

Mr. and Mrs. Lonwood V. Green

Nellie Lou Plybon Weds Lonwood Green of Omaha

June 21, the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, 54th and Fort Streets in Omaha was the scene of the wedding of Miss Nellie Lou Plybon of Omaha, formerly of Plattsmouth, to Lonwood Virgil Green of Omaha.

The bridesmaid was Miss Carol Thoma of Omaha. Her dress was white taffeta, accented with a wide yellow sash and shaded embroidered yellow flowers on the bottom. She carried a bouquet of yellow and white.

Best man was Mr. John Kun of Queens, N. Y.

The bride wore a pearl tiara from which flowed a double sheer nylon net veil. Her gown was princess style taffeta lined in daeron, (slight train) with sweetheart neckline and embroidered taffeta off-shoulder buffon short sleeves with shoulder-length gloves, gathered above the elbows.

A reception was held in the church parlors immediately after the ceremony. On the reception table was a two-tiered cake topped with a bride and groom. The cake was white, decorated with roses, doves, bells and lilies of the valley. Candles were white with a bow of white satin bells. The lilies of the valley were tied with double yellow satin bows. There were also yellow and white chrysanthemums.

A cut-glass punch bowl held the yellow punch.

The cake was served by Mrs. Marilyn Munchrath of Omaha; the punch, by Mrs. Karen Ellerbe, Omaha.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Plybon of Plattsmouth. The bride's younger sister, Wanda, tended the guest book.

Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hixenbaugh of Kansas City, Mo.

The couple spent two weeks in several of the western states. They live in Omaha.

New Stage To Be Used at State Fair

LICENOLN (Special) — Patrons of the evening grandstand shows at the Nebraska State Fair will no longer need to peer clear across the race track to see the performers, Fair Board Secretary Edwin Schultz said today.

A new portable stage is now under construction and will be ready for the 1963 exposition, Aug. 31-Sept. 5 at Lincoln, Schultz said.

The stage, a full sized 50 feet x 34 feet, will be rolled across the track right up in front of the grandstand so that spectators can get a much closer view of the show.

Playing on the stage for four nights, Sept. 1-4, will be State Fair Varieties. Headlining the show will be singer Jimmy Dean (nights of Sept. 1 and 2); singer Roy Acuff (nights of Sept. 3 and 4); and Ginny Tiu and her Family (all four nights).

Tax Or Ax?
