Auxiliary to American Legion Has Picnic Dinner

The American Legion Auxiliary to Hugh J. Kearns Post No. 56 held their regular monthly meeting July 25 at the home of Mrs. Karl Grosshans with a 6:30 pot-luck picnic dinner.

President, Mrs. Russell Schalk presided. Guests at the dinner were Miss Patricia Meisinger, the delegate to Girls State, her mother, Mrs. E. Meisinger, Mrs. Vivian Sayers of Jackson, Miss. Because it was the first meeting of the year there were only three committee chairmen reports. Memberships both Junior and Senior will be stressed this year in an effort to obtain the quota assigned by Department.

Mrs. Schalk explained to the members the need for volunteers in assisting with the Red Cross Bloodmobile at the First United Presbyterian Church on August 8. Nurses, typists, and bottle labelers are needed. The Auxiliary has had an intensive telephone committee at work.

The Chaplain closed the meeting with prayer after which the delegate to Girls State told of her wonderful week at Lincoln.

A dessert was served with Mrs. Grosshans, Mrs. Alpha Muncie and Mrs. Ethel Zastera as hostesses.

Next meeting will be held Aug. 22. Mrs. Hettie Larson will be chairman and hostess.
