

Womans Club Plans Christmas Party

Committees for the meeting of the Plattsmouth Womens Club Dec. 9 at the home of club president, Mrs. J. G. McMaken, are busy with preparations for the annual Christmas party.

The Program Committee has invited Mrs. Margaret Todd of Murray to display and talk on her collection of bells. There will be Christmas Music and a Christmas Devotional message.

The club voted a 50-cent gift exchange, and members are also asked to bring a gift of food to be shared with others.

Mrs. Don Wurga, of the Social Committee, is in charge of refreshments, and the social portion of the evening.

Members will please note change in date from the first Monday, Dec. 2, to the second Monday, Dec. 9. This will be an evening meeting at 8 o'clock instead of the afternoon hour.

Jr. Woman's Club

WEeping WATER (Special)—Last Thursday evening the Weeping Water Junior Woman's Club met at the home of Mrs. Richard Keckler with Mrs. Henry Alfrey, co-hostess.

The president, Mrs. Richard Wade, opened the business meeting. The members voted to sponsor the Mother's March.

The program for the evening was presented by A. W. Edling of Lincoln, an expert on hand writing. Each member had their writing analyzed.

Lunch was served by the hostesses at the close of the evening.

The annual Christmas party will be held at the next meeting. There will be a cookie and candy exchange.

General CWF Meeting At Weeping Water

WEeping WATER (Special)—The General Christian Women's Fellowship met Nov. 21. The meeting opened with Mrs. Ralph Hyde reading verse 1-3 from Psalm 150. The group sang "Count Your Blessings", with Mrs. Lloyd Taylor at the piano, followed by the CWF prayer.

Mrs. Pearl Johnson was a very welcome guest.

Twelve members answered roll call, by telling who they would like to invite for Thanksgiving.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. William Klemme. Mrs. Ralph Hyde thanked the group for helping with the dinners, for the men who were remodeling the church.

Mrs. Hyde read a letter from Mrs. Blanche Lillie.

The general group will prepare Christmas boxes for the shut-ins at our next meeting.

Mrs. Lloyd Taylor gave the lesson entitled, "Through Open Hearts and Hands", with music and pictures. She explained how Art expresses religious feeling.

Mrs. Charles Freeman gave the devotion, her scripture was from John, 4:23. The group sang "O Worship The King". The meeting closed with the fellowship benediction.

The hostesses: Mrs. Ralph Hyde and Mrs. Harold Cummings served a delicious lunch.

Weeping Water Auxiliary Meets

WEeping WATER (Special)—The Auxiliary of the American Legion, unit 237, met Nov. 19 with 18 members and two visitors present.

Presiding at the business meeting were Mrs. Harold Brunns. Plans were made to make Tarratan dolls, on Wednesday evening December 4th at the home of Mrs. Brunns. The members voted to serve the Firemen's annual oyster feed which is to be held on Friday evening December 6th.

Those attending the Cass County convention at Eagle, on Tuesday night, October 27th, were Mrs. Mata Amick, Mrs. James McVay, Mrs. John Stierner and Mrs. Richard Bickford.

The preamble was led by Mrs. Amick. Mrs. McVay read the report of the activities the unit had achieved the past 6 months.

The hostesses were: Mrs. Ralph Keckler and Mrs. L. R. Wiseman who served the group at Domingo's Inn after the meeting.

Fontenelle Chapter of DAR met at the home of Mrs. Glenn Lutz Nov. 19 with Mrs. Fred Vincent, Regent, opening the meeting with a poem "Autumn" by Longfellow.

Mrs. Pearl Mann gave the devotionals, using Psalms 139:23-24. She also read a poem, "Let me be aware". Thoughts about Thanksgiving Day were given, and she closed with the poem "Let Your Heart Sing", compiled by the Chaplain General, Mrs. Charles Johnson, NS, DAR, and the prayer with thoughtfulness for our country and its fruits.

Mrs. C. A. Rosencrans gave the lesson "Let us be Thankful for the Land of Opportunity and Education."

At the business meeting it was voted a subscription to the DAR Magazine be put in the high school library; as well as $5 to be sent to St. Mary's Indian School at Springfield, S. D., and the same amount to the two DAR schools.

A book for the library was to be purchased for the recognition of book week and one in memory of Mrs. Mae Morgan.

Mrs. Mollie C. Gobleman reported she had mailed eight pounds of old jewelry to St. Mary's School for credit of Fontenelle Chapter.

Mrs. Johnston talked a few minutes about National Defense. She told of the Supreme Court decision forbidding public prayer in the public schools.

Lyle Mussman played a piano solo as did Susan Lutz.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Lutz, assisted by her daughter, Susan, and her mother, Mrs. Sapp of Tecumseh.

$3,046.14 Bid Accepted for Street Truck

The bid of Rubin Auto Co. of $3,046.14 for a 2-ton truck for the City Street Dept. Tuesday night was accepted by the City Council on recommendation of the Council's Streets and Alleys Committee.

It was the low bid among four received by the Council Nov. 12. Because of a question on specifications, the bids were referred to committee at that time.

The committee's recommendation that the bid be modified to add $47.39 for inclusion of a gear-type hoist pump was also approved by the Council.
