St. John's Smorgasbord Set June 9

The second annual St. John's Smorgasbord - Bazaar will be held on St. John's school grounds and in the auditorium Sunday, June 9 from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Many carnival-type games will be featured, including a dunking machine, a shooting gallery, fish pond, duck toss, and sugar poker, to mention only a few.

Of special interest to golf fans will be a golf game, just one of several new outside features that have been added this year.

Another highlight will be the opportunity for everyone to win "gift bucks" by participating in the various games. The amount of "gift bucks" won by the participants depends on their proficiency in the games. These gift bucks can be redeemed for any of the fine prizes which will be on display at the prize stand.

Besides the bazaar activities, the public will be able to take advantage of a smorgasbord in the auditorium from 11:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. According to a church spokesman, this year's smorgasbord "promises to be better than ever as it is featuring barbecued beef, together with the traditional ham."

An added attraction of the smorgasbord will be the presence of one of Plattsmouth's most famed citizens (Dr. "300 Game" Louis Amato), who in addition to his bowling prowess, is well known for his skill in planning smorgasbords.

Smorgasbord tickets can be purchased from any parishioner, or from any of the following merchants: Scanlan's, John's Bootery, Clodt Service, Gene's Bootery, Feldhausen Drug, Wee Wardrobe.

2 Injured in Car Accident

Two men were injured, not seriously, in the collision of two cars three miles northeast of Union on Highway 73-75 about 2:25 this morning.

Sheriff Fred Tesch who investigated said a car driven by Larry N. Eden, 25, Wioia, Iowa, ran into the rear of one driven by Cecil J. Bird, 52, of Nebraska City.

Eden told the Sheriff he fell asleep as he was driving about 55 or 60 miles an hour.

After the impact, Bird's car left the highway and turned on its side. Eden's car also went off the road and again hit the rear of the other car, the Sheriff's report said.

Both men suffered cuts and bruises and Bird also complained of a back injury.

Woman Forger Apprehended Here

A 29-year-old woman was taken into custody Monday evening by Sheriff Fred Tesch after she admitted two counts of forgery.

When two local business men reported the forgeries to Sheriff Tesch late Monday, he investigated, and arrested Evelyn Lois Browning of Terrell, Texas after she admitted forging and passing two checks in Plattsmouth. Mrs. Browning stated she arrived in Plattsmouth from Texas about 10 days ago.

She was arraigned in County Court Tuesday on two counts of forgery. She asked for a preliminary hearing. Being unable to post bond of $2,500, she is being held in County Jail.
