COMMENT

by L. A. Caldwell
EASTER JOY

"He is risen."
No words that have ever been written or expressed hold more joy than these three. For upon them turns the whole story of Him who came to live among men, to suffer and die for all men, and to rise again in evidence of His divinity.

After the passion and suffering which are remembered during Holy Week, the words above ring out as a joyous climax, an affirmation of faith and triumph. They mark an end, but even more a beginning of life.

It is this joy which permeates the whole of Easter Sunday. It is not unfitting that this day is celebrated with a profusion of flowers and color, of new bonnets and gowns, of exciting children's games and hearty family feasts. For He is risen. This is a day of rejoicing, in which all men know His love.

TOPS in R & CARE

Have you ever thought how important the bottle top is to your prescribed medicine? Truly, it is one of the trifles that make for perfection in prescription dispensing.

Every top we use is the perfect one for the bottle containing your medicine. It provides a leak-proof, air-tight seal to prevent spilling out and to protect against moisture and impurities seeping in. This is typical of the care we give your prescription.
