

Mrs. Lynn Wayne Hendrix

Julian-Hendrix Rites in Omaha Church Saturday, June 8

Jacquelyn Joann Julian of Omaha, became the bride of Lynn Wayne Hendrix of Plattsmouth, June 8 in a 2 p.m. ceremony in St. Luke's Lutheran Church in Omaha.

Reverend A. H. Pinkall officiated before the church altar which was decorated with pink and white carnations and red gladioli.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Julian, 4541 South 17th Street, Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne E. Hendrix, Plattsmouth.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of imported chantilly lace. The fitted bodice had a scoop neckline and bracelet length sleeves. The skirt was tier-shaped, highlighted with matching bows. Their headpieces in the same shade were roses with tiny blusher veils. Attendants' flowers were colonial bouquets of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Sheryl Julian, Omaha; bridesmaids were Mary Kay Hendrix, Plattsmouth, sister of the bridegroom; Janyce Julian, Omaha, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. William Kinder, Omaha.

Best man was Lee Hendrix, Lincoln, uncle of the bridegroom.

Ushers were Dennis Meisinger, Gene Valley and Donald Harvey, all of Plattsmouth.

After the wedding ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors.

For their wedding trip to Lake Okiboji, the bride chose a floral pattern on a blue dress with white accessories and a white orchid.

After their return they will live in Omaha.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Julian wore a white lace over a beige sheath with pale blue accessories. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a lace covered beige sheath with matching accessories. Each mother wore a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Margaret Schroeder of Zanesville, Ohio is here visiting with her sister, Mrs. August Keil and her brother, George P. Stoehr. She will be here for about three weeks visiting relatives and friends.

FATHER'S DAY

We sometimes wonder what the writers of comedy shows on television and in the movies would do if they didn't have fathers to work on. Where else can you find someone who makes so many mistakes or puts his foot in his mouth so often?

The only show we know of that took a different tack about Dad came up with a really revolutionary idea: the thought that "Father Knows Best." And this show lasted a lot longer than the comedies where Dad didn't know how to tie his own shoes.

We don't think those comedies about bumbling fathers do any real harm, though. Ask Mom whom she leans on when things don't go right. Next ten-year-old boy you see, ask him if he thinks his Dad can lick yours. Some things don't change. Father's Day is a good time to tell him so.

75th Anniversary of WSCS Celebrated at Louisville

LOUISVILLE (Special) — The WSCS was hostess to 47 women and their pastor at a buffet supper June 7 in honor of the 75th anniversary of the organization of the Ladies Aid Society in the Methodist Church in Louisville.

The Ladies Aid was formed Jan. 18, 1888, and was superceded in 1949 by the Woman's Society of Christian Society.

Tables were decorated with roses and other June flowers in old glass and antique vases; spoons were in spoon-holders; special napkin rings were made for the occasion and encircled napkins marked "75" to carry out the theme. A special cake made and decorated for the occasion was on the center table. Methodist Men served coffee and washed the dishes.

After the supper, Mrs. Gertrude Koop welcomed the guests and opened the program by calling on Rev. Wilmoth for the invocation. A skit, entitled "It Wasn't Always Easy", presented some highlights from the minutes of the Society and touched on the Women's help with church and parsonage repair, the building of the present church and parsonage, projects such as bonnet-making, quilting, and banquets to earn money, and the change-over from the Ladies Aid to the Woman's Society. It was a candle lighting skit and when it was finished, fifteen candles, each one representing five years of women's organization in the church, had been lighted.

Mrs. Arlene Gruber was candle-lighter. Mrs. Kathryn Meyer and daughter Rhonda in two of the bonnets actually made by the society. Mrs. Genevieve Funke in a 1963 creation made especially for the occasion by Mrs. Gertrude Ackles and Mrs. Maude Johnson, Mrs. Beulah Isaac leading in two favorite songs, Mrs. Grace McGrew concerned about the new church in 1916. Miss Grace Hoover reported on quilting and comforts. Mrs. Dorothy Nessen, Mrs. Kathryn Meyers and Mrs. Doris Albert involved in banquets and overcome frustrations. Mrs. Esther Imman reminding us of the 15 loads of wood still in the country. Mrs. Marilyn Wilmoth speaking up for a wholesome cooperation. Mrs. Jan Webb relating the change-over from Ladies Aid to Women's Society and Mrs. Gertrude Koop, our president took part in the skit. The audience was attentive.

Rev. Wilmoth complimented the women on the accumulation of such a fine record in service to their church and pointed them toward a future of challenge which will not always be easy to meet, but which will offer the women ways of new service.

Women present, who had joined before 1920, were Mrs. Hattie Worthman, Mrs. Bernice Pankonin, Mrs. Bedella Stander, Mrs. Kathryn Myers and Mrs. Grace McGrew. Mrs. Little Noyes and Mrs. Maude Johnson were unable to be present.

Committee chairmen for the anniversary celebration were Mrs. Clarence Ackles, invitations; Mrs. Jean Webb, food; Mrs. Helen Gull, decorations; and Mrs. Anna Stiffler, program.

Officers for the coming year are president, Gertrude Koop; vice-president, Dorothy Nessen; secretary, Anna Stiffler; and treasurer, Norma Beck.

The Quilt Fair which had opened at 2:00 p.m., closed for the supper hour and reopened for a short time after the program. 45 quilts were loaned for the display. The two oldest quilts represented were: one owned by Mrs. Mary Amelang that was made in the 1860's and a quilt-top pieced in 1864 just now quilted by the WSCS and owned by Little Noyes.

Mrs. Freida Aschbacher's gift quilt to her granddaughter was pronounced most photogenic. A friendship quilt in pink and white made by the Society in 1934-36 caused many craned necks. Mrs. Maude Johnson's "Dresden Plate" had been quilted by the "Old Guard".

The largest collection of quilts was loaned by Mrs. Bernice Pankonin and her daughter, Miss Eldora. A contest quilt in blue and white by Mrs. Christina Nessen was loaned by Mrs. Dorothy Nessen. Quilts made by Mrs. Helen Cleghorn were loaned by Mrs. Bernice Marquardt of Avoca.

A Diamond Anniversary Friendship Quilt was begun that day and many names were registered for embroidery on the quilt. A suggested pattern for the quilt was on display.
