Robert S. McNamara, Secretary of Defense: "Any attempt to return to a 'Fortress America' concept of national defense under present international circumstances would be a denial, rather than an expression, of self-interest. It would lead, not to self-preservation, but to slow suicide."

ELMWOOD (Special) — Modern Mothers Club met at Jeanie Reinke's home for their April meeting.

Speakers for the evening were Mrs. Robert Morton of Nebraska City and two assistants. They are all helping with the Cass County Helping Hands School for Mentally Retarded Children, presently located near Murray. It will soon be re-located near Weeping Water in the Philpot School.

Mrs. Morton reported that 3 per cent of children are mentally retarded, approximately 4,200 to 5,200 children and adults across Nebraska are afflicted. In some cases people refuse to recognize the fact which makes this work particularly difficult. She emphasized that a retarded child can be helped if it receives the proper treatment, preferably, early in life.

She also stated that all money donated to this school remains in Cass County and that the school functions on funds donated by interested people.

At the close of her discussion, Modern Mothers Club presented her with $26.65, collected voluntarily from its members, for work at the school.

The business meeting was called to order with 19 members and 4 guests present.

Frances Knosp reported that the town board has voted to build concrete restroom facilities in the park. They would appreciate any help from the club. It was moved and seconded to provide lavatories. Janice Backemeyer and Frances Knosp were appointed the committee to check into various sinks and prices.

Jo Vogt reported that Elmwood community collected $87 in the Red Cross drive. Modern Mothers Club contributed $5.75 of this.

The next Blood Bank will be Oct. 13. The club was asked to consider being a calling committee for it again.

Mary Peterson and Joan Hill reported that the skating party will be held May 5th at 2 p.m.

Janice Backemeyer told of plans for the annual club tour. Jean Spaulding asked all members to bring $1 to the next meeting for the handicraft.

The next meeting will be at Theresa Seiker's. The meeting was adjourned and the hostess served a delicious dessert lunch.
