano solo "Dream of Owen" by Charles Williams; Robert Painter, baritone in the PHS Boys Quartet, making his debut as a soloist, sang the ever popular Jerome Kern composition "Old Man River," with Mrs. Miller accompanying.

A most enjoyable preview of the Broadway Musical "Bye Bye Birdie" was a part of the program, with a duet entitled "Rosie" sung by Marilyn Koubek and Robert Painter. Mrs. Miller served as their accompanist.

The club were loud in praises of the talent of these performers and the preview speaks for a fine entertainment the evenings the musical is scheduled to be presented at the High School March 14 and 15.

Chief item of business was election of a nominating committee, which resulted in Mrs. Ward Schade, Mrs. Fred Lugsch and Mrs. Philip Rihn being named to prepare list of nominees for the March meeting election.

The club has voted gifts to the various community drives as they occur and also is giving to the arthritis fund, a new General Federation project this year. Donations of money are also going in support of the NFWC projects Pennies for Art, International Student Music, and Educational Loan Scholarship funds.

Discussion was had on fund raising plans looking toward the local club project of the planting of red bud trees as a start to city-wide beautification this spring. The Ways and Means committee, Mrs. Joe Zastera chairman, is in charge of the fund raising endeavors, the first of which was initiated at Monday's meeting with the holding of a most successful Silent Auction.

At the meeting adjournment the hostess assisted by a committee of Mmes. Glen Valley, C. A. Ruse, R. W. Knorr, Clarence Akeson, Marvin Brown, Philip Rihn and Joseph Capwell served refreshments.

The March 4th meeting will be with Mrs. L. D. Hiatt, guest speaker. Mrs. H. B. Patrick of Bellevue bringing a program on Historical Nebraska.

A new Plattsmouth resident is Mrs. Anna B. Heil, moving here from Louisville.
