

THE PLATTSMOUTH JOURNAL

Consolidated With the Nehawka Enterprise and Elmwood Leader-Echo—Read Twice Weekly by More Than 3500 Cass County Families

NEBR. STATE HIST. SOCIETY
1500 E. ST.
LINCOLN, NEBR.

NEBRASKA STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY
Lincoln, Nebraska
OCT 29 1963

VOLUME 82 EIGHT PAGES PLATTSMOUTH, CASS COUNTY, NEBRASKA MONDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1963 TEN CENTS PER COPY NUMBER 101

CPPD OKs Murray-Union Power Line

COLUMBUS—Consumers Public Power District Board of Directors met Friday and approved work orders including: Plattsmouth District — Construct 7 miles of high voltage transmission line between Murray and Union at a cost of $49,916. This will clear the right-of-way for highway construction and better the service to Union, Murray and Nehawka, Consumers said.

'Nation Building' World Community Theme Friday

The theme for the World Community Day is Nation Building, a Channel to Peace. The service will be held Friday, Nov. 1, at 2 p.m. at Murray Presbyterian Church. Special speaker at the service will be Norman Rohlfing who spent three years in Ghana as Missionary with the United Church of Christ.

Rites Today for Fred Buechler, Killed in Fall

Services were held today (Monday) at 2 p.m. for Fred Buechler, 73, who was killed as a result of a fall in a corn crib at his son's farm west of Plattsmouth Thursday afternoon. He was born Dec. 23, 1889, in Plattsmouth, son of Jacob and Bertha Buechler. He was married Jan. 10, 1917, to Louise Margaret Kehne in the Christ Lutheran Church.

Life-long residents of this community, they farmed near Plattsmouth until 1950 when they moved to town. Mr. Buechler was a member of St. Paul's United Church of Christ. He was a board member of School District 37 for 25 years. Surviving are his wife; two sons, Arnold and Elmer, both of Plattsmouth; three daughters, Mary Ellen McKinstry of Weeping Water, Frances Ross of Los Angeles and Edna Mae of Plattsmouth; a brother, Harold, Plattsmouth; a sister, Emma Terryberry, Imperial, and 13 grandchildren. Preceding him in death were his parents and two brothers. Services were held at Sattler-Fusselman-Perry Funeral Home with the Rev. Russell F. Mertz of St. Paul's officiating.

Halloween Party for Kids Of Community Set Thursday

All children of school age in Plattsmouth and the surrounding community are invited to participate in a Halloween Party the evening of Oct. 31, sponsored by VFW Leper-Wolver Post 2543 and Modern Woodmen of America. The invitation was extended today by Sophia Wolever, general chairman, who said the event will be geared to prove especially attractive to school children. Boys and girls have been asked to sign pledge cards which say "I promise to respect the property of other people and will cooperate with leaders to make this party a success". Pledge cards will serve also as registration in the Witch Wagon game. According to Mrs. Sophia Wolever, the party will start at 7 p.m. and will be held at VFW Post Home, where costumes will be judged and souvenirs distributed. The chairman also said that a

Carl Thacker of Washington To Address Eagles

Carl Thacker, Yakima, Wash., Jr. Past Grand Worthy President of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, will address members of Plattsmouth Aerie, Thursday, Oct. 31, it was announced today by Elmer J. Kohout, Worthy President of the Aerie.

Thacker has long been active in Eagle affairs on both the state and national level. He is a past president of Washington State Aerie and served as a state trustee. He is a past president and secretary of his home Aerie at Yakima where he has been a top producer of new members. Two years ago when the Order initiated its first conservation project, a five year program to aid the National Audubon Society in its fight to prevent the extinction of bald and golden eagles, Thacker was appointed national chairman.

Wayne Williams Killed in Auto Crash in Oregon

Wayne Williams, about 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Williams, former Plattsmouth resident, now of Portland, Ore., was fatally injured in an auto accident Sunday night in Portland.

He served in the Marine Corps, receiving his training in San Diego, Calif., and spent a year on Okinawa. He was home on a 30-day leave pending his next assignment. His grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Williams, live in Plattsmouth. The body will be brought to Plattsmouth for burial.

Athletic Field Rest Room again Suffers Damage

For the second time this fall, rest room facilities at the Plattsmouth High School Football Field were damaged by vandals. Friday night, unidentified girls ripped the lavatory from its brackets and broke the water pipes during the game between Plattsmouth and Nebraska City. Earlier, both the men's and women's facilities were broken into and extensive damage done. The rest room building and equipment were made possible last year with donations from local people and volunteer labor. It had long been a needed facility on the grounds. The project was spearheaded by the local Eagles Lodge and Plattsmouth Fire Department.

Mrs. Maher, 42, Denver, Dies; Rites To Be Here

Mrs. W. M. (Hazel) Maher, 42, of Denver, Colo., died Thursday. She had been ill since August. Mrs. Maher was born Dec. 19, 1920 at Rock Bluffs, daughter of W. E. and Effie Fullerton Payton. She was married Dec. 31, 1949, in Sioux City, Iowa, to W. M. Maher. Her husband survives along with sons, Raymond V. Banks in the US Navy in Cuba and Ronald E. Banks, US Marines in the states; brothers, Ralph and Harold Payton, Plattsmouth; and Charles Payton, Kansas City, Mo.; sister, Mrs. Mildred Gerdes, Louisville. The family lived at Tucson, Ariz., Moab, Utah and moved to Denver in April, 1963. Funeral services will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. at Caldwell Chapel, Plattsmouth, with Rev. Calvin Miller officiating. Visiting hours will be today (Monday) 4 to 6 and 7 to 9 p.m. Burial will be in Oak Hill Cemetery, Plattsmouth.

'Halloween Howl' Set For Thursday

It was announced today that plans are being completed by the Plattsmouth Jaycees for the annual Halloween Howl for high school boys and girls Thursday at 8:30 p.m. at the High School Auditorium.

Music will be furnished by The Falcons, a twist band that has appeared at the Peppermint Cave in Omaha. Free refreshments will be served and there will be dance contests with record albums as prizes. Other free records will also be given during the evening. Keener Price and Bob Sedlak Jr. are co-chairmen for the Howl. They said today, "Everyone is urged to attend as the Jaycees want the kids to have lots of fun!" The affair this year will be chaperoned by the Jaycees and Mrs. Jaycees. It is scheduled to end at 11:30 p.m.

Robert Baker, 47, Weeping Water, Killed in Crash

Robert W. Baker, 47, Weeping Water, was killed in an auto accident near Springfield Saturday evening. He was born in Weeping Water, son of Robert O. and Flossie Wollen Baker. His mother preceded him in death in 1962 and his father in March, 1963.

Surviving are his wife, the former Edna McConaughy; seven children, Vickie, Diane, Pat, Kathy, Susan, Larry and Jill, all at home; brother, Warren Baker, Lincoln; sister, Mrs. Vivian Hansen, Weeping Water. He was a carpenter with the Byron Baker Construction Co., Weeping Water; a Navy Veteran of World War Two; member of the Christian Church. Funeral services will be Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Christian Church in Weeping Water with Rev. Lloyd Taylor officiating. Burial will be in Oakwood Cemetery. Hobson-Dorr Funeral Home of Weeping Water is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Mitchell, 60, Dies in California; Funeral at W. W. Mrs. Frank (Florence) Mitchell, 60, former Weeping Water resident, died at her home in Turlock, Calif. Oct. 24. She was born in Nebraska, June 24, 1903, daughter of John and Maude McCartney Sparks. Her husband and parents preceded her in death. Surviving are daughter, Mrs. Neil Chambers, Easton, Calif.; sister, Mrs. Cecilia Easton, Turlock, Calif., three grandchildren. Mrs. Mitchell operated a hotel in Turlock. Funeral services will be Tuesday at 1 p.m. in the Congregational Church, Weeping Water, with Rev. I. C. G. Campbell officiating. Pallbearers will be John Dietl, Norman Beck, Edward Slattery, Francis Pedersen, Arthur Taylor, and William Newham. Burial will be in Oakwood Cemetery, Weeping Water. Hobson-Dorr Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Mitchell, 60, Dies in California; Funeral at W. W.

Mrs. Frank (Florence) Mitchell, 60, former Weeping Water resident, died at her home in Turlock, Calif. Oct. 24. She was born in Nebraska, June 24, 1903, daughter of John and Maude McCartney Sparks. Her husband and parents preceded her in death. Surviving are daughter, Mrs. Neil Chambers, Easton, Calif.; sister, Mrs. Cecilia Easton, Turlock, Calif., three grandchildren. Mrs. Mitchell operated a hotel in Turlock. Funeral services will be Tuesday at 1 p.m. in the Congregational Church, Weeping Water, with Rev. I. C. G. Campbell officiating. Pallbearers will be John Dietl, Norman Beck, Edward Slattery, Francis Pedersen, Arthur Taylor, and William Newham. Burial will be in Oakwood Cemetery, Weeping Water. Hobson-Dorr Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Maher, 42, Denver, Dies; Rites To Be Here

Mrs. W. M. (Hazel) Maher, 42, of Denver, Colo., died Thursday. She had been ill since August. Mrs. Maher was born Dec. 19, 1920 at Rock Bluffs, daughter of W. E. and Effie Fullerton Payton. She was married Dec. 31, 1949, in Sioux City, Iowa, to W. M. Maher. Her husband survives along with sons, Raymond V. Banks in the US Navy in Cuba and Ronald E. Banks, US Marines in the states; brothers, Ralph and Harold Payton, Plattsmouth; and Charles Payton, Kansas City, Mo.; sister, Mrs. Mildred Gerdes, Louisville. The family lived at Tucson, Ariz., Moab, Utah and moved to Denver in April, 1963. Funeral services will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. at Caldwell Chapel, Plattsmouth, with Rev. Calvin Miller officiating. Visiting hours will be today (Monday) 4 to 6 and 7 to 9 p.m. Burial will be in Oak Hill Cemetery, Plattsmouth.

Mrs. Maher, 42, Denver, Dies; Rites To Be Here

Mrs. W. M. (Hazel) Maher, 42, of Denver, Colo., died Thursday. She had been ill since August. Mrs. Maher was born Dec. 19, 1920 at Rock Bluffs, daughter of W. E. and Effie Fullerton Payton. She was married Dec. 31, 1949, in Sioux City, Iowa, to W. M. Maher. Her husband survives along with sons, Raymond V. Banks in the US Navy in Cuba and Ronald E. Banks, US Marines in the states; brothers, Ralph and Harold Payton, Plattsmouth; and Charles Payton, Kansas City, Mo.; sister, Mrs. Mildred Gerdes, Louisville. The family lived at Tucson, Ariz., Moab, Utah and moved to Denver in April, 1963. Funeral services will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. at Caldwell Chapel, Plattsmouth, with Rev. Calvin Miller officiating. Visiting hours will be today (Monday) 4 to 6 and 7 to 9 p.m. Burial will be in Oak Hill Cemetery, Plattsmouth.

Full House Sees 4-H Achievements Cited

EASTER SEALS HELP GLORIA JEAN—Thursday night, the Cass County Committee of the Nebraska Society for Crippled Children presented a "growing wheelchair" to Gloria Jean Biecke, 3, of Plattsmouth, a victim of cerebral palsy. The chair was purchased with funds contributed by Cass Countyans in the annual Easter Seal fund campaign. Costing $175, the chair is adjustable in many ways and can also be adjusted for size as the user grows. It will be for Gloria Jean's use and after she has outgrown it, for the use of someone else in Cass County who needs it. Also shown are Mrs. Rose Hickey, Louisville, left, chairman of the County Committee, and Gloria Jean's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Biecke. The chair is the committee's first equipment purchase in a new program of aid. In the past the committee through the Easter Seal funds has given surgical assistance.

Pritchard Gets Grid 'Star' Honor

Leland Pritchard, Plattsmouth High quarterback, has been added to the Football Roll of Honor of the Omaha World-Herald as a Star of the Week. He was honored for his play in a 43-0 win over Papillion Oct. 18. He received letter of congratulations and an honor roll card from the W-H sports editor. Pritchard is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Pritchard.

Soennichsen's Mark 75th Year in Business

Seventy-five years ago, Melchior Soennichsen purchased the grocery part of the John Bauer Store. Today, his son, Waldemar, and daughter, Mrs. Matilda Pein, carry on the tradition of the family store, Soennichsen's. Melchior's first grocery store was in what is now known as the 40 and 8 Building. Later, he moved to what was then called the Five Corners and what is now known as the Plattsmouth Cleaners property. In 1913, he built the building now occupied by the Gamble Store and entered the General Merchandise business.

Home School PO To Close Veterans Day

St. John's Home School Association held its October meeting Friday evening at St. John School. After the business meeting, Dr. Louis Amato addressed the audience on the subject of proper care of the eyes. Questions from the floor were entertained. Fifty adults were present for the meeting. —SHOP IN PLATTSMOUTH— AND SAVE

PO To Close Veterans Day

The Post Office here will be closed Veterans Day, Nov. 11. The lobby will remain open the regular Sunday hours, 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. There will be no city or rural delivery service. Special delivery and perishable matter will be delivered in the city. A Classified Ad in The Journal cost as little as 30 cents.

APPROVING THEIR OPENING ANNIVERSARY AD in the Journal, Waldemar Soennichsen and Mrs. Matilda Pein prepare for their 75th Anniversary Sale as they consult on the balcony of Soennichsen's Store.

$4,360 in Premiums Given For Exhibits and Contests

By CLARENCE SCHMADEKE, County Extension Agent. It was SRO at the 1963 Cass County 4-H Achievement meeting Thursday evening, Oct. 24. The annual event was held in Weeping Water at the Agricultural Auditorium. One of the big highlights for the 4-Hers is to receive the premium money for exhibits and contests during the year. A total of $4,360 from the County Fair, Kurn Carnival, State Fair and Ak-Sar-Ben was distributed. Medals were awarded to the following members for their achievement as listed below: Mary Hendrix — Achievement, Clothing and Home Economics medals. Ronald Puls — Achievement, Agricultural Achievement, Beef and Market Beef medals. Velda Nickels — Achievement and Home Economics medals. Wilbert Engelkemier — Agricultural Achievement, Field Crops and Tractor medals. Lyle Engelkemier — Agricultural Achievement and Tractor medals. Gene Engelkemier — Agricultural Achievement and Grain marketing medals. Robert Hike — Beef medal. George Pool — Beef medal. Mary Detmer — Bread Demonstration medal. Cheryl Pollard — Canning and Dairy medals. Laura Parson — Clothing and Foods medals. Joyce Dommig — Clothing medal. Carol Schlueter — Clothing and Foods medals. Larry Bond — Dairy medal.

David Kraeger — Field Crops and Boys Record medals. Mary Lindsey — Foods and Home Economics medals. Karen Engelkemier — Foods medal. Elinor Umland — Garden medal. Marilyn Schmadeke — Home Economics and Home Improvement medals. Rheda Boardman — Home Improvement and Leadership medals. Linda Engelkemier — Home Improvement medal. Marilyn Vinduska — Home Improvement, Leadership, Recreation and Outstanding Members Service medals. Gene Wehrbein — Leadership medal. Steve Wehrbein — Leadership Russell Glasshoff — Poultry medal. Kirby McGill — Swine medal. Roger Warden — Light Horse medal. Judging trophies were presented to the Triple-T Dairy Club (team members Deanna Bond, Cheryl Pollard and Margaret Lorenzen), Malcolm Pollard is the club leader; to the Mynard Jolly Feeders Livestock Club (team members, David Kraeger and Delbert and Ronald Puls), Ralph Hill, club leader; to the Busy Homemakers Club (team members, Marilyn Vinduska and Mary Hendrix), Mrs. Henry Vinduska, club leader; to the Busy Bees Club (team members, Mary Detmer and Marilyn Schmadeke), leader, Mrs. Arnold Detmer; and to the Busy Belles Club (team members, Marilyn and Linda Schmadeke), Mrs. Clarence Schmadeke, club leader.

Individuals receiving first place judging medals were: Deanna Bond, Dairy; David Kraeger, Livestock; Marilyn Schmadeke, Home Living; Janice Dommig, Clothing; and Linda Engelkemier, Foods. Mrs. Roy Engelkemier, County Extension Council Chairman, presented the Home Economics trophies and medals. Special recognition was given to State Fair judging teams and individuals as follows: Dairy team, 9th; Livestock team, 6th; Home Living team, 4th; Crops team, 2nd; Mary Hendrix, 10th in Home Living; David Kraeger, 9th in Livestock; Lyle Engelkemier, 5th in Crops; James Engelkemier, 6th in Crops; Wilbert Engelkemier, 7th in Crops, and Gene Engelkemier, 10th in Crops.

Mr. Barnard preceded her in death in 1933. Survivors are sons Francis and Marion, both of Plattsmouth; 19 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren; brother Marion Rouse, Plattsmouth; and three sisters, Mrs. George (Lizzie) Decker of Geneva, Mrs. Alvin (Sadie) Jones of Plattsmouth and Mrs. John (Wylma) Stander of Paxton. Two sons, Warren and Fred, also preceded her in death.

Goldie E. Barnard, 79, Dies Today; Rites Wednesday

Mrs. Goldie Ethel Barnard, 79, died this morning at her home at 1022 Lincoln Ave. after an illness of two years. Funeral services will be Wednesday at 2 p.m. at Sattler-Fusselman-Perry Funeral Home with the Rev. J. W. Taenzler, pastor of First Christian Church, officiating. Visiting hours at the funeral home will be Tuesday from 3 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m. Burial will be in Oak Hill Cemetery.

Mrs. Barnard was born Oct. 6, 1884, in Taylor County, Iowa, daughter of William Alfred and Arabelle Carrie Dalton Rouse. She was married Feb. 25, 1906, here to John Wesley Barnard. He was employed by the railroad. They lived here most of their married life. Mr. Barnard preceded her in death in 1933. Survivors are sons Francis and Marion, both of Plattsmouth; 19 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren; brother Marion Rouse, Plattsmouth; and three sisters, Mrs. George (Lizzie) Decker of Geneva, Mrs. Alvin (Sadie) Jones of Plattsmouth and Mrs. John (Wylma) Stander of Paxton. Two sons, Warren and Fred, also preceded her in death.

Mr. Barnard preceded her in death in 1933. Survivors are sons Francis and Marion, both of Plattsmouth; 19 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren; brother Marion Rouse, Plattsmouth; and three sisters, Mrs. George (Lizzie) Decker of Geneva, Mrs. Alvin (Sadie) Jones of Plattsmouth and Mrs. John (Wylma) Stander of Paxton. Two sons, Warren and Fred, also preceded her in death.

The trophy won by the Livestock team winners of the contest held at North Platte was presented. The team members were Gene Wehrbein, Delbert and Ronald Puls, David Kraeger and Richard Hill. Farm-City Exchange delegates for 1963 are Margaret Lorenzen and Delbert Puls. Miss Pauline Wilson of the Murray State Bank introduced Jackie Dodson and Wilbert Engelkemier as winners of the Chicago trip awarded by the Murray State Bank.

The Cass SWCD Award, a club week trip in 1964, was awarded to Wilbert Engelkemier. The Weeping Water Chamber of Commerce again were gracious hosts in providing a lunch for the crowd of about 500 persons in attendance and entertained the 4-H parents following the formal meeting.

John Shambure of Herman, IOWA is Peru, presented a vivid story of his experiences in the South American country. John Orr, Associate State Leader of 4-H Club work at the University of Nebraska, made an inspirational presentation and with the Cass County Junior Leader members directed an enjoyable recreation program following the meeting for the 4-H members.

It was a successful meeting and the success is due to all the many folks who participated and assisted with the program. Cass County 4-H champions named for 1963 are as follows: Gene Wehrbein — Achievement (Continued on Page Three)