

Mrs. Larry Lee Henry

Sullivan-Henry Wedding At First United Presbyterian

Miss Cheryl Kay Sullivan and Mr. Larry Lee Henry were married July 30 at the First United Presbyterian Church here in an eight o'clock ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. T. Ralph Sullivan and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Henry, all of Plattsmouth.

The Rev. Kenneth Johnson, pastor of Park Forest Presbyterian Church, Omaha, officiated at the wedding rites in the presence of 200 guests. Baskets of lavender and white gladioli decorated the church altar.

Mrs. George Jacobs was organist and Albert Wetenkamp was soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a floor length gown of imported white chantilly lace, styled with a sculptured bodice and full skirt. Iridescent sequins defined the portrait neckline. A waist length veil of French illusion was held by a jeweled crown of sequins and pearls. She carried a cascade of lavender pom-poms surrounding white carnations.

Maid of honor was Miss Janice Hansen, cousin of the bride, of Prairie Village, Kans., attired in a lilac cotton brocade satin frock, bell-shaped skirt with fitted bodice. With this she wore a matching veil hat, white lace gloves and carried a nosegay of hot pink carnations.

Mrs. Tom Sullivan and Mrs. Norman Henry, both of Plattsmouth, also were bride's attendants. They wore gowns identical to the maid of honor.

The Misses Connie Jo Pfeifer and Virginia Martin were candlelighters. Sharyn Hild, cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

Norman Henry, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Tom Sullivan, brother of the bride, and Duane Whelan were groomsmen; Ronald Adkins and Fay Smalley ushered.

The bride's mother wore a champagne silk shantung dress with beige accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore sky blue knit crepe with white accessories. Both mothers had a white carnation corsage.

Immediately following the wedding reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. George D. Ebersole, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Dick Hart cut the cake; Miss Linda Stoner poured coffee; Mrs. Bill Roloff served punch; Misses Connie Diggs, Karyl Davis and Sharen Farris helped with the gifts.

For their wedding trip to Colorado Springs, Colo., the bride wore a light navy two-piece dress with white accessories.

The bridegroom is a 1959 Plattsmouth High School graduate, employed at Western Electric at Millard.

The bride was graduated from the Plattsmouth Schools in 1962. They will live at 324 North Ninth, Plattsmouth.
