Museum To Close Friday at 5 for Winter Months

The Cass County Historical Society regrets to announce that the Museum will close Saturday, Nov. 23, at 5 p.m. for the winter months.

Society President, Mrs. Virgil Perry said today.

More than 6,000 guests have registered in the 26 months the museum has been open, she said.

Tuesday, Mrs. Zorian brought her 18 Cedar Creek School pupils to the Museum for a tour and to do research on early history in the county.

Today, Mrs. Hale was to bring her first grade class for a Museum visit.

The Society's Junior Membership Drive is underway and Mrs. Perry again urged parents to permit their children to join. Junior activities are interesting and educational, she said.

All junior membership dues should be in the school teachers' hands by Friday, Nov. 22, she said.

2 Boys, 9, Hurt as Bike, Car Collide

Two nine-year-old boys were injured in a collision of the bike on which they were riding and a car Tuesday afternoon at Lincoln Avenue and 6th Street.

Harold Barnard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barnard, suffered a head injury and a broken leg.

Larry Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Taylor, sustained bruises and abrasions.

Driver of the vehicle involved, a Volkswagen bus, was Mrs. Carole Ramey, Hurst Trailer Court, Police Chief Donald Smith reported. He said the boys evidently rode into the car's path.

Harold was taken to an Omaha hospital. Larry was treated locally by a physician.

Shots Fired in Pursuit Here Early Today

Two shots were fired here early this morning during the chase of a man by a Plattsmouth police officer.

Patrolman William Waschin fired one shot in return after the man had fired. Police Chief Donald Smith said.

Smith said Waschin and Patrolman Jim Larsen were patrolling in the police cruiser through the alley behind Gambles Store about 1:45 a.m. when they saw a man dart between the lumber yard and the cafe building.

Waschin pursued on foot and the shots followed, Smith said.

The patrolman searched the lumber yard and surrounding area but found no one, he said.

$41,100 Award In Damage Suit In District Ct.

A District Court jury Wednesday returned a verdict awarding the widow of a Nebraska Highway Patrolman $40,000 and $1,100 for funeral expenses after deliberating about seven and one-half hours.

The award was in the case: Josephine A. Koerber, Administratrix of the Estate of Raymond M. Koerber, deceased, vs. John Zalopek and the State of Nebraska.

Mrs. Koerber of Nebraska City sought $175,000 for the death of her husband, Raymond, then 36, Sept. 18, 1961.

The patrolman was killed as he pursued another car which had been reported being recklessly driven. The patrol car and the Zalopeks' car crashed into a truck.

Evidence was heard Monday and Tuesday and the jury retired to consider a verdict Tuesday at 4:50 p.m., deliberating until 10:40 before continuing its deliberation until the next morning, Wednesday, the jury deliberated from 9 to 10:30 a.m. before returning its verdict.

On the jury were L. C. Isaac, Mrs. Ruth Porter, Mrs. Fern R. Clark, Mrs. Robert Hirz, Mrs. Wayne Hutchison, Mrs. William Schmader, Sophia M. Wolover, Mrs. Lucille Hough, Emery Hansen, Theo. C. Carnes, Mrs. Janet Godbey and Mrs. Ruth Baguet.

Only 27 Shopping Days Left

With Christmas only 27 shopping days away the Merchants of Plattsmouth and the Chamber of Commerce have completed plans for the pre-holiday season.

In order to facilitate the shopping for this area, most of the downtown stores will remain open every evening until 9 o'clock starting Friday, Nov. 29.

According to plans announced by Chamber of Commerce Manager R. R. Furse, the Christmas streetlighting will be turned on Thanksgiving night, giving the city a festive air.

Santa and his sleigh will be here on Wednesday, Dec. 11 and the kiddies will be given rides from 2:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Santa Land will be open for the first evening on that date, too. This year it will be located in St. John's Hall in downtown Plattsmouth.

Santa Land will also be open on each of the following nights: Dec. 18, 21 and 23 according to the notice furnished the merchants.

On Dec. 11, in addition to the Santa Sleigh Ride, there will be treats for the kiddies, music by the Plattsmouth High School Band and Miss Merry Christmas will be crowned that evening.

A number of the merchants are contemplating a series of "Jack Pot" Giveaways which will be announced at a later date.

Voters Defeat Weeping Water School Bonds

WEeping WATER — Voters here Tuesday rejected a proposed $80,000 bond issue for an addition to Weeping Water Schools by a 3-1 margin.

The vote was 196 "yes" to 312 "no."

A 55 per cent "yes" vote was needed for the issue to carry.

Joe Hainowski, 73, Dies; Rites Friday in Omaha

Joe Hainowski, 73, died Tuesday night at 7:30 at Veterans Hospital, Omaha. He was sick Sunday and entered the hospital that evening.

Mr. Hainowski was born March 10, 1890.

He worked and made his home the past 25 years with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Doud, Plattsmouth.

A brother, Paul, Omaha, survives.

Funeral services will be at 1:30 p.m. Friday at Huffman Mortuary, Omaha, with burial in that city.

He was a longtime member of the American Legion.

7 Manley Scouts, 3 Adults Hurt in Accident Wednesday

Ten persons, including seven Boy Scouts from the Manley troop, were taken to the hospital Wednesday night after a collision of a station wagon and car about 6:20 p.m. three and one-half miles south of Louisville on Highway 50.

The Sheriff's Office said Mrs. Gerald Snodgrass, 34, Louisville, was taking eight Scouts to Omaha for a swimming class when the station wagon she was driving and a car driven by William C. Heintzelman of Lincoln collided.

Most seriously injured were Mrs. Snodgrass who suffered broken ribs and head lacerations and Johnny Stander, 12, who suffered head and chest injuries. They were both listed as "critical" Wednesday night.

Mrs. Snodgrass and seven Scouts were taken to Methodist Hospital, Omaha.

The other injured Scouts: Edwin Mikkelsen, 15, arm and ear injuries; Raymond Stander, 13, head injuries; Leo Stander Jr., 15, shoulder injury.

Eugene Furry, 12, ankle injury.

Russell Glasshoff Jr., 15, broken leg.

Jerry Bergmann, 12, ankle injury.

Eugene Furry and Jerry Bergmann were treated and released.

Robert Mark Norris, 12, the other Scout, was not injured.

Mr. and Mrs. Heintzelman were taken to Douglas County Hospital. He suffered face and chest injuries and she complained of an abdomen injury. They were in the process of moving to Lincoln from Clatskanie, the Sheriff's Office said.

Mrs. Snodgrass was driving north and the Heintzelmans south on Highway 50 at the time of the collision.
