Funeral Saturday At 10 a.m. for Wayne Williams

Funeral services will be Saturday at 10 a.m. at High Mass at St. John's Church for Wayne Eugene Williams, 19, Portland, Ore.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Williams, former Plattsmouth residents. The youth was killed in an auto accident Sunday evening. He had just served a year on Okinawa in the Marine Corps, and was home on a 30-day leave with his parents, brothers and sisters.

Wayne was born in Omaha Aug. 23, 1944, son of Harold A. and Rosenda Burman Williams. He attended St. John's School and Plattsmouth High School until the family moved to Omaha, and later to Portland.

Surviving are the parents; sisters, Mrs. Raymond, Jr. (Barbara) Bjorklund, Betty Jo; brothers, Harold, Jr., in the Air Force, stationed in Spokane, Wash., and James; grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Williams, Plattsmouth; grandfather, Ed Burman, Grand Island.

Preceding him in death was a sister, Carole Ann, in July, 1958. Officiating at the services will be the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph Przdziak.

Rosary recitation will be Friday at 8 p.m. at Caldwell Funeral Home.

Burial will be in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Plattsmouth.

'A' Band In Contest Saturday

Plattsmouth High School's 66-piece marching band will leave for Lincoln, Saturday, Nov. 2, at 2 p.m. by Greyhound Bus. They will enter the State Marching Band Contest to be held in Pershing Auditorium.

There will be 17 Class "C" and "D" Bands and 20 Class "A" and "B" bands in competition.

Judging will be on 9 required movements; their playing, marching fundamentals, special routines and general effect.

The bands will be inspected before marching and graded on their neatness, cleanliness and posture.

The judges will be Al Wright, Purdue University; Pete Long, Ponca City, Okla.; and Hugh McMillen from the University of Colorado.

This is the third competitive venture for the group this year, and the tenth out-of-town appearance this marching season.

The band recently competed in the Harvest of Harmony Festival at Grand Island, where they were awarded a Division I rating and a trophy.

First Frost

Plattsmouth and this area had its first frost of the season Monday night when the temperature dipped to about 30 degrees.

It was one of the later first frosts in recent years.

The cooler weather this week brought an increase in the population of geese at the Game Commission's Waterfowl Management Area on the river bottom here. By Tuesday afternoon, about 5,000 geese were stopping over. Area Manager Harold Edwards estimated.

'Halloween Howl' Tonite For All Teens

The Jaycees' annual Halloween Howl, tonight at 8:30 at the High School Auditorium is lined up and ready to go, according to the Jaycees' Chairman Keener Price and Bob Sedlak.

The committee announced today that there had been one change in the Howl and that was to include all teenagers instead of just High School students. So an open invitation has been extended by the Jaycees to all teenagers in the Plattsmouth Area.

Music is to be furnished by the "Falcons" and there will be free refreshments for the Teenagers.

The Jaycees and Mrs. Jaycees will be out in full force to chaperone the dance, according to a Jaycee spokesman.

As in the past, assistance in sponsoring the Howl has been donated by local business places: Gene's Bootery, Linder Firestone, Ray's Liquor Store, Gambles, Plattsmouth State Bank, Soenichsen's, Ernie's, Corner Bar, Style Shop, Knorr's, Smith Men's Wear, Feldhausen Drug, Schreiner Drug, Price's Bar, Scanlan's, Winter's Inn, Bryant Motors, Cass Drug, Rubin Auto Co., Ray Story, Mullenex Auto Supply, Ruse Appliance, John Bergmann, Cass Co. Motors, Ofe Oil Co., Charles Wurga, Plattsmouth Cleaners, A & W Drive-In, Wyszal Auto Co. and Ruback's Super Market.

Dave Kraeger, Gene Wehrbein Delegates to 4-H Congress

LINCOLN—Thirty-one Nebraska 4-H Club members have been named delegates to the National 4-H Club Congress at Chicago, Ill., Dec. 1-Dec. 5, W. M. Antes, state leader of 4-H and Young Men and Women at the University of Nebraska, announced here today.

They include Dave Kraeger of Plattsmouth and Gene Wehrbein of Louisville.

The club members were selected for outstanding accomplishments in various projects and will receive expense paid trips to the Congress. Antes said the 4-H beef work that is helping Gene Wehrbein through college also is providing him with a trip to the 1963 National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago.

Gene, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Wehrbein of Louisville, won the trip with his national beef project.

He is a freshman at the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture and Home Economics.

A member of Triple B, Trouble Shooters, Five C's, and Junior Leaders 4-H Clubs, Gene has been in 4-H for seven years.

In that time he has completed projects in the areas of baby beef, tractor, commercial beef, soil conservation, crops, junior leadership, rope, woodworking, electricity, dairy, and automotive.

Trick-or-Treat For UNICEF

The Plattsmouth FHA will be trick-or-treating throughout the town for UNICEF tonight from 6:30 to 7:30.

The Future Homemakers say this is what UNICEF contributions will do:

- A UNICEF penny will buy BCG vaccine to protect a child from tuberculosis.
- A UNICEF nickel will give a child 25 large cups of milk.
- A UNICEF dime will buy penicillin to cure four children of yaws.
- A UNICEF quarter will buy antibiotics to cure two children of trachoma.

Through UNICEF, 25 cents will buy a three-months supply of vitamins for two mothers or children.

Through UNICEF, a half-dollar will buy DDT to protect seven children from malaria for one year.

"Only by your help will we fight the real evil spirits which plague millions of children—hunger, disease, poverty and ignorance," those in charge of the fund raising say.

Twelve Scouts received advancements—three to Tenderfoot, two to 2nd Class and seven to 1st Class.

Troop 461 of Mynard Has Court of Honor

Boy Scout Troop 461 of Mynard had a Court of Honor Saturday night around a campfire in Mynard Community Park before an audience of parents and friends.

The Indian theme ceremony was used.

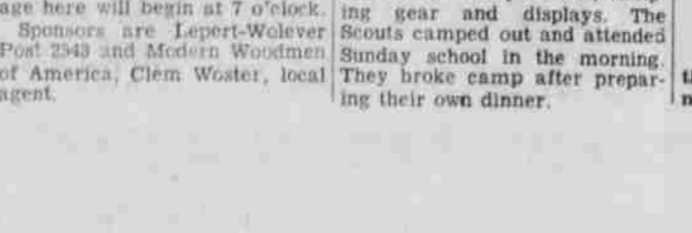

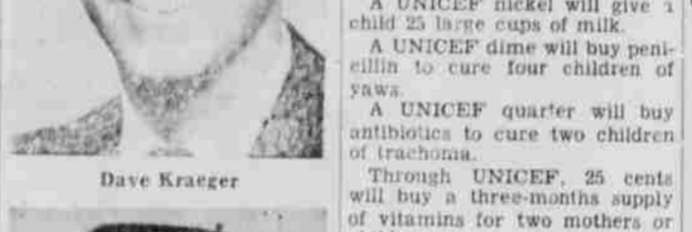

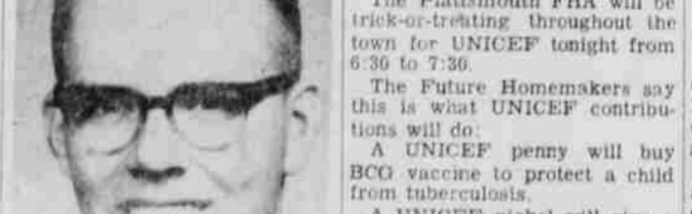

Twelve Scouts received advancements—three to Tenderfoot, two to 2nd Class and seven to 1st Class.

Afterward the audience inspected the troop's tents, camping gear and displays. The Scouts camped out and attended Sunday school in the morning. They broke camp after preparing their own dinner.
