Snells in States on Vacation, to Return to Brazil

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard J. Snell returned to the United States July 11 after a two-year assignment overseas with the U. S. Geological Survey and Administration for International Development. Mrs. Snell, the former Helen Virginia Price, arrived in Plattsmouth Friday for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Blanche Price, and her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Heinrich; her husband is presently visiting relatives in Michigan and will join her later.

The Snells have been on foreign assignments since 1952 except for a short time in Nevada prior to the recent assignment. Countries where the Snells have been located are: Afghanistan, The Philippines, Cambodia, Turkey and Brazil.

During the past two years they were able to visit various places of interest in addition to their headquarters, including such historical and exotic places as Istanbul, Beirut, Damascus, the Holy Land, Madrid, Lisbon and Rio de Janeiro, as well as ancient Troy, Ephesus, Antioch, Nicaea, and numerous others.

They will be in the States on vacation until late September at which time they are expected to return to Brazil.

Bill Higginbotham, Capt. in the Air Force, and Thunderbird Precision flier: "I had much rather make 3 flights in one day than attend one cocktail party."
