Orientation Set for New 9th, 7th Graders Aug. 26

An orientation session for all incoming 7th and 9th grade students of Plattsmouth Schools has been set for Monday, Aug. 26, at 9:30 a.m. at the High School Auditorium. Principal Joe York announced today.

Success Story

In this issue you will find a newspaper advertising success story. It is one of a series of 6 you will see appearing in The Journal.

This first story tells how a grocer in Oakland, Neb., has increased his volume by carrying regular display advertising in his hometown newspaper.

COMMISSION TO MEET

The Cass County Board of Commissioners will meet Tuesday and Wednesday, beginning about mid-morning each day. It's the regular second session of August.

All 9th graders are asked to bring a pen or pencil, only. No other school supplies are necessary for the session. The new 9th graders are also to bring $1 for the locker key deposit.

The 7th graders need no supplies or money.

Parents are welcome at the orientation session as well, he said.

Museum Relics 'Win' Ribbon

The Golden Rod Study Club's pioneer display in the Gambler's Store window at Weeping Water during the County Fair won a red ribbon when Extension Club exhibits were judged.

The museum needs your support, its officers say and urge you "to join now at the Museum or send your $1 to Miss Grace Livingston, Plattsmouth, treasurer.

Peggy Stubbendick Is Miss Cass County

Peggy Stubbendick, 17, of Avoca Saturday night was crowned Miss Cass County of 1963 at the County Fair in Weeping Water.

Coronation of Miss Cass County was the climax of the annual fair and was witnessed by a crowd of several hundred persons on the "grandstand stage" just off Main Street.

Miss Stubbendick, who will be a senior at Avoca High School this fall, won out over nine other contestants representing County towns.

Judith Stohlmann of Louisville was chosen First Princess and Claire Julian of Plattsmouth was named Second Princess.

Other contestants were Diana Root, Eagle; Jackie Dodson, Nehawka; Kieda Boardman, Union; Carol Smith, Murray; Karen Backmeyer, Elmwood; Judy Trutna, Murdock; and Charlene Thoren, Weeping Water.

The crown was awarded Miss Cass County by Diane Ratliff of Weeping Water, the retiring Queen.

Prior to announcement of the winners, Miss Stubbendick had sung a solo and Miss Smith had played a piano solo.
