

Spotlight on Milk for Extension Clubs

BY MRS. KAY LEIDING
Extension Home Agent

Home Extension clubs will be studying milk cookery during May. The demonstrations will be given in the county during the week of April 22.

Monday, April 22, 1:30 p.m.—Mrs. Louis Sack home, Murray.

Tuesday, April 23, 9:30 a.m.—Omaha Public Power Office in Weeping Water.

Tuesday, April 23, 1:30 p.m.—Mrs. Jesse Westlake home near Elmwood.

Thursday, April 25, 9:30 a.m.—Gas Company, Plattsmouth.

Thursday, April 25, 1:30 p.m.—Mrs. August Riecke home, Murdock.

4-H leaders with Meal Planning III members in their club might like to attend these meetings. If women's groups other than Extension would like to send a representative to these meetings they are welcome to do so. Please contact me or the hostess in your community.

Home Living Tour

Approximately 30 4-H members, mothers and leaders from Cass County will be participating in a tour in Lincoln on Saturday, April 20. Lancaster and Cass counties are both participating in this event.

We were one of the 12 counties in Nebraska to be awarded a $75 scholarship from Sears for having the most members enrolled in advanced home living projects during 1962.

Lancaster and Cass counties are combining the $75.00 awards. The tour will include a visit at Ag. Campus — a demonstration and discussion of proper lighting and a luncheon at the Lincoln Hotel. In the afternoon a chartered bus will take the group to a wallpaper and paint store, an unpainted furniture store and to a home with some refinished furniture and some in the process of being finished. The bus trip will also include a visit to 2 new model homes in N. E. Lincoln.

The day sounds like a big one — which should offer the girls much enthusiasm for their own home improvement projects.

Spring Tea

The annual Home Extension Spring Tea is being planned for April 30. Nancy Childs of Lincoln, our speaker, will discuss "Personality and Charm". She has a modeling school in Lincoln and is a homemaker and mother.

You do not need to be a Home Extension club member to attend the tea. Please come and bring a friend.

The clubs from the Elmwood-Eagle-Alvo area are serving the tea this year.

NHEA Convention Time

According to a recent newsletter I understand there are 21 home economists in Cass County. How many of you are planning to attend the annual Nebraska Convention in Hastings on April 26-27? The program looks real interesting plus the opportunity to renew professional acquaintances.

Drapery Workshop

May 14 is the date set for the drapery workshop. Plans are for this meeting to be held in Weeping Water from 9:30 to 3:30. A discussion of measurements, design, fabric and equipment will be included in the morning program. The afternoon will involve making samples of hems, pleated draperies, etc. Anyone interested in attending should contact me at the Extension office for further details and a list of things to bring.

JUDO PAYS OFF

Des Moines, Iowa — A Drake University senior, Carol Stark, 20, after attending a concert, found she did not have enough money for a cab fare back to the college and began walking. Along came a carload of boys, one jumped out and grabbed her, saying, "You're going for a ride, honey." Seconds later the youth landed with a thud on the pavement.

The others sped away when asked who was next. Carol is taking judo lessons.
