Dan Schultz Named To Twin Rivers All-Conference Basketball Team

Dan Schultz, Plattsmouth High's leading scorer the past season, has been named to the Twin Rivers All-Conference basketball team picked by conference coaches.

Schultz, 6-4, scored 270 points to edge Roger Beverage who tallied 263 for the Blue Devil point crown. Schultz is one of five seniors on the six-member team chosen as coaches each picked a five-man squad but could not choose their own players. A tie in votes resulted in the six-man selection. Named with Schultz were: Ernie Strahl, Falls City, 6-3; Ben Maze, Falls City, 5-10; Roger Douglas, Crete, 5-10; Lou Waltman, Crete, 6-3; and Kaye Carstens, Fairbury, 6-1. All are seniors except Strahl who is a junior.

Weeping Water Man Admits 2 Break-ins

Leonard T. Little, 33, Weeping Water, today pleaded "guilty" to two counts of burglary and was bound over from County Court to District Court. Judge Raymond J. Case set bond at $1,000.

Sheriff Fred Tesch said Little had admitted breaking into the Stander and Stander Hardware Store at Louisville Tuesday night and stealing several guns; and entering the Hopper Bros. Quarry Office west of Weeping Water Monday night and stealing a weigh-ticket machine. Little was also questioned about a break-in at Binger Lumber Co. Tuesday noon in which $114 cash was stolen. He did not implicate himself in that crime.
