'QUEEN FOR A DAY' CANDIDATES—Women shown above with Queen for a Day Emcee Jack Bailey, from left, are: Mrs. Belle Hunt, Holbrook; Mrs. Wilma Vincent, Omaha; Mrs. Coleman

Mrs. O'Bryan Was Candidate for
'Queen for Day'

Because of her earnest wish for an electric wheelchair for her 15-year-old daughter, Sandra, who had polio, Mrs. Ellen O'Bryan of Plattsmouth was chosen as one of the four candidates selected from the studio audience at the Civic Auditorium in Omaha to appear on the Queen for a Day Show Thursday. During her interview, Mrs. O'Bryan told Emcee Jack Bailey that Sandra was a happy teenager who loved to go to dances. She had had an electric wheelchair which had rusted away from the salt air when the family were in Guam with her husband, Coleman, who is a chief master sergeant in the Air Force. He is now stationed at Offutt Air Force Base. Besides Sandra, the O'Bryans have two sons, Michael and Ray. Although not elected Queen, Mrs. O'Bryan and each of the ladies on the show were awarded a frypan, a steam iron, a shampooer and sweeper, a clock and a serving cart. The Queen, elected by audience applause, was Mrs. Donna Larsen of Omaha, who wished for a clothes dryer, two snow tires and a duo-bed for her 8-year-old son. Queen for a Day was telecast from Omaha Civic Auditorium every day last week over the ABC-TV network.

Fairview Club at Meisinger Home

The Plattsmouth Fairview Woman's Club met Oct. 10 at the home of Mrs. Eugene Meisinger with 17 members present and two visitors, Mrs. Robert Kiser and Mrs. Charles Thomason. The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was given. Mrs. Oliver Meisinger led the group in singing. Mrs. E. B. Thomason favored the group with a reading entitled "When You Get On". A letter was read from Mrs. Kay Leiding congratulating the club on the work they were doing and expressing her appreciation and thanks for the club's cooperation with her work as County Extension leader. Boxes and plates of homemade cookies and candies were prepared to give to neighboring Rest Homes and "shut ins" in the community. A lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. Meisinger, and assistant hostesses, Mrs. E. B. Thomason and Mrs. Harlan Hennings.

We to ma chi

We to ma chi Camp Fire group held a brief meeting at Debbie Steward's home and then had a surprise birthday party for Debbie. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. This Wednesday, the regular meeting was held at the home of the leader, Mrs. Hansen. The girls selected Indian symbols to represent their names for the backs of their vests. Saturday, the girls will go to Indian Hills Theater to see How the West Was Won. — Kathy Taylor, scribe.

"Queen For A Day"

Mrs. Jettis Warner, Omaha, niece of Kenneth Dunlap, Plattsmouth, was "Queen For A Day" Friday at the TV Show in Omaha, of which Jack Bailey is master of ceremonies. Mrs. Warner lived in Plattsmouth for about a year, five years ago, and will be remembered here by many. Among the many gifts she received was a Pontiac automobile, a dish washer, according to her uncle here.
