Mrs. Kenneth Clower presented a number of new novels.

Mrs. Sybil Moore gave two new novels.

Mrs. Catherine Wiles has given Herbert Hoover's new book "On growing up," his letters from and to American children.

New books added:

Young people and drinking, by Dr. Arthur H. Cain.

The genetic code by Isaac Asimov.

Paul Ruyana's book for senior golfers.

The rich nations and the poor nations by Barbara Ward.

Everybody adored Cara by Ann Head.

The enterprising Americans, by John Chamberlain. A lively business history of the U.S.

The world of ice by James Dyson. (One of last years notable books).

The Poles, by Life Nature Library.

Alpha Delta Kappa

The Alpha Delta Kappa, a teachers' sorority, met at the home of Mrs. Pat Bosking.

Due to her husband's transfer to an air base in the east, Mrs. Bosking has terminated her services as Speech Therapist with the Omaha Schools. The sorority regrets to lose Mrs. Bosking.

The Bellevue Chapter has invited the Plattsmouth members to a buffet luncheon at Gene's Restaurant Thursday, April 25 at 6:30 p.m. All are anticipating a most interesting and pleasurable meeting.

BIRTHS

Navy Mothers Elect Officers

Navy Mother's Club met at Consumers Club Rooms April 5. Commander Mrs. Mae Favors presiding. There were 13 members present. Several members reported on the sick list.

Letters were read from the Navy News. A letter from our State Commander informing us that all the money for the furnishing of a room at the Soldiers and Sailors Hospital in Grand Island, has been sent in and the room nearly completed. Plattsmouth Club donated $15 toward this very worthwhile project.

Americanism Chairman, Mrs. Margaret Covert, read an interesting item on the age of our navy organized in 1798. She also read some items on the care of our flag.

Plans were made for the games party to be held April 22 at the Veteran's Hospital in Omaha.

Election of officers was held and the following were elected to serve for a two-year term: Mrs. Hermie Kubicka, Commander; Mrs. Mabel Haney, 1st vice commander; Mrs. Tullie Minnear, 2nd vice commander; Mrs. Mae Favors, adjutant; Mrs. Margaret Covert, finance officer; Mrs. Mary Worsham, chaplain; Mrs. Edith Akeson, judge advocate; Mrs. Irene Davis, Mrs. Ida Cotner, matrons-at-arms; Mrs. Clara Esert, Mrs. Ida N. Cotner, color bearers.

Meeting closed with the retiring of colors, recitation of the club pledge and a prayer for peace.

Mrs. Dowdy served a lunch, after which some time was spent visiting.

Columbian PTA Has Meeting, Names Officers

The regular meeting of the Columbian PTA was held in the kindergarten room on April 9th at 7:30 p.m. with Edward Hays presiding over the business meeting.

It was announced that the May PTA Council meeting would be open to the public and that Dr. Floyd Miller would be the speaker. Everyone was urged to attend.

Raymond Smock, chairman for the proposed Columbian playground, announced that work had begun on the project, and that work details would be organized, beginning Saturday, April 13. He stated that Volunteers would be needed.

A sign will be placed near the project, stating that it is a Columbian PTA project.

Election of officers was held with the following officers elected for the year 1963-64:

President, Mrs. Raymond Smock; Vice-President, Harold Craig; Secretary, Mrs. Blanche Johnson; Treasurer, Mrs. Ivan Hill; Council Representative, Ralph Hill.

Associated Photographers was selected to take the school pictures for the year 1963-64.

Robert Humphrey, geography teacher and counselor, gave a very interesting and inspiring talk on the rearing of children which was most worthwhile to all parents.

Room count was taken with Mrs. Applegate's fifth grade receiving the $3 check for a book or books for the classroom.

Refreshments were served by the room mothers of Miss Block's third grade.

FHA at Weeping Water Has Full Week of Events

WEeping WATER (Special)—Weeping Water Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America celebrated National FHA Week, March 31 to April 6.

Sunday, every FHA girl was to attend the church of her own choice. If possible she was to be there with her parents.

Monday was "Be Kind To Teachers Day." Each of the high school teachers was presented a red apple. They were also given a red and white ribbon corsage to wear during the day. FHA girls volunteered to be especially kind to one teacher but were so kind to all of them that several teachers were unable to decide who was really assigned to them. The teachers appreciated this recognition.

Tuesday was "I Made It Day" with every girl wearing a garment that she had made herself. Several girls wore garments they had made outside of the homemaking classes.

Band Parents Meet

Plattsmouth Band Parents met April 10 in the music room. President Fred Fischer presided to the 32 members present.

Mr. and Mrs. John Clويد were introduced as new members.

It was voted to buy additional band uniforms for students. The question of summer uniforms was discussed at length.

The club voted to award two half-scholarships to All-State and also to initiate a new award this year, the Instrumentalist Magazine's John Phillip Sousa Award, which will honor the outstanding boy and girl in the band.

Plans were made for the annual picnic June second.

Jack Herweg, director, explained plans for taking the band to the Nebraska State District Music Contest at Peru April 25.

He also read invitations for the Plattsmouth Band to perform at Blair and Missouri Valley May 11, on the occasion of the free bridge opening, at Nebraska City, June 7; the Cass County Fair in August; and the Ak-Sar-Ben Rodeo on September.

A tentative date of May 22 was set for the instrument demonstration. Mr. Herweg stated that at present it appears there will be about 50 beginning students this year.

Senior band members' parents were asked to rise and were given applause for their faithfulness to the club.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Kenneth Dunlap, Mrs. Wayne Gorton, Mrs. Wayne Dasher, Mrs. Harold LeBena, Mrs. Fred Tomag and Mrs. Louisa Naeve.

"Mrs. Nebraska" Made Honorary Admiral in Navy

"Mrs. Nebraska," Mrs. Norman Moyer of Omaha, was made an Honorary Admiral of the Nebraska Navy Tuesday, April 9 at the Nebraska State Capitol.

She and her party were conducted on a personal tour of the Governor's Mansion by Governor and Mrs. Morrison.

Mrs. Moyer and her husband will be in Miami, Florida April 22-29 for the Mrs. America Finals to be held at the Golden Gate Hotel and Auditorium.

Mrs. Moyer, the former Vivian Warner, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Warner, Plattsmouth.

KEEP IN TOUCH

Mrs. L. A. Caldwell has returned home from the hospital following observation.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Haden have visiting grandchildren. They are Harold and Ronald Ham of this city and Renee and Todd Haden of Omaha. Parents of the children are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Haden of Omaha and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ham of this city. The children of each family boast a new baby in the household which prompted their visit with Grandpa and Grandpa.

Mrs. Herb Freeburg is nursing a sprain in the ankle encountered Sunday. She will be confined at home on crutches for awhile.

Mrs. Edith Thiele will spend Easter with Mrs. Susie Someau and family in La Crosse, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wiles were in Lincoln today visiting with relatives and sight-seeing in the Capitol City.

Mrs. Estelle McKlusky entered the Clarkson Hospital in Omaha following a fracture of the hip bone. She has been there ten days in room 923.

Wednesday was "Red and White Day." The girls all wore costumes of red and white, the FHA colors.

Thursday was "No Gripe Day." Each time an FHA girl was heard to gripe she had to pay 1 cent to the FHA treasury. A personal value was gained by this day as the girls became aware of how often they were tempted to gripe. 42 cents was turned in as fines.

Friday was "Dress Up Day." This was the day for heels, hose and dressy dresses. There was no need to wear a badge saying what this day was!

Friday evening Mrs. Detmer, the Adviser, attended a meeting in Lincoln of the State FHA Advisory Board meeting of which she is a member. At this meeting final plans were made for the State Convention.

The State FHA Convention was held on Saturday at the Nebraska Center for Continuing Education. Mary Louise Detmer, as President, and Judy Lee, Vice President, represented the Weeping Water Chapter. Mrs. Detmer, Chapter Adviser, also attended. Judy and Mary Louise gave the devotions at the morning session. At noon they, as well as the other girls of the chapter whose advisers were on the State Advisory Board, escorted the special guests to the luncheon at noon. The morning sessions were highlighted by reports by the state officers. The noon luncheon speaker was Dr. Robert Manley who spoke of "Knowing Nebraska." The afternoon session revealed scholarship winners, and installation of new officers.

The committee for National FHA Week were: Judy Lee, Joyce Domingo, Patty Patterson, Diann Rector, Dorothy Parson with Mary Louise Detmer serving as chairman. They reviewed many of their ideas from attending the 3-day Leadership Workshop at Lincoln last June.

Chas. Marshalls Of Avoca Observe 40th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Marshall celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary with an Open House at the Elmwood School Building March 31.

A few over 300 were in attendance. Many bouquets and potted plants were provided by friends and relatives as well as several associates of Mr. Marshall from Farm Bureau. A number of beautiful gifts were also in evidence.

The decorations followed the Ruby color, traditional for the 40th anniversary.

A red and white centerpiece bouquet provided a background for the large wedding anniversary cake which was baked in the form of a bible decorated with red roses and the statistics of the wedding of 40 years ago on one page and the Lord's Prayer on the other page.

Mrs. Clark Marshall supervised the guest book and accompanied Clark for the two solos he sang.

Mrs. Leonard Grigsby of Atchita, Kansas, Mrs. Fred Diest of Audubon, Iowa, and Mrs. Ed Harms of Nebraska City, directed the tables of cards, gifts and pictures.

Mrs. Eldon Mendenhall and Mrs. Herbert Oehlerking were co-chairmen of the Serving Committee which was composed of Elmwood Farm Bureau unit ladies and other friends of the honor couple.

The program was patterned after the radio show "This Is Your Life" with Howard Pool and Clark Marshall, the only son of the Marshalls, reading the script, introducing participants, and presenting letters written by close friends unable to be present.

Those who appeared in person were Miss Marie Schweppe, Mardock; Harold Richards, Ashland; Senator Dale Erlwine, Grant; Corwin Mead, Aurora; and Lee Woodyard of Phillipsburg, Kansas.

Letters were read from Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Long of Madrid; Mr. Edward Day, Madrid; Mr. and Mrs. Mory Stevens of Grant; B. K. Lyon, Grant; Mr. and Mrs. Loren Gould, Phillipsburg, Kansas; Mr. and Mrs. Jay Groom, Lexington; Arthur Mulen, Altoona, Kansas; and Dr. and Mrs. John E. Flinger of Clarkson, Nebraska.

Background music was by Miss Marie Rosenow, Elmwood, and Mrs. Dale Erlwine of Grant; and a violin solo was presented by Mrs. Arnold Schatz of Lincoln, accompanied by Mrs. Dwight Clements of Elmwood.

Mrs. Bernice Camp, Mrs. Norville Schrage, Mrs. Robert Thompson all of Lincoln; Mrs. Maynard Rippe of Auburn; Mrs. Donald Fredenburg and Mrs. Herbert Oehlerking both of Elmwood, poured punch and coffee.

Winter's Still Making a Pitch

By P. J. DINGMAN
Winter never seems to give up!

The last 3 days have brought quite cooler temperatures and a "wish I would have put fertilizer on the lawn" type of rain.

It looks as if the women's Easter bonnets will serve a purpose this year (besides decoration).
