

Stubbendick-Ross Rites Nov. 15

AVOCA (Special) — Miss Sharon Stubbendick became the bride of Roger Ross, Dunbar, Nov. 15 at a 6:30 candlelight ceremony. Rev. Glenn Shultz read the double ring service.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stubbendick, Avoca, and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Ross, Dunbar.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of peau taffeta. The fitted bodice featured a bateau neckline and bracelet length sleeves. The controlled bell skirt was fashioned with a detachable train with a narrow self-belt fastened with a bow at the back waistline. Highlight of the gown was the exquisite silk rose applique in embroidered scroll pattern overlaid with seed pearls over the sleeves and cascading over the skirt front. A pill box applied with Chantilly lace and seed pearls with a cluster of taffeta and organza roses at the highest point held the three-tier veil. She carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums and pom poms.

Her maid of honor was her sister, Peggy Stubbendick. Bridesmaids were Lynette Kepler, Erlene Anderson and Linda Ross. Flower girls were Connie Wessel and Karen Kay Lelsemeyer. Ringbearer was Scott Wessel.

Best man was LaVerne Wolf and groomsmen were Allan Stubbendick, the bride's brother, and Jerry Jacobsen and Kenneth Koch.

Seating the guests were Wayne Wessel, George Wessel, Ron Nash and John Lorenz.

Mrs. John Albers was organist and soloist was Peggy Stubbendick.

Seated at the guest book was Miss Betty Stubbendick.

The bride is a graduate of the Avoca Schools, has been employed as a stenographer in the State Tax Commissioners office, Lincoln.

The bridegroom is a graduate of the Dunbar Schools, and is now farming near Otoe.

The couple will live in Syracuse when they return home from a wedding trip.

CORRECTION

In regard to a story in Monday's Journal, M-Sgt. LeRoy Davidson has told The Journal that it was erroneous in saying he resigned as VFW Commander "due to other responsibilities;" also that the story erred in that it should have said the appointment of the Cub Scouts institutional representative was by Sgt. Davidson.
