Jr. Class Play Presented at Weeping Water

WEeping WATER—The Juniors of Weeping Water High School presented a class play entitled "Willie's Weekend," which was well attended. A farce comedy in 3 acts by Pelecia Metcalfe with the action taking place in the reception room of the Bide Awee Nursing Home.

The play was under the direction of Truman Lytle.

In "Willie's Weekend," Mrs. Winkle, played by Marilyn Schmaderke was the typical "son coddler" who feared her wealthy son might have a heart attack in which case his large inheritance would go to a cat hospital. Willie, played by Chuck Miller, has a heart attack but in this case it is concerned with a pretty nurse called Eva, played by Joyce Domingo. Instead of the thrombosis of which his mother is afraid.

It all started when Willie was sent to a convalescent state, to the Bide Awee Nursing Home while his mother redecorated their home.

First he meets Eva and then he is made very much aware of the "bedfuddled" patients who believe themselves to be "Captain Kidd," played by Randall Behemeier, and "Napoleon," played by Don Jewell. And before you can turn around Mrs. Winkle has taken a fancy to Mr. Hodge, another of the patients, "finds great pleasure in giving sums to worthy causes" and Mrs. Winkle feels she could be a very worthy cause.

Willie's "not-too-bright" private nurse, Mulligan, played by Mary Helen Livingston, often finds herself being chased by our friend Captain Kidd as he brandishes his machete, a fall and sprained ankle result.

Mrs. MacDonald, the proprietress of the Nursing Home, played by Mary Detmer, is about to go crazy, too, by the end of the weekend.

Before you can take a deep breath, you are faced with a supposed burglary and a double kidnapping — topped off with a ransom note left by our friend Captain Kidd, an elopement, and many and confusing incidents before the curtains come down on a side-splitting ending.

Other members of the cast are Janie Lou Higgins, Diann Rector, Brenda Burton, Sharon Betts, Shirley Linton, Carol Schlueter, Mrs. Letitia Wood, Judy Lee, Dave, Eldon Doktor, Joe, Duane Thoms; Orderlies, Steve Klemme and Jim Boardman; Extra, Geraldine Taylor, Harry Spangler, Tom Wipf and Joe Slattery.

The prelude was given by Margaret Lorenzen. Entertainment between acts was presented by Patti Patterson, Karen Cappen, Diann Rector, and Dorothy Parson.

Other personnel were the stage hands: Sound effects, Margaret Lorenzen; prompters, Marilyn Massoth and Sandra Cottingham; lights, Karen Cappen; stage manager, Dorothy Parson; curtains, Harold Fleck; properties, Patti Patterson; ushers, Loretta Harter, Charlotte Huffman and Beverly Finley.

Farm-City Week Set Nov. 22-28

OMAHA — Civic organizations and farmers throughout the state will try to cement a closer relationship between rural and urban people during national Farm-City Week, Nov. 22 to 28.

Merle Betts, public relations and research director for the Farm Credit Banks of Omaha, has been named chairman of the Nebraska Farm-City Week committee, which also includes representatives of farm organizations, agribusiness, press, and radio, vocational agriculture, chambers of commerce, and the University of Nebraska.

Local activities to develop better farm-city understanding are being organized in many Nebraska communities, Betts said. The Nebraska observance will emphasize the role of farmers and ranchers, the role of city folks, and the dependence of each upon the other.

A Classified Ad in The Journal cost as little as 50 cents.

SWAPS BADGE FOR BIBLE

Mansfield, Ohio—Having completed his studies, Policeman Lee E. Fetter, 35, has turned in his police badge and resigned from the force to become pastor of a rural church.
