

Tea Honors Visiting Sister

AVOCA (Special) — Mrs. Elmer Hallstrom hosted a tea at her home Wednesday morning honoring her sister Mrs. Maude Test of Mitchell, S. D.

She has been her house guest for a month.

Rolls, mints and jelly were served from a cafeteria table and coffee was served at the tables where the Easter motif was carried out in centerpieces of candied eggs, ducks and chickens.

The decorations were made by her daughter, Mrs. Joe Case, Plattsmouth.

Mrs. Robert Hallstrom assisted with the serving.

"Compared with other periods in history, the world today is quiet," writes an essayist. In fact you can almost hear a bomb drop. — Punch.

MURRAY NEWS
Mrs. Dorothy Van Ackern — Phone 325-3556

Murrayites this past weekend welcomed an influx of holiday visitors.

Dr. and Mrs. Ed Kugler and sons of Storm Lake, Iowa arrived Thursday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Brubacher. They departed for home Monday morning.

On Easter Sunday the group motored to Auburn, where they had dinner at the home of Mrs. Brubacher's sister, Mrs. Elmer Guiliatt.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Blotzer, Nancy, and Don Jr. of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. John Blotzer, Letha, and David of Plattsmouth were Sunday dinner guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Blotzer Sr.

The Christian Church and the United Presbyterian Churches of Murray joined the UCYM at Plattsmouth for an Easter Sunrise Service at 5:45 a.m. at Oak Hill Cemetery. Afterwards they were served breakfast at the Mynard EUB Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Steeby and family were Easter Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hathbun and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wiebele, Allen, and Ardel of Nebraska City, Mr. and Mrs. James Eastridge, Kelly, and Rein, and David Lawman called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Sporer Sunday afternoon. The group then enjoyed a drive to the State Fisheries.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller Hurst, Sheryl, and Jan had dinner Saturday noon with her sister and family the Sheldon Smiths then departed for their home at Fort Worth, Texas.

Mrs. Roy Howard was a Sunday dinner guest at the home of her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Howard.

Mrs. Margaret Brendel had prepared Easter dinner for her son and family the Dr. Brendel's of Plattsmouth, but at almost the last minute she took her dinner to their home as her grandson Scott Brendel had broken out with measles.

Fred Campbell is still at Clarkson Hospital in Omaha and his condition remains serious. Mrs. Campbell's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Parkering of Los Angeles, Calif. arrived in Omaha by plane Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Holubek of Plattsmouth spent Monday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Eugene Nolte.

Mrs. Otto Pitts and Mrs. Orville Muller were Friday afternoon visitors of Mrs. Alvin Melsinger. Evening callers at the Melsinger home were Mr. and Mrs. William Splitt.

Mrs. Anna Melsinger visited with her granddaughter and family the Boyd Rouse's Friday.

Mrs. Opie Morris and daughter Joyce returned by bus Thursday from a week visit with her daughter and family the Wilbur Vignall's of Madison, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. Vignall (Betty) are the parents of a baby girl born April 2nd. She weighed 7-lbs. 9-oz. and has been named Sharon Lyn. The Vignall's have two other children a girl and a boy. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Opie Morris and Mrs. Vignall of Haraboo, Wis.

The Bluebirds held a meeting at the schoolhouse after school hours Wednesday. They went on a tour of the Martin Sporer Museum.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Nolte and family visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Nolte Wednesday evening and shared a birthday cake in honor of Mrs. Nolte's 74 birthday.

Anton Johnson and son of Louisville called at the Martin Sporer home to pick up a fish that Mr. Sporer had mounded for them. It was a carp which they had caught near home and it weighed 29 lbs. and was 36 inches long. Yes, this is quite a fish story, but a true one. It is quite a challenge to all "anglers" in this area.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Philpot and Mrs. Blanche Snell accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Grant Deterding to Council Bluffs for an Easter dinner Sunday at the home of the Deterding's daughter and family the Ed Jones. Randy and Peggy Jones returned home with their grandparents to stay a few days as they do not have to return to school until Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lambert and family had as their Easter dinner guest Mrs. Lambert's uncle, Ralph Todd, Murdock.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvine Nottley and Alda of Avoca, Iowa were Sunday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Cundall and had an evening lunch with them.

The Beginners Class of the Murray public school had an egg hunt Friday morning and the first and second graders had their egg hunt in the afternoon.

Achievement tests are coming up the latter part of this month for the eighth grade class.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Uhe were Sunday dinner guests at the Richard Uhe home at Yutan; the occasion being a celebration in honor of Art's uncle Fred Uhe's 79th birthday. His home is at Richfield, Neb. An Easter egg hunt was held later in the afternoon.

Here's a smart fellow! He wants to have the best looking lawn on the block and he's taking no chances. He's putting on the most wanted of all grass fertilizers — Scott's famous TURF BUILDER. And on the same morning he's putting down a bag of Scott's remarkable HALTS to eliminate any crabgrass before it even pokes up its head. (By buying both he saved a quick $2).

Now's the time to seed that winter-weakened lawn
