The 4-H Leaders over the County were honored at a banquet on Thursday evening in the EUB Church Parlor. The M. C. was Ed. McHugh. Response to Welcome was Mrs. Clarence Norris, Leader Awards by Miss Virginia Sterner (home extension agent); Recognition of Banks by Clarence Schmadeke; Life in Ireland by Miss Agnes Arthaud (State Home Extension Leader, University of Nebr.).
The affair was sponsored by the banks of the County.
Ladies of the EUB Church served and prepared the banquet.

Word has been received of the death, due to a heart attack, of Henry King, age 46 years, of Westend, California. His wife is the former Maxine Miller, a former Murdock lady.
On Friday night the Murdock grade school students presented the operetta "Cowboy on the Moon". Mrs. Eunice Stock directed it and must be congratulated on the fine performance of all. It was very well attended.
Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Mills spent several days in Hays, Kansas last week visiting old friends. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gustin formerly of Murdock. They report that Mrs. Gustin is improving nicely from her recent illness.

Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Mills were Mr. and Mrs. Dave Mills and Scott, and Mr. and Mrs. Merle Faubel all of Lincoln.
All students attending the University of Nebraska will be able to be home the entire week, due to Thanksgiving and the death of our President.

The Friendly Neighbor Club met at the Herb Bornemeier home on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 20th. Twelve members were present. Dorothy showed movie slides of their recent trip to Texas and Mexico as well as some taken in Iowa.
A light lunch was served by our hostess, next meeting to be a covered dish dinner at the Alvin Neitzel home and will be our Christmas exchange and party.

Sunday evening guests at the Herb Bornemeier home were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Mills, all enjoyed seeing their pictures.

The Good Luck Club met at the Chester Elsemann home on Wednesday, Nov. 20th. There were 14 members and 2 visitors present. Mrs. Stuart Mills gave a demonstration on gift wrapping.

It was voted to help the Four Square Club with a food sale in the near future proceeds to go to the school for retarded children in Cass County. Hostesses were Irene Elsemann and Frances Strelch, they served a light lunch.—Reporter, Lily Harger.
Members brought gifts to be sent to the Veterans Hospital in Lincoln to be distributed among their families at Christmas time.

DUEL WITH CANES
Lexington, Ky. — Patrolman Harry Robinson was called to a private home where he halted a brawl between two men using walking canes.

The two were so angry with each other they couldn't calm down to tell the details of the argument. Both were to appear in court where Henry Gibson, 87, was charged with breach of peace, and John Hill, 94, was charged with malicious striking.

Elmwood Churches
ELMWOOD (Special)—Church notes:
Methodist — The Anthem "A Hymn of Thanksgiving" was sung by the St. Choir. Pastor Hansen's message was "Your Chair at the Thanksgiving Table". Our pastor has now completed his school course and is now a graduate. He had driven to Kansas City and back for the course. They held open house Friday night to which a goodly number responded.
Catholic—Thanksgiving mass was held here Sunday at 9:00 and at Manley, The Altar Society met with Joan John Wednesday and Mrs. Earl Horton gave her current book review "Only 50 Years Ago".
Evangelical United Brethren—Rev. Schroeders sermon Topic was "Thanksgiving Indulgence Praise". Children of the Sunday School were the choir and sang "Come Ye Thankful People Come". The funeral services for Dan Rosenow of Omaha was held on Monday, Nov. 25.
Christian — The sermon was "Give to Others". Mr. Jim Miller sang "How Great Thou Art". It is a Time of Dedication and Decision and Jim Miller sang "Bless This House". Woman's Day is Dec. 8 and will be observed by the Women of the church.

Rev. and Mrs. Jackson

Evangelists at Community Church Nov. 26-Dec. 8
The Rev. and Mrs. Richard Jackson of Elkhart, Ind., will be the Evangelist and Singers at the Community Church, 514 Main St.
Services began Tuesday night, the 26th, and continue through Dec. 8.
The pastor, the Rev. Marvin K. Moberly, invites the public to attend these special services at 7:30 each evening.
USES BULB 40 YEARS
Charleston, S. C. — A light bulb is still burning in the home of Mrs. Ada Javins, 83, after 40 years of service.
Mrs. Javins recalls that she and her husband bought the bulb, shaped like a cluster of grapes, when they moved into their new home in 1923.
The bulb, which she still uses, gives off a dull reddish glow, as a night light.

J. W. Fulbright, Senator (D., Ark.):
"The conquest of outer space is a worthy and inspiring aspiration, but the education and employment of our people is a basic and immediate necessity."

50-Year Honors Given by Nehawka Methodist Church
NEHAWKA (Special)—Fifty-year members of the Methodist Church were honored Sunday morning at the services.
Those honored were Mrs. Frank Lemon, Marion Tucker, Mrs. Ona Kunkel, Mrs. Hildur Lundberg, Mrs. George Sheldon, Mrs. Oren Pollard, Mrs. Martin Ross, Mrs. Raymond Pollard.
Those who were present gave a short talk and Mrs. Kunkel, whose husband, the late Rev. Kunkel, gave the main response.
Each was presented with a 50-year pin. Sharon Poulos presented an organ solo. Families of the honored members were present for the occasion.
Mrs. John Dietl and Diane met Mr. Dietl at Dunning, and all spent the weekend with the Bud McGooden family.
The Beccard and Garreans children spent the weekend with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Weston. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Beccard and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Garreans guests.
Francesco Belisario, director of public assistance at the Valont Dam disaster:
"It is hard to believe that only yesterday this was a town with streets and houses and people living here. Now it has completely disappeared, almost as if it had never existed."
