Reception Held for Queen Candidates

The King Korn Klub Queen Candidates Reception was held Sept. 7 at the Lions Building. Following the theme of this year's "Korn Carnival," "The Four Seasons of Kormland," the four tables at which the guests were seated, were elaborately decorated, signifying the many facets of each season.

Mr. Albert Hansen served as Master of Ceremonies. Those present included reigning King John and Queen Carolyn; the Queen Candidates, their parents and sponsors; judges and board of directors of the King Korn Klub.

After a brief game of "Musical Chair" where each candidate was rotated from table to table, to purposely come into contact with the unknown judges, a coffee was served from a beautifully decorated reception table. Each Queen Candidate received a model princess doll in its own plastic see-thru carrying case as a memento of the occasion.

After the reception the Candidates met with the Plattsmouth Mrs. Jaycee Coronation Committee to discuss wearing apparel for the night of the Coronation.

Mrs. Russell Schalk, president of the American Legion Auxiliary was in charge of the reception with the following assisting: Mrs. M. M. Muncie as Greeter, Mrs. Helen Wolcott at the punch bowl, Mrs. John Schutz serving coffee; in the kitchen was Mrs. Oliver Shiber, Mrs. Glen McClure, and Mrs. Guy Griffin, and Mrs. Carl Zimmerman was in charge of decorations.

Fairview Women Plan Hobby Show
