Pfeifer-Faris Wedding In St. John's Church Here

St. John's Catholic Church in Plattsmouth was the scene of the marriage of Miss Constance Joan Pfeifer to Mr. Bill J. Faris Oct. 26. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Pfeifer of Plattsmouth. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Faris of Murray.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph Prudzik officiated at the double-ring ceremony and Nuptial Mass in front of the altar, which was decorated with large floral arrangements of deep gold-pom-poms and chrysanthemums.

The bride's father gave his daughter in marriage. She chose a floor-length gown of white peau de soie and had clipped chantilly lace. The bodice of the gown featured long, pointed sleeves and a scalloped sabrina neckline, defined by a sprinkling of seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The full, flowing skirt of silk mist which drifted into a brush train, was edged with imported lace and a redingote of the taffeta repeated the lace trim. Her fingertip veil of illusion net had a crown of seed pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade bouquet of red and white roses and a mother-of-pearl rosary, a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Carmen Pfeifer, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Terri Pfeifer, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. Carol Ann Faris, sister of the bridegroom, and Virginia Martin were also bridesmaids. They wore identical street length dresses of sapphire blue embossed satin. The semi-full skirts were topped with a fitted bodice with a rounded neck and three-quarter length sleeves, with matching slippers. For a headpiece they wore crystal tiaras and matching necklaces, a gift of the bride. They carried a cascade of deep gold chrysanthemums and pom-poms.

Blaine Wilson of California, cousin of the bride, was best man. Donald McKulsky and Jerry Heim, were groomsmen. Gene Pfeifer, cousin of the bride, and Ronald Tison were ushers.

Ginger Pfeifer, youngest sister of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a white crystalite dress trimmed in lace and a crystal tiara. Rodney Faris, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer. Timmy Pfeifer, only brother of the bride, and Kevin Case, were acolytes.

Albert Wetenkamp was soloist; Sister Mary Lewis, OSU, was organist. While Mr. Wetenkamp sang "On This Day" the bride placed a bouquet at the foot of the altar of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

For her daughter's wedding, the bride's mother chose a dress of magenta wool with black accessories. A gold orchid corsage completed her ensemble.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a medium blue dress of rayon with a matching hat and a gold orchid corsage.

The maternal grandmother of the bride wore a navy blue dress and a corsage of gold pom-poms; the paternal grandmother wore a blue dress and a corsage of gold pom-poms.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in St. John's Auditorium where 150 guests were served.

The wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. Duane Purcell, aunt of the bride; Mrs. Tom Winscot, sister of the bride, poured along with Mrs. Frank Pfeifer, godmother of the bride.

Mrs. Larry Henry was at the guest book. Kathy Wilson, cousin of the bride, Karen Zajic and Diana Whigham tended the gifts. For her going-away costume, the bride chose a cranberry wool dress with matching accessories, and a corsage of white chrysanthemums. After a trip to the Ozarks, the couple is living at 616 Avenue F, Plattsmouth.

Halloween Howl Termed 'Success'

The Jaycees Halloween Howl, Halloween night at the High School Auditorium, was termed a "success" today by a Junior Chamber spokesman.

He said between 400 and 500 youngsters attended the dance which started at 8:30 and lasted until 11:30.

Music was by The Falcons, a twist band from Omaha, led by Dale Thornton, former Plattsmouth youth whose family still lives here.

The Jaycees and Mrs. Jaycees chaperoned the dance and served free some 13 cases of 16-ounce bottles of soft drinks.

Dance contests were held with record albums and the Top Ten Records of the Week given a prizes.

Bob Sedlak and Keener Price were co-chairmen of the event. They noted today this was the fifth year for the "Howl" and said the Jaycees are looking forward to next year to bring the same event to the teenagers of the community.

Extensionists Challenged to Recognize Need for Change

LINCOLN — University of Nebraska Agricultural Extension Service personnel were given a challenge, Nov. 6 at their state meeting here at the Nebraska Center.

E. W. Janike, director of the Service, asked them not to let the traditions of nearly 50 years of successful service in continuing education be a millstone around their necks in meeting the challenge of necessary change.

Pointing out that the farm and ranch population has changed from a majority to a minority, and continues to grow smaller, Janike said:

"How well we serve the continuing education needs of the
