Rhylander Elected by Boosters

Warren Rhylander Thursday night was elected president of the Plattsmouth High Athletic Boosters Club at its organizational meeting at the school auditorium.

Other officers named were: vice president, Charles Christensen; secretary, Mrs. Peter Nettelmann; and treasurer, Jim Greig.

Named to the Executive Committee to serve along with the officers and coaches Lowell Johnson, Cecil McKelicht, Bob Humphrey and Norris Hale were Bob Hinz, Gene Gruber, Leo Osterholm and Bob Gall.

Various projects were discussed, such as filming football games and improvements at the football field.

Next meeting will be Thursday, Sept. 5, in the auditorium. Movies of the Towel Game last Friday will be shown.

Club membership is open to men and women who are interested in promoting Plattsmouth High athletics.

412 Enrolled At Louisville

LOUISVILLE (Special) — Louisville Schools opened Aug. 26 with total enrollment of 412, an increase of 26, 14 in high school and 12 in grade school.

High School and Grade School sessions are from 8:30 a.m. to 3:50 p.m. with an hour for lunch, 12 to 1.

Three school buses are running this year. Ralph Weite will pick up students east of Louisville. Henry Yost will pick up students west of Louisville and Jesse Phillips will pick up students south of Louisville to Manley.

Several improvements have been made this summer in both grade and high school. A steel hand rail was installed in the center of the cement steps on the outside of the grade-school building.

Fire alarm systems were installed in both the buildings and have been inspected and approved by the State. New wooden guard railings have been built on the west end of the High School parking lot.

The enrollment: kindergarten, 33; first, 31; second, 27; third, 32; fourth, 36; fifth, 33; sixth, 23; seventh, 30; eighth, 28; freshmen, 35; sophomores, 34; juniors, 37 and seniors, 33.

$13,200 Dividends For FLBA Members

Dividend payments totaling $13,200 will go to members of the Federal Land Bank Associations of Weeping Water and Lincoln, Manager J. D. Berkeley announced today.

Berkeley said the dividend checks will go into the mail this week to the associations' 560 farmer stockholders.

The two associations are among 99 farmer and rancher-owned associations in Nebraska, Iowa, South Dakota and Wyoming which own the Federal Land Bank of Omaha.

The associations make long-term farm real estate mortgage loans in Otoe, Cass, Lancaster and part of Saline counties.

The directors of the Weeping Water association include President Clifford C. Cooper, Weeping Water; Vice President Walter C. Reimer, Syracuse; Calvin F. Carsten, Avoca; Ivan Alt-house, Waverly; and Howard F. Baltenapferger, Nebraska City.

Doctor Is in New Office Building Here

Dr. Richard F. Brendel has moved into his new office building on Washington Avenue and an open house was planned for Sunday. The building is a 50x26-foot structure of ornamental concrete blocks. There is off-street parking. It was built to offer the maximum convenience.

In addition to the reception room and receptionist's office, there are a private office, two examining rooms, an emergency room, x-ray room and dark room in addition to comfort facilities.

Mrs. Naomi Daniels will continue as receptionist and Mrs. Brendel, who is a registered nurse, will assist the Doctor.

At the open house, Plattsmouth High School classmates of Dr. Brendel and wives of classmates were scheduled to pour for the occasion.

Cass 4-H's Compete

By CLARENCE SCHMADEKE
County Extension Agent

In addition to the many individual exhibits entered in State 4-H competition, several 4-H's are competing in contests.

Livestock exhibits from Cass include 18 Dairy cattle, 11 horses, 2 sheep, 5 hogs and 22 beef animals.

Judging teams are competing in clothing, foods, homemaking, dairy, livestock and crops.

Six 4-H demonstrations will be presented by Cass County 4-H's. Two song groups are entered, 3 individuals in Music Identification, 3 girls in the style revue and one in the Tractor Driving Contest.

COMPLETES STAY
Robert Mazon, IFYE from Israel, left Cass County for his next stay in Otoe County, near Nebraska City. Mr. Mazon lived in the Glenn Kraeger home the past two weeks and attended his first County Fair August 14-17 at Weeping Water.

Mazon was impressed by the acquaintances he made in Cass County and said when parting from the Kraeger home, "I like Nebraska very much."

BLUAWARD
The Cass County entry in the District Share-the-Fun contest earned a blue award. Competition was very keen. The two winning skills were from Lancaster and Saline Counties.

The contest was held at Tecumseh August 26, as a platform program at the Johnson County Fair.

The Busy Homemakers Club is from the Myriad area. Mrs. Henry Vinduska of Plattsmouth is the leader of the club.

SPECIAL NOTE: In a recent issue of The Journal Gene Englekemier was listed as winner of the County 4-H Tractor Driving Contest. This was in error and should have read Wilbert Englekemier.

Fair 'High Peak' for State's 4-H's

LINCOLN—The 94th Nebraska State Fair in Lincoln, Aug. 31-Sept. 6, marks the high peak of achievement for the nearly 5,000 4-H Club members who will exhibit projects and compete in 4-H contests this year.

Blue and purple ribbon winners of county fairs and the 4-H field days will compete at the state level for ribbons, cash awards, educational trips and special prizes, according to Wesley M. Antes, State 4-H Club leader at the University of Nebraska.

Approximately 2,600 4-H's, representing the more than 33,000 members in the State, will personally show exhibits and compete in various contests. Other county winners will send in their entries.

Exhibits and demonstrations will include 22 major 4-H project areas. The largest number of exhibits will be in clothing, food preparation and preservation, beef and dairy cattle, sheep, horses, swine, home living and agricultural engineering. Other exhibits and contests will include field crops, tractor operation, baby sitting, music, posters, poultry, rabbits, electricity, forestry, entomology, horticulture, safety, publicity, garden and photography.

Highlights of the fair include the free Grandstand Show, compliments of the fair board, August 31 at 7:30 p.m.; Golds Banquet, 6:30 p.m., September 2; "Share-the-Fun" Contest, 7:30 p.m., September 3; and 4-H Dress Revue, 2:30 p.m. on September 4.

More than 160 4-H girls will take part in the Dress Revue and 120 4-H members will participate in the Share-the-Fun Contest.

Pool's Closed

Due to a misunderstanding, the wading pool at Garfield Park was drained prematurely and it is now closed for the season, Park Board Chairman Lloyd Fitch said Friday.

He had announced earlier that the closing would be after Labor Day.
