

Gideons Meet Here Sunday

The Falls City - Nebraska City Gideon Society will be sponsoring a Countywide Gideon Rally in Cass County June 9 at which time representatives will be appearing in the morning services of many of the churches.

The Ministry of the Gideons is to serve as a non-sectarian extension of the arm of the Church. The Gideons International, is composed of Christian businessmen and they are carrying out a broad ministry which no single denomination could undertake. They are engaged in a worldwide work of distributing Bibles and Testaments. Since 1908, more than 60 million copies have been distributed to hotels, motels, hospitals, jails, servicemen, school children, nurses and others.

The Gideons will meet in Plattsmouth at Kent Cafe at 8 o'clock for assignments to the various churches and then at 1 p. m. they will return to the cafe for dinner with the pastors and wives and a laymen from their church as guests of the Gideons.

District Director Albert Springer of Aurora will address the ministers and others present after the dinner. Special music will be provided.

Gideons will be coming here from Aurora, Henderson, Beatrice, Lincoln, Milford, Omaha, Fremont, Falls City and Nebraska City to help with the church services.

The Falls City - Nebraska City Gideon Society is responsible for work in Cass, Otoe, Nemaha, Johnson, Pawnee and Richardson Counties.

Obituary

Forrest M. Hill

Forrest Marion Hill, fifth child of James R. and Susie Shepherdson Hill, was born on a farm north of Nehawka Mar. 29, 1911, and died May 27 at a Lincoln Hospital.

When a young man, he moved with his parents to Custer County and spent the rest of his life in the Central part of the state.

He was married to Viola Tracey of Loup City Dec. 11, 1935. They had eight children, all of whom survive: James, with the Navy in Hawaii; Mrs. Niema Kuster of Gibbon; Mrs. Dorothy Partridge, Wood River; Mrs. Helen Bethka, Grand Island; Harold, Norma, Linda and Lois, at home.

He is also survived by his mother, Mrs. Susie Hill of El Monte, Calif.; three sisters, Mrs. Gladys Minter of El Monte; Mrs. Charlotte Kentfield of Baldwin Park, Calif., and Mrs. Thressa McNulty, Oconto; three brothers, Shirley of Alhambra, Calif.; Robert, Ovid, Colo.; and Carroll, Broken Bow; and six grandchildren.

Mr. Hill became afflicted with a virulent form of diabetes in 1939 and suffered several problems, including blindness since 1958.

He worked as a farmer and carpenter until his health failed, at which time the family moved to Grand Island. Funeral and burial were there.

Mrs. Mable K. Lewis of Nehawka was among out-of-town persons at the funeral.

Dedication Service
UNION (Special) — Special Dedication Services were held at the Baptist Church last Wednesday evening of the re-decorating and re-building that the men and women have done during the past few months in the church basement.

Guests from Syracuse were in attendance with several local guests also.

Rev. Jones, pastor of the church, conducted the service. Tom Wolfe sang, accompanied by Mrs. Ora Guerra.

The Rev. Glen Knight of the Omaha Christian Education State Office was guest speaker. The ladies of the church served a fish fry supper. The fish was donated by Horace Griffin who has quite a reputation as a "lucky" fisherman.

A FISH STORY

London — What may be the fish story of the year is claimed by the Avon and Dorset River board. The board bred 20,000 salmon with two heads. The malformed fish were produced by artificial insemination of selected roe. The cause for this is a mystery. Fishermen were told not to hope to catch one of these for they all died within a month of hatching.
