Mr. and Mrs. Keith Himmelein

Thun-Himmelein Rites In St. John's Church Oct. 12

Miss Bette Thun of Plattsmouth and Mr. Keith Himmelein of Saginaw, Mich., were married Oct. 12 in Saint John the Baptist Church here.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. George Thun and the late Mr. Thun. Mr. Himmelein is the son of Mrs. Ariene Ticar of Saginaw.

The Rev. Marclan O'Meara, OSB, uncle of the bride, officiated at the eleven in the morning double-ring wedding ceremony in the presence of 200 guests. Also in the sanctuary were Msgr. Joseph Pruzdzik, Rev. Michael Pleskac and Rev. Raphael Walsh, OSB.

Altar baskets held yellow gladioli, bronze and gold chrysanthemums.

Music was by the St. John's Choir with soloist, Mrs. John Bergmann and organists, Christine Uber and Mary Joan Smith.

Given in marriage by her grandfather, Clarence O'Meara of Sioux City, Iowa, the bride chose a floor length gown of peau-de-sole and alencon lace. The fitted bodice featured a bateau neckline, long pointed sleeves. Accenting the wedding bell shaped skirt was the front skirt panel of lace motifs; the back of the gown featured a sweep, panel train. Her fingertip veil of Chantilly lace fell from a pearl studded tiara crown. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses, ivy and stephanotis.

Mrs. Dale Huegerich of Carroll, Iowa was matron of honor. Carolyn Vinduska of Plattsmouth, Kathy McManamy, Council Bluffs, were bridesmaids, and the bride's sister, Marcia Thun, was junior bridesmaid.

The attendants wore alike frocks of shades of green, styled with a basque bodice, very short unmounted sleeves, shallow bateau neckline, slightly scooped back with wrapped lined belted skirt with self-cord piping at the waistline. Their matching satin rose headpiece held wisp veils, and each carried an arrangement of bronze and brown chrysanthemums.

Flowergirl was Lisa Ticar, sister of the bridegroom, dressed identical to the bride's attendants. She carried the blue and white carnation bouquet which was later placed at the altar of the Blessed Virgin Mother, by the bride.

Ringbearer was Matt Ticar, brother of the bridegroom.

Robert Vesey of Van Nuys, Calif., was best man; groomsmen were Kenneth and Robert Himmelein, both of Saginaw, brothers of the bridegroom.

Ushers were Tom Luplow, Saginaw; and Bob Dembinski, South Bend, Ind.

The bride's mother chose a cranberry velvet sheath with black accessories for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a green lace sheath with brown accessories. Corsages for the mothers were gardenias.

After the wedding, a reception was held in St. John's School Auditorium, and in the evening a wedding dance.

At the reception, Jane Reynolds, Carroll, Iowa and Eileen Wiedern, Mt. Carmel, Iowa cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Madeline Zokos, sister of the bridegroom, Grand Rapids, Mich., poured coffee; and Mrs. Mary Ellen Guette, aunt of the bridegroom, of Carrollton, Texas poured punch.

Seated at the guest book was Donna Faye Stoolman of Litterdale, Iowa, and tending the gifts were Lynn Barry, Sioux City, Iowa; Pauline Mahoney, O'Neill and Monica Cmoctek, cousin of the bride, Odeboit, Iowa.

For her wedding trip to South Dakota, the bride wore a plaid wool suit with brown accessories. Her corsage was golden bronze chrysanthemums.

The bride is a graduate of the Plattsmouth Schools, class of 1960; received her RN at St. Catherine's School of Nursing, Omaha, and is employed at St. Catherine's Hospital in Pediatrics.

Mr. Hemmelein is a 1958 graduate of St. Ambrose Schools, Saginaw; has just completed four years in the Air Force, and is now enrolled in Nebraska School of Barbering.

The couple is living at 3014 Myrtle, Omaha.

Gleaners' Friendship Packets Readied

Gleaners Circle of the First Methodist Church met in the Memorial Room Oct. 17 at 8 p.m. with 17 members and three guests present.

Mrs. Wm. Highfield gave the devotion, and Mrs. Paul Kell presented the lesson.

Mrs. Donald Grove read a poem about Prayer, and told about Quiet Day. The WSCS Rummage Sale was discussed. Plans were made regarding the Roast Beef Dinner and bazaar to be held Nov. 14.

The meeting closed with a prayer circle led by Mrs. Willard Scott.

In lieu of entertainment, the Friendship Packets for World Community Day were put together.

Refreshments were served by hostesses Mrs. Lowell McQuin, Mrs. Charlie Christensen, and Mrs. Vernon Waterman.
