Winter Carnival Sunday Aids St. John's School

The second annual Winter Carnival, sponsored by St. John's Home School Association, was held in St. John's Auditorium Feb. 17, from 2 to 5 p.m.

The fun began with a program entitled, "A Day at St. John's," which consisted of a series of slides with narration, concerning the activities of the children of St. John School.

After the program, approximately 20 booths, games and contests began operation. A Parcel Post stand, a Kangaroo Court, Fish Pond, Cake Walk, and many other games entertained the more than 300 people who attended.

An auction closed the afternoon's activities. Gifts from Sid Melton and Danny Thomas were auctioned off, as well as a gift from Mrs. John F. Kennedy, wife of the President of the United States.

Proceeds of the carnival will go toward the purchase of new desks for St. John School.

Guests chatted about old times and were served coffee, cookies, nuts and mints by the hosts.

Rotarians See Slides of Tour

Carl Ganz, former Cass County banker and now of Lincoln, showed color slides and talked about a trip he and Mrs. Ganz took to South America, Tuesday noon at the Rotary Club meeting.

He said he saw no solution to the economic problems of South American countries (there are only very rich and very poor people, no middle class) short of a "blood bath."

Orville Julian was program chairman for the day.

Among guests was Don Bell, new associate of Rotarian Robert Walling in the Thomas Walling Co.

A collection was taken for the Heart Fund.

The Junior Auxiliary of VFW Host To Valentine Tea

The VFW Club was the scene Sunday of a Valentine Tea honoring the mothers and relatives of the Junior Unit of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

A program with Mrs. Sophia Wolever as emcee was presented by the Juniors.

A prayer by Dixie Wilson, Jr. Chaplain, was followed by singing "God Bless America" in unison; Gloria Dasher, Jr. President, welcomed the mothers and other guests, and the response was given by Norma Wilson, president of the Auxiliary.

Fred Draper, commander of the local post, extended greetings.

Each Junior introduced her mother or the guest she brought, and Mrs. Wilson introduced the Youth Activities chairman Mrs. Pearl Myers, who spoke briefly on the activities and projects that would be planned for the coming months.

A piano solo was played by Debbie Porter. Several new dances were presented by Dixie Wilson and Linda Thornton. Group singing by the Juniors followed.

The Junior Unit was instituted 4 years ago, and has a membership of 27. They assist the Post and Auxiliary in their projects, serve at dinners, and conduct magazine sales to purchase hospital equipment for use in the community. They are at the present purchasing aluminum adjustable crutches, and a child's wheel chair.

Mrs. Harry Porter, Mrs. Wayne Dasher, Mrs. Fred Draper and Mrs. Wilson gave a brief resume of the activities of the Juniors. The tables were arranged in the valentine motif with a huge heart from the ceiling, formed with streamers of red and attached to the tables, with miniature heart placards.

Fathers of the Juniors, Wayne Dasher and Don Stalwick, with Commander Draper served angel food cake, topped with cherries and whipped cream, heart minis, punch and coffee.

The Juniors held their business session on Wednesday night preceding the tea.

You should start long journeys well rested and stop frequently to stretch, never driving when sleepy. The monotony of some modern unmarked highways tends to lull some drivers into semi-consciousness — so keep alert. It is also advisable not to overeat before a long drive.

Garden Club Members Meet at Egenberger Home

The Plattsmouth Garden Club members held their first meeting of the new year at the home of Mrs. L. W. Egenberger Monday afternoon. Mrs. Clarence Akesson, a past president, opened the meeting and presided. All joined in praying the Lord's Prayer followed by pledge of allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.

Fifteen members responded to roll call by telling of new plants to be grown this year in their gardens.

The new Year Books were distributed. Some very interesting programs have been planned by the committee Mrs. Arthur Lambert, Mrs. John Vallery, Miss Clara Weyrich, Mrs. Fred Lugsch, Mrs. L. H. Hurst and Mrs. A. W. Propst.

The afternoon topic was "Seed Catalogs" and a bit of spring was ushered in as members paged through the colorful catalogs showing many new and old varieties for spring planting.

The planting of the red bud trees, a project of the Plattsmouth Women's Club, was discussed as a beautification project for Plattsmouth, in which many of the Garden Club members plan to participate.

Door prizes were won by Mrs. Joe Zastera and Mrs. Sam Gilmour.

The hostesses, assisted by Miss Laura Melinger served refreshments in keeping with the George Washington motif.
