Forsyth-Johnson Wedding Couple to Live in Lincoln

Mr. and Mrs. LaVane Ray Johnson

Miss Rosanna Forsyth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Forsyth, Beatrice, became the bride of LaVane Ray Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson, Jr., of Alvo. The wedding took place at the South Beatrice Church of the Brethren, Holmesville.

Two large baskets of white gladioli decorated the front of the church for the double-ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Berwyn Oltman, Kinsley, Iowa, brother-in-law of the bride.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white bouquet taffeta. The rounded neckline was accented by lace as the elbow length sleeves. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and white carnations.

Mrs. Edwin Switzer, Hutchinson, Kan., sister of the bride was matron of honor and Miss Carlene Johnson, Alvo, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Donald Grosbach, Enders, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore alike dresses of mint green, and carried bouquets of white carnations.

Serving his brother as best man was Gary Johnson, Alvo, and groomsmen were Marvin McKay, Alvo, and Valjean Stall, Eagle. Seating the guests were Harlan Johnson, Alvo, cousin of the groom, Jerry Lanning, Eagle, and Edwin Switzer, Hutchinson, Kansas, brother-in-law of the bride.

Ringbearer was Duane Grosbach, nephew of the bride and flower girls were Ronda Switzer, Anita Grosbach and Sandra Sharp, all nieces of the bride.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church. Assisting with the reception were sisters of the bride.

After a wedding trip to Minnesota the couple are at home in Lincoln.

The bridegroom is a graduate of the Eagle High School and attended the University of Nebraska. He is presently employed at the Eagle Co-op Elevator.

The bride attended Holmesville High School and McPherson College, McPherson, Kansas. She is employed by the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture.

Garden Club Names Committees For KKK Flower Show

Plattsmouth Garden Club met with Mrs. W. L. Hansell Aug. 19, with Mrs. Lee Eastridge and Mrs. Marjory Cole co-hostesses. Sixteen members answered roll call naming a fall flower now blooming in their gardens.

Mrs. Marjory Cole presided over the meeting using a thought of thanksgiving for the refreshing recent rains, and read a poem by Mary Louise Cheatham "Prophecy."

Mrs. W. L. Heinrich served as secretary pro-tem in absence of vacationing Mrs. W. L. Engenberger.

In an article from the National Gardener magazine reported from Nebraska Federated Clubs showed a membership of 123 adult clubs with a membership of 2,434 and five junior clubs with 31 members. There are presently 51 accredited judges in Nebraska, one of whom holds a Masters Certificate and three have Life Certificates.

Forty-five flower shows were held in the state in 1962 creating keen exhibitor and general public interest.

Nebraska received 8 national awards for 1962 at the 34th annual meeting of National Council held in Atlanta including the Hesse Morrah horticultural achievement award for juniors between ages 6 and 9.

President Mrs. Cole announced the Flower Show held in conjunction with the King Korn Carnival Sept. 19-21 would be located, as last year, at the Consumers' office. Mrs. Clarence Akeson is chairman of the Flower Show, with committee members Mesdames R. B. Keller, Fay Jose, Sam Gilmour and Raymond Hill.

Chairman read proposed schedules for this year's show which will follow the Carnival theme of "Four Seasons in Korraland" in so far as possible.

Mrs. Akeson appointed her committees as follows: Judges, Mrs. L. W. Egenberger and Mrs. Fred Lugsch; Registration, Mrs. W. L. Heinrich, Mrs. Frank Lindner, Mrs. Raymond Hill and Miss Clara Weyrich; Plants, Mesdames R. B. Keller, Lee Eastridge, Paul Windborne, W. L. Hansell, Leonard Born, Joe Zastera and Sam Gilmour.

A plant sale will be held in connection with the Show. Miss Helen Hunter is in charge of hostesses.

Announcement was made of the 29th annual convention of Federated Garden Clubs of Nebraska at Fremont Sept. 30 and Oct. 1, with District 2 as hostess.

Hostesses served refreshments. There will be no regular Garden Club meeting in September.

The Flower Show at the King Korn Carnival will occupy this date.

They drove about the Nebraska Masonic Home, Plattsmouth, enjoyed dinner at the Shrine Temple in Omaha after visiting SAC, viewed the Mother Bethel of World No. 1, all original furniture in the temple.

There were 729 girls registering from America, Hawaii, Guam, and Philippine Islands.

The Supreme Session will meet in Denver next year.

She is the granddaughter of Ray Teague, Bellevue; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Moss, Omaha and Mr. and Mrs. August Siemoneit of Plattsmouth.

The photo, taken when Teresa was 5½ months old, shows her wearing large rimmed spectacles and is captioned "I see much better now, with my new glasses." The parents sent the photo to the Magazine several months ago and had almost forgotten about it.
