CAPITOL CORNER

Washington, D.C. (Special) — Reports from Geneva, where disarmament proposals are being discussed with Russia, indicate that this nation is going to back down even more in its demands for proper safeguards.

Certainly we should have learned by now that the Russians will only live up to those agreements they want to honor. Their nuclear bomb tests were being prepared all during the time their delegates were talking disarmament in Geneva in 1961; this gives clear indication of how much faith they place in such talks.

Originally the U.S. position was that there would have to be at least 20 on-site inspections in Russia each year. Then our delegates were told that 12 to 20 would be enough. The President then said that there should be "some." That was last summer.

Now the number has been placed at 8. But news dispatches from Geneva say 7 inspections have been proposed by the U.S. delegate and that he may go as low as 5. This is a far cry from the minimum of 20 which we originally insisted on.

Has Russia also made concessions? They moved from none to 2 or 3. At the same time we dropped from at least 20 down to 7, or maybe even to 5. If this is the way we are going to give ground to the Russians, we might as well let them write the treaty and send it over here for signatures.

This is just one more reason why so many Americans distrust or express dismay over our foreign relations.

Nebraska's Second Congressional District now has just four counties — Washington, Douglas, Sarpy and Cass. Population of these four in 1960 was 404,695, but estimated population figures for the past two years indicate that the Second District will have a population approaching 600,000 by 1970.

In the past two years, the Second District counties have shown sizable increases in estimated population, based on figures from the Bureau of Business Research, College of Business Administration, University of Nebraska. Here are the 1960 and 1962 figures: Cass from 17,821 to 18,486; Douglas from 343,490 to 371,342; Sarpy from 31,281 to 38,548; Washington from 12,103 to 12,573. Total went from 404,695 to 440,949.

These are impressive figures, especially since 52 of Nebraska's 93 counties are estimated to have lost population from 1960 to 1962.

At this writing, both the House of Representatives and the Senate are at their full strength. In the House, there are 258 Democrats and 177 Republicans.

Background of the Representatives is as follows: law, 249; business, 134; agriculture, 45; teaching, 36; journalism, 31; engineering, 3; medicine, 3; clergy, 2; labor leader, 1. This totals more than 435 since some have experience in more than one field.

There are 11 ladies in the House and 2 in the Senate.

McHugh County Chairman for Hruska Banquet

Ed McHugh, of Murdock, has been named Cass County chairman for the banquet honoring Senator Roman L. Hruska at the Omaha auditorium April 6.

Morris E. Jacobs, Omaha, general chairman of the dinner, has named chairmen for each of Nebraska's 93 counties.

The dinner, described by Jacobs as the "greatest political gathering ever in this part of the country," will feature New York Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller and at least 16 Senators and members of the U. S. House of Representatives.

The delegations from the Senate and House will be led by Everett McKinley Dirksen, Ill., Republican Senate Leader, and Charles Haleck, Ind., Republican House leader. Other U. S. Senators will be Gordon Allott and Peter Dominick, Colo., Frank Carlson and James B. Pearson, Kans., Bourke B. Hickenlooper, Iowa, Thurston B. Morton, Ky., Karl E. Mundt, S. Dak., Milward Simpson, Wyo., and Milton R. Young, N. Dak.

Nebraska Senator Carl Curtis is helping to plan the dinner for his colleague.

In addition to Nebraska's Congressmen Glenn Cunningham, Ralph Beerman and Dave Martin, the House delegation will include Leslie Arends, Ill., the House Republican Whip, and Joseph Martin, Jr., Mass., former Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Mars' atmosphere contains about two billion tons of water, two Russian scientists have estimated. This amount is merely a drop in the bucket compared to the water on earth. The earth's atmosphere receives, from sea evaporation alone, an estimated 88 million billion gallons a year.

Obituary

Gustav Simon Stock

Gustav Simon Stock, son of Fred and Johanna Stock, was born near Murdock, March 2, 1892, and died in a Phoenix, Ariz., hospital Febr. 28 at the age of 70. He had been in failing health for several years, due to a heart condition.

Growing to young manhood in the Murdock community, he was baptized into the Christian faith, and accepted Christ as his personal Saviour at an early age, and united with the Callahan Evangelical United Brethren Church.

Oct. 28, 1915, he was married to Miss Hannah Schlaphof of Murdock at the home of the bride's parents. This union was blessed with four children, three of whom survive their father. One son Harvey, aged five years, preceded his father in death in 1922. Mr. and Mrs. Stock lived on a farm near Murdock until their retirement to Murdock in 1949.

Mr. Stock was active in the life of the Callahan Church, serving as Class Leader, Sunday School teacher, steward, and church treasurer. He was very fond of music, and was a member of the Callahan Church Male Quartette for over 20 years.

In 1954, he with others, transferred their memberships to the Ebenezer Evangelical United Brethren Church in Murdock.

Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. Hannah Stock, two sons, Mark and Verle, one daughter, Mrs. Mabel Murdock, all of Murdock, Nebraska; six grandchildren, Mariene, Dale and Danny Murdock, and Theodore, Luanne and Johnny Stock of Murdock, six brothers, William, Fred, Robert, Paul, Jesse, and Harry, all of Murdock.

Funeral services were held at the Ebenezer Evangelical United Brethren Church at Murdock,

March 4 in charge of the Rev. O. W. Matzke, and Rev. F. C. Weber.

The six surviving brothers served as pallbearers, and a quartette, consisting of David Rieke, Reuben Stock, Roland Stock, and Donald Rihl provided the special music. Mrs. Myrtle Panska served as organist and William von Spreckelsen presided at the piano.

Burial was in the Callahan Cemetery southwest of Murdock.

Temple visitors in Burma buy gold leaf to press on statues of Buddha as offerings. To prepare gold leaf for sale, craftsmen beat small lumps of the metal into sheets only 1-200,000 of an inch thick—thinner than the layer of ink printed on this page.
