Jerry Haase's Ship Goes To Far East

USS HANCOCK—Jerry Haase, seaman apprentice, USN, son of Mrs. Edith J. Haase of 710 S. 10th, Plattsmouth, Neb., is serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Hancock, a Pacific Fleet unit which is currently on six-months deployment with the Seventh Fleet in the Far East.

The Hancock departed her homeport, Alameda, Calif., June 7.

Her cruise with the Seventh Fleet includes drills and exercises in conformance with the fleetwide operational readiness inspection. This phase of training is conducted under simulated wartime conditions and shows the Hancock's operational capabilities.

Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, is the Hancock's first port-of-call on the cruise. Her crewmen will be able to see the memorial of the sunken World War II battleship USS Arizona, lost when the Japanese bombed Pearl Harbor. In addition, Hawaii offers sight-seeing and recreation at Waikiki Beach, and at the numerous pineapple canneries, greenhouses and scenic areas of the island.
