Wm. C. Mastons Married 50 Years

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Maston, 627 Oakmont Drive celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at the First Methodist Church here Sunday, June 9.

A host of friends from Council Bluffs, Iowa; Hooper, Oakland, Murray, Omaha, Bellevue, Fremont, Uehling, Craig and Plattsmouth attended the open house celebration.

The program was directed by Rev. Willard Scott, pastor of the church, who opened with a prayer and then turned the program over to Paul Porter of Uehling who gave the history of the Mastons' life in Uehling.

Mr. Porter spoke of Mr. Maston's work with the town band, the Masonic Lodge, Eastern Star and many civic endeavors. He paid tribute to Mrs. Maston for her devoted work in the American Legion Auxiliary and the Eastern Star.

Roberta and Nancy Engdhal of Uehling played several accordion solos which were favorite band tunes of Mr. and Mrs. Maston.

Mrs. George Jacobs played piano numbers fitting the occasion and William Knorr sang "Through The Years."

Lois Engdhal of Uehling who proudly claims Mr. and Mrs. Maston as her godparents read a 50 Wedding Anniversary poem.

Charles West of Oakland gave a talk about Mr. Maston's life as a Burlington Depot Agent, and how the honored couple gave their time and efforts to make each city their home and a better place for all to live.

Mrs. Edward Wehrbein sang several numbers which included the "Golden Anniversary" Song.

Assisting with the refreshments at the open house were Mrs. Donald Wurga at the punch bowl; Mrs. Lois Engdhal, pouring coffee; Mrs. Dorothy Meisinger, serving cake.

Mrs. Dean Meisinger tended the gifts and Mrs. Lloyd Fitch presided at the guest book.

Mrs. Mollie C. Gobleman was hostess and Lloyd Leland Fitch and Bill Engdhal of Uehling assisted with the chairs.

Refreshments were served by the Gleaners Circle of the First Methodist Church.

Following the reception at the church, many close friends from Uehling and other guests closed the day with a picnic at the Maston's home in Oakmont.

Preceding the reception a few close friends, some out-of-town guests and the honorees had dinner at Kent's Cafe.

Linda Livingston Weds Mr. Switzer in Loveland, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dale Switzer

On June 11, her grandparents' golden wedding date, Miss Linda Livingston became the bride of Mr. John Dale Switzer in the Mountain View Presbyterian Church, Loveland, Colo.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Towner Livingston, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Parr Young, all of Nehawka.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Switzer, Fort Collins.

The Reverend Donald Mitchell officiated at the wedding service at four-thirty in the afternoon. Yellow chrysanthemums decorated the church altar.

Organist, Miss Mary Helen Livingston, sister of the bride, played the Introit "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God" and the Postlude "Oh God, Our Help In Ages Past."

Miss Lois Livingston, the bride's sister, was maid of honor. She wore yellow crystalite over taffeta. The bodice top was of white lace; the long skirt was bell-shaped.

The bride chose white bridal satin. The bodice neckline was rounded with elbow-length sleeves. The unpressed pleats in the waistline formed into the bell-shaped skirt. Her veil of tulle fell from a satin rose crown. Adding to the simplicity of the bride's gown was a silver fish necklace (a symbol of Christianity), borrowed from her mother. She carried an arrangement of yellow roses.

Mrs. Livingston chose for her daughter's wedding a rose and gray-green print on white. Her hat and jewelry were shades of rose. Mrs. Young was attired in blue.
